THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

Officers. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

WITH THE STATISTICS

PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
WORCESTER, MAY 17, 18, 19, 1943

THE BECKLER PRESS, INC.
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to the following percentages:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council of Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year-Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum equivalent to thirteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1943, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Secretary.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a coöperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.
2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.
3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.
4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES OF THE 144th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 17 - 19

PILGRIM CHURCH, WORCESTER, MASSACHUSETTS

The 144th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was called to order at 2:00 o'clock on Monday, May 17, by the Moderator, Dean Homer P. Little of Clark University.

The opening devotional service was conducted by the Reverend Ashley Day Leavitt of the Harvard Church, Brookline.

Committees appointed by the Moderator were:

Business Committee—Rev. Albert J. Penner, Holyoke, Chairman; Mrs. Albert W. Patten, Pittsfield; Mr. William B. Aspinwall, Worcester; Mr. Allison G. Baldwin, Brockton; Rev. Edward M. Condit, Needham; Rev. Milo E. Pearson, Salem.

Credentials Committee—Rev. Stephen C. Lang, Somerville, Chairman; Mrs. Percival A. White, Worcester; Rev. Ralph L. Krout, Paxton; Rev. Stuart Van Cott, Oxford; Rev. Harold B. White, Amherst.

Addresses of welcome were given by Mayor William A. Bennett of Worcester, Rev. Joseph O. Todd, pastor of the entertaining church, and President Wallace W. Atwood of Clark University.

Rev. Carl F. Schultz, the Vice-Moderator of the Conference, was introduced by the Moderator and spoke briefly.

The following Advance Reports were presented, accepted and ordered printed in the Minutes:

Churches and Colleges, Rev. Ray Gibbons
Evangelism and Devotional Life, Rev. Horace G. Robson
Laymen, Mr. Clarence C. Beasley
Missions and Apportionment, Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan
Moral and Social Welfare, Rev. Charles W. Keirstead
*Polity and Standards for the Ministry
Pastoral Placement, Mr. Edward F. Mann
*Religious Education
Woman's Work, Mrs. Franklin G. Field
Board of Ministerial Aid, Rev. Austin Rice
Board of Pastoral Supply, Rev. Horace F. Holton
Boston Seaman's Friend Society, Rev. Herbert W. Gates

* Chairman absent; presented by Moderator as printed.

(Note. — Printed copies of these reports may be had, without cost, by writing to the Secretary of the Conference.)

In accepting the report of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, it was VOTED: That resolutions contained therein be acted upon at the 4:15 business session this afternoon.

It was VOTED: That these resolutions presented by the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare be adopted, exclusive of the one dealing with the Jewish situation, and with the following amendments:

The third resolution, dealing with the Jewish question, was withdrawn to be acted on after the seminar Tuesday afternoon.

The resolution dealing with the liquor problem was amended by substituting the word "forbid" for the word "prohibit", preceding the words "liquor advertising."

The last resolution was amended by striking out the last six words, "rather than because of war emergency."

The Treasurer, Arthur W. Davis, and President Ralph M. Timberlake presented their annual reports, which were accepted.

The meeting adjourned at 5:00 o'clock with prayer and benediction by Rev. George Marquardt, pastor of the German Church in Clinton.

MONDAY EVENING

Due to the illness of Rev. J. Harold Dale of Billerica, Rev. Andrew J. Richards of Dorchester conducted the Service of Worship.

Dr. Rice spoke for the Board of Ministerial Aid and an offering for this cause was received amounting to $160.

Dr. Frank Jennings, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, introduced the speaker of the evening, Bishop Henry St. George Tucker, President of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Bishop Tucker spoke on "The Church's Opportunity Today."

Rev. Harold L. Nevers of Pittsfield closed the session with prayer and benediction.

TUESDAY MORNING

The session opened with singing led by John Finley Williamson of the Westminster Choir College and a Service of Worship conducted by Chaplain Raymond B. Blakney, Headquarters Chaplain School, Harvard University.

Rev. Myron W. Fowell, the new Secretary of the Conference, presented his report, which was accepted with thanks and congratulations for his excellent work, and ordered to be printed in the Minutes.

Rev. John L. Lobingier reported as Secretary of Religious Education. This report was accepted and ordered to be printed in the Minutes.

Field Secretary, Rev. George A. Tuttle made an informal report.

Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl reported as Secretary of Woman's Work. This report was accepted, to be printed in the Minutes.

It was VOTED: To endorse the action of the Trustees in commending the stand of Attorney General Bushnell on gambling.

The Trustees recommended that the By-Laws be amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE V, Section 3, "No member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year." Add the following words, "but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs may serve for two consecutive terms."

ARTICLE X, Section 2(f):

"That the Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life be made a standing committee of the Conference, the committee to consist of nine members to be elected according to the usual procedure of three members per year."

These amendments were adopted.

The Trustees further recommended that the apportionment be the same as last year, namely,

Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society	15%
American Board	39¼%
The Board of Home Missions	40¾%
Council for Social Action	4%
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1%

It was also recommended that the allotment be the same as last year, namely 14 cents per member. These recommendations were adopted.

On recommendation of the Trustees it was also VOTED: To endorse and support the Unit Plan for the coming year.

The Trustees recommended that Sunday, May 23, 1943 be observed as Conference Sunday. This recommendation was amended to read:

"THAT the Sunday following each Annual Meeting be observed as Conference Sunday."

The recommendation as amended was adopted.

It was

VOTED: To adopt the recommendation of the Trustees that the Conference re-endorse the plan of coöperating with the Massachusetts Council of Churches for Weekday Religious Education.

The Business Committee presented the following recommendation, which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS a union of the Congregational-Christian Churches and the Evangelical Reformed Church in the United States of America is being proposed, and a provisional draft for such a basis of union has been prepared by a joint committee from the two denominations,

We recommend that this matter be referred to the Board of Trustees of our Conference for further consideration and that early in the fall the Trustees furnish the churches and Associations with further information necessary for them to reach an intelligent and considered judgment.

It was so voted.

Rev. Howard J. Conn of Great Barrington, co-chairman of the Congregational Committee for War Victims and Services, spoke on behalf of that project.

On recommendation of the Business Committee, it was VOTED: That the Conference go on record as heartily endorsing the work of the committee for War Victims and Services and that all churches be urged to participate in its support.

A recommendation of the Business Committee that each church be asked to appoint a key person or committee to solicit and forward subscriptions to our state paper, the Pilgrim State News, was adopted.

President Timberlake moved that an expression of regret be sent to Chaplain Ernest L. Loomis of the 1st Corps Area Headquarters, that no opportunity had been found for him to speak during his presence at the Conference.

At 11:30 Rev. Roy A. Burkhard of the First Community Church, Columbus, Ohio, gave an address on "Is the Choice a New Church or No Church?"

The session closed with prayers and benediction by Mrs. Owen W. Kerr, Bridgewater.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Tuesday afternoon's program consisted of the following seminars:

Churches and Colleges, Rev. Ray Gibbons
Evangelism, Rev. Horace G. Robson
The Church School, Rev. John L. Lobingier
Young People's Work, Dr. Roy A. Burkhard
Music and the Religious Arts, Dr. John Finley Williamson
Social Action, Rev. Charles W. Keirstead
Missions. Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan
Pastoral Placement, Mr. Edward F. Mann

At 4:00 o'clock Dean and Mrs. Homer P. Little graciously entertained the delegates at a tea in their home.

At 5:00 o'clock the Conference returned to the church to hear an address by Rev. Paul Leeds of the Kinder Larger Parish, Lawrence, Louisiana.

The session closed with prayer and benediction by Rev. Arba J. Marsh of Lawrence.

TUESDAY EVENING

On Tuesday evening there were three special meetings:

The Laymen held their meeting in Atwood Hall, Clark University. Mr. Clarence C. Beasley presided and Prof. Anton De Haas of Harvard University was the speaker. Professor De Haas' topic was "The Price of Peace." At this meeting the suggestions of the committee for an enlarged laymen's movement in Massachusetts were adopted in principle.

The annual meeting of the Department of Woman's Work was held in the South Baptist Church, Mrs. Franklin G. Field, Chairman, presiding. Reports were received and officers for the coming year were elected. The Second Mile Gift was dedicated. Mrs. Chester B. Fisk of Hanover, N. H., spoke on the subject, "The One Thing Needful."

The Youth Rally was held in Pilgrim Church, with music by the Worcester Youth Chorus, Dr. John Finley Williamson leading. The speaker was Dr. Roy Burkhard, who gave an address on, "How Much Do We Believe in Democracy?"

WEDNESDAY MORNING

Rev. Joseph O. Todd led the worship service at 8:30 and Rev. William E. Gilroy gave a communion meditation. Communion was administered by Mr. Todd, with a period of intercessory prayer for men in the service.

At 9:45 the Nominating Committee presented its report through its chairman, Rev. Harold S. Capron of Whitman. The names presented were the same as those elected and will be found on pages 13-21 of these Minutes and Reports.

The Moderator appointed tellers who distributed the ballots.

While the ballots were being distributed business was conducted as follows:

Rev. Stephen C. Lang, Chairman of the Credentials Committee, reported the registrations received up to Wednesday morning.

The Business Committee recommended that the Chair recognize Mr. Keirstead for further report on recommendations of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare. Mr. Keirstead presented the following resolution as a substitute for that contained in the original report of the committee, and it was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS we have heard with horror and deep consternation of barbaric actions against the Jewish race, as a result of which more than two million Jews have perished since the beginning of this second World War, and

WHEREAS we recognize the anti-Semitic movement throughout the United States,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Congregational churches do all in their power to combat this by creating more Christian attitudes and actions among their members toward the Jewish people.

Mr. Keirstead also represented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS increasingly there is evidence of a disregard of the religious values of the Lord's Day, this Conference records its deep concern for the preservation of a Christian Sunday.

The final resolution presented by Mr. Keirstead was:

THAT this 144th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society is deeply gratified at the action of the Massachusetts Legislature in so decisively defeating the proposed lottery legislation and expresses its deep appreciation to all members of the legislature who voted against lottery legislation.

This was unanimously adopted.

The Business Committee recommended that the Chair recognize Mr. Edward F. Mann to report for the Committee on Pastoral Placement. Mr. Mann made the following recommendations, all of which were adopted:

THAT the Conference approve in principle the plan of procedure for the replacement of ministers submitted by the Committee on Pastoral Exchange and Placement. (Page 30 of the Advance Reports).

THAT said plan be referred to the next Annual Meeting of the Conference for action and that in the interim it be submitted for consideration and discussion in the several Associations and churches of Massachusetts; and that each church and each minister be requested and urged to register, prior to the next Annual Meeting, approval or disapproval of the plan in principle.

THAT the whole matter of pastoral placement be referred back to the same committee for further consideration and study; and that said committee be empowered to enlarge itself by the appointment of such additional members as the committee may deem desirable.

THAT the Conference call to the attention of the churches of Massachusetts the need of adjusting ministers' salaries to the increase in the cost of living which now obtains, and remind the churches of the action of the Conference taken some years ago, recommending that the minimum salary of any minister be $1800 and parsonage and that the Secretary of the Conference be instructed to bring this action to the attention of the several churches through the church clerks.

The Business Committee introduced the following resolutions, all of which were unanimously adopted.

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, at its 144th Annual Meeting, held in Pilgrim Church, Worcester, May 17–19, 1943, sends to you, the Congregational Chaplains of our state in the service of the armed forces of our country, sincere greetings and appreciation and Christian love. We are proud of the vital service which you are rendering to the young men in and out of our churches by ministering to their spiritual needs. May the blessing of God be with you wherever you go.

This resolution is presented with the understanding that it be conveyed to the Chaplains by the officers of the Conference.

RESOLVED: That the Conference expresses its grateful appreciation to the retiring members of the Board of Trustees and of the Standing Committees of the Conference for their able and unselfish service throughout their terms of office.

RESOLVED: That the 144th Annual Meeting of the Congregational Conference and Missionary Society extends to the Pilgrim Congregational Church and

Clark University sincere gratitude for making available their splendid equipment for our work, worship and fellowship and for their many courtesies and gracious hospitality.

RESOLVED: That we give our special thanks to the pastor of the church, Rev. Joseph O. Todd, for his unfailing courtesy and kindly solicitude for our convenience and comfort and to all the men and women of his parish who have so painstakingly cared for the innumerable details which have contributed so much to the efficient and harmonious function of the Conference.

WE EXPRESS OUR GRATITUDE

To the South Baptist Church and to the Worcester City Missionary Society and to other Congregational churches in the city for their kind coöperation.

To the President of Clark University, Dr. Wallace W. Atwood, for his gracious words of welcome, and to Dean and Mrs. Little for opening their home for the delightful tea and reception given by the women of Pilgrim Church.

To all those of Pilgrim Church and of sister churches and those of the University who have opened their homes in entertaining the delegates, to our guest speakers, to the leaders of the seminars and to all who have served on the various committees.

To the organists, the directors, the choirs and soloists for their effective music, and particularly to Dr. John Finley Williamson of the Westminster Choir College for his inspiring leadership of our musical services.

To our Moderator, Dr. Homer P. Little, for his gracious and efficient manner in presiding over the deliberations of the Conference.

The committee recognizes the overcoming of the unusual difficulties involved in entertaining so large a conference under existing conditions. We, therefore, commend the people of Worcester for carrying forward the program in such an outstanding manner.

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, at its 144th Annual Meeting, held in Worcester, May 17–19, 1943, conveys Christian greetings and best wishes to the New England Conference of the Methodist Church now is session in this same city. May God bless your deliberations and greatly prosper your work.

This resolution is presented with the hope and expectation that it be delivered in person by our President, Mr. Timberlake, together with any further words of greeting he may desire to express.

The selection of a place for the next Annual Meeting was referred to the Board of Trustees.

At this point the tellers reported the results of the election, showing all the candidates elected as nominated.

The Conference then heard two addresses, Dr. Frank Laubach speaking on "New Doors are Opening for the Church," and Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Texas, whose topic was "The Witness of the Church through Fellowship."

The closing prayer and benediction was given by President Emeritus Frederick Harlan Page.

The meeting adjourned at 12:15.

Hollis M. Bartlett, Recording Secretary.

Myron W. Fowell, Secretary.

Following the close of the Conference a testimonial luncheon was tendered to Rev. William E. Gilroy, the retiring editor of Advance.

ADVENTURES IN COÖPERATION

News from the war fronts indicates how essential and how advantageous it is in military operations to secure coöperation and coördination between armies of the various democratic nations and also between the land, sea and air forces. Equally requisite is it in an organization of free and democratic churches to have a coöperative spirit and to put it into practice. It is the responsibility of your executive officers to further this will to united action and to find occasions for its expression. I take pleasure in reporting to you what has been accomplished in this way during the past year.

You have given me a group of congenial and competent colleagues, and each one is earnestly devoted to his particular work. We have a joyous sense of comradeship in a united task. Our regular meetings are characterized by a spirit of mutual respect and helpfulness. Old problems and new ideas are discussed with frankness and friendliness. When a proposal has unanimous support, we share in the responsibility for its execution. As my fellow Staff members report for their particular departments, you will have reason to be grateful for their fidelity and consecration.

The Board of Trustees took a significant forward step in the administration of the affairs of the Conference by assigning to the so-called "General Conference Committee" the functions of an executive committee. Its members were chosen to represent the various interests and phases of our work. The members of the Staff were invited to meet with the Committee, and the proposals of the Staff were laid before it for review and recommendation. It became, in reality, a planning board to study and advise regarding the internal working of the administration and the external relations with the churches and Associations. The members of this Committee, and of the Committees on Finance, Missions, and Grants — your representatives on the Board — have given of themselves unstintingly to serve the best interests of all the churches. They merit your gratitude, particularly those whose term of office expires with this meeting: Mrs. Wilfred G. Hay, Mrs. Harry S. Lowd, Rev. Donald Fraser, Rev. William M. Macnair, Rev. Clarence C. Hellens, Mr. Leonard B. Campbell (who has completed two terms on the Finance Committee), and Dean Homer P. Little.

The effort to correlate the work of the several Conference committees became an actuality this year. The Coördinating Council, made up of members of the Missionary, Religious Education, Moral and Social Welfare, Evangelism, and Churches and Colleges Committees, held two general meetings. Getting together in this way, they were enabled not only to delineate more carefully their own plans, but to avoid duplication of effort and to supplement each other's programs.

The benefit of all this was seen in their common approach to the similar committees in the Associations. Twelve group conferences were held by members of the Coördinating Council, with committees of all the Associations, during the early spring. These proved to be very much worth while in giving definite purpose and renewed impetus to the Association committees. This was only a beginning. There is much yet to be done. No Association committee will ever become really effective until at least the chairman knows that there is a real job to be done and has some idea as to how to go about it. To bring this about is the aim of the Coördinating Council, with the hope that the esprit de corps in every Association may be maintained at a high level.

With the General Council and the Mission Boards we have joined hands to do some effective pieces of work. Although Massachusetts lagged behind in its support of the Debt of Honor, in this first year of the Unit Plan we went well over the top. Dr. Fowell, who successfully directed this effort, will in his report tell you what was accomplished by our churches.

A year ago, in a special offering, we raised $1,700 for the Military Camp Program in the state. Last year we joined our appeal with that of the Committee on War Victims and Services. A total of $57,000 was raised for this purpose. From the national fund $2,500 has been allocated to the Conference, to be used as our contribution for the united work under the Massachusetts Council of Churches for the chaplains and soldiers at Fort Devens, Camp Edwards and the Temple Place Center. Our own Dr. Hugh Penney has been called to the Federated Church in Ayer, in order that he may not only minister to that parish, but more effectively relate its program to the religious needs of the men at the Fort and the 10,000 WAACS that are expected there soon. On the Cape we are increasing our support of the program being carried on by the churches in the vicinity of Camp Edwards. In addition, a civilian chaplain will soon be appointed to serve the military units stationed along the shore. Because these units are relatively small, neither the Army nor the Navy provides them with a chaplain; yet between Falmouth and Osterville there are more servicemen than there are permanent residents on the whole Cape. Not only do we share in the general support of the fine work being done at the Temple Place Social Center for servicemen, but many of our churches in Greater Boston are supplying the funds and the junior hostesses for the regular week-end activities there.

Believing that the minister is the key man in the missionary interest and giving of a church, a series of conferences was held last fall with the ministers of each Association. In these the members of the Staff were assisted by Dr. Stauffacher, Minister of the Missions Council, and Dr. Hugh Vernon White, Secretary of the American Board. Both our guests were effective in their presentation of the missionary motives and program for the present time. Methods and materials for the every-member canvass were presented and discussed fully. The Plan Book, with our Conference supplement, was introduced. The ministers who attended were truly interested, and were very appreciative of this form of helpful guidance for their local missionary program.

The benefit of these conferences is revealed in the fact that, in spite of the war and of other urgent appeals, the direct giving of our churches through the Conference office to missions did not materially decrease over the previous year. However, in the total giving of the Massachusetts churches to missions there was a loss of 3% over 1941. But this was due to a falling-off in the amount of designated gifts made directly to the Boards. The generous attitude of our people toward the whole service program of the Church is revealed in the fact that the total support of the Apportionment plan, the Unit Plan, and the War Victims and Services Committee amounted to $341,000.

Of course, when you divide that grand total among all our members, it only averages around $2.00 per member per year, or four cents per week. Do you suppose we could possibly lift it next year to five cents per week per member?

There is an interesting side light upon the influence which the missionary-minded minister has upon the giving of his church. The drop of 3% in the total missionary giving for last year can be more than accounted for by the decrease in the giving of seven of our larger churches. The peculiar thing is that the pastors of these churches and some of the leading members are keenly interested in the missionary program of the church. Most of them have been, or are, officials of our Boards.

During the year the Congregational Church Union of Boston and Vicinity has transferred to the Conference the titles to the following pieces of property: the church at Hough's Neck and the Sea Street building; St. Mark Church, Roxbury; Clarendon Church, Hyde Park; the Medford Hillside Church; the church at North Woburn; the chapel building at Point Shirley, Winthrop. For some of these, and others already owned by the Conference, we have spent, largely for insurance, over $1,000. With the assistance of the Church Building Division of the Board of Home Missions ten of our churches have carried out a program of redecorating or remodeling, or the refinancing of their indebtedness to the Board.

One hundred and twenty-two church units have been involved in the pastoral changes that have been effected in the state during the year. Most of these have been under the auspices of the Board of Pastoral Supply, and many of them by collaboration with the officers of the Conference.

Within the Conference, forty-eight of our Congregational ministers have made a change of pastorate. Twenty-six Congregational ministers have been called to our churches from outside the state, and twenty-five Congregational ministers have left the state. Eighteen non-Congregational ministers have been called to our churches, while thirteen non-Congregational ministers have left Massachusetts. Eight of our ministers have retired from the active ministry: Rev. Henry Arnold, Rev. Edmund F. Blackmer, Rev. Stanley F. Blomfield, Rev. William Boicourt, Rev. George K. Carter, Rev. Arba J. Marsh, Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. James F. Scott. Seven ministers in the active pastorate have died during the year, the total number being twenty-nine. Their names will be found on page 97.

We may well be proud of the response which our parsonage families have made to the call for chaplains with the armed forces. A list will be found on page 23. The normal quota for Congregational chaplains from Massachusetts by the end of this year is fifty-four. At the present time seventy-six of our ministers are chaplains either with the Army or Navy. Four more are in other forms of national service. Not only would we honor these ministers for their willingness to engage in this exacting and hazardous service to our soldiers and sailors, but we pay our respect to their wives and families who have encouraged them to volunteer. Let us who are at home include in our daily intercessions these men who, in the name of Christ, have literally become all things to all men. Although so many ministers are away, I know of no church which is closed. In one way or another, these parishes are being served, and in many instances a new lease of life has come to the church as the lay members have awakened to their responsibilities for the carrying on of the church program.

We have had another year of happy relationship with the other denominations through the Massachusetts Council of Churches. There is a growing willingness to think through our problems together, and to agree upon a common basis of action. Our coöperative enterprises through the Council of Churches are, to my mind, a finer expression of church unity than that which might result from an effort to unite us in one church organization. Through the Comity Department of the Council we are making a united approach to certain new residential areas in the vicinity of Greater Boston. The area between Waltham and Watertown is being studied at the present time. The peculiar problems of the federated church are also receiving our attention. This is important to us, as Congregationalists, for of the fifty-four federated churches in Massachusetts we are represented in forty-six of them. It has been discovered that the areas of tension have to do with church membership, the development of a missionary spirit and the appropriation of missionary funds, and the trends in denominational affiliation, or the obliteration of any such trends.

Through the Council of Churches we are also engaged in the program of Week-Day Religious Education. In local communities our churches are participating in and benefiting from this new venture,— for us, — in religious education. As a Conference, we are taking our full share in responsibility for the oversight and direction of an enterprise that can only succeed as it is undertaken by a united Protestantism.

The strategic opportunity of a lifetime for coöperation lies just ahead of us. The ventures which we have been making as churchmen in community, state, and nation should prepare us, encourage us and inspire us to the great adventure as Christian citizens in international coöperation. Only yesterday we celebrated "I Am An American" Day. As Americans we are very much concerned with the war. As Christian Americans we are concerned for a world which, in the words of Jefferson, is "established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes". The winning of victory is one thing, but the establishment of peace is something else. While we are fighting for the first, we must be planning our strategy for the second. The pattern of thought for the terms of peace is being set now. That is why both labor and industry are so concerned regarding any changes which are taking place, lest these should become permanent when the war is over. Therefore, as America has been called into a place of leadership in the winning of the war, America must be prepared to take the leadership in the winning of the peace. As it becomes the task of a Christian America to assure a just and durable peace, the Church must be awake to its high mission as a positive force for human betterment. If we believe in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, the day is at hand when we must prove our faith by our deeds. How shall we do this?

First of all, by a re-emphasis of the evangelical motive. As Congregationalists, we have ever believed that it takes good men to make a good world, or as Fosdick puts it, that "The soul of reformation is the reformation of the soul." We must be intent upon the task of winning men to loyalty to Jesus Christ. Our nation will not be concerned with righteousness and justice in a new world order, unless it is Christian at heart. All around us there are evidences that we are living in a society that is very much pagan at heart. Douglas Horton has estimated from Government statistics that there are 7,000,000 unchurched people in this state. That means over forty times as many persons as there are members in all our churches together. The field is ripe unto the harvest.

To every minister here this is surely an incentive for a searching of heart, a purifying of motives, and a deepening of devotion. Personally and collectively let us seek a quickening of our souls. In the words of Paul, let us provoke one another to love and good works. Our brother ministers in the Chaplaincy are a reproof and a challenge to us. Their letters from the camps, the transports and the battle areas indicate that we have left undone many things that ought to have been done, and they call us to a more ardent spiritual leadership.

Let me urge you to do three things: Plan to attend one of the two convocations this fall, at Andover Newton Seminary or Wilbraham Academy. At both places Professor Nels Ferre' is to lead us in a study of "The Christian Message in Our Day". Second, let me invite you to become acquainted with the "Christus Victor" fellowship. They are attempting "to meet the need for greater incisiveness of Christian belief among our churches". You are invited to join them in their attempt to make this historic faith of the Church and its implications articulate in our fellowship. Send your inquiry to Reverend Arlan Baillie, 6 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston. Third, let me invite the pastors in neighboring parishes to form themselves into intercessory groups. Several such groups are now being carried on with effectiveness and power.

Again let me recommend to our pastors the use of the programs we have prepared in previous years for a preaching mission and for visitation evangelism. Here are methods of modern evangelism that have proved themselves valuable, practical, and adaptable to any community.

In this connection let me refer to Professor Douglas McIntosh's new book, "Personal Religion". Here is a message from a school that is noted, if not notorious, for being "liberal", and from a man who is none other than a professor of theology. But listen to what is troubling this scholar: that the Church will drift into "arid secularism" if we fail to recover the good and vital essence of Christian evangelism. He calls for a recovery of the evangelizing zeal and unselfish devotion of the Brainards and Judsons of the earlier missionary movement. And he feels that the Church must recover the well-nigh lost art of personal evangelism through honest witnessing to others on the basis of personal experience. "We should be radical," says he, "in our search for saving truth; conservative in keeping it, once we have found it; and at the same time liberal in sharing it with others. This is the true religious liberalism."

I call upon the Yale Divinity men in Massachusetts churches to unite in a response to this appeal from our honored professor, in a fearless search for truth, in a re-examination of the inner springs of our personal lives, and in a program of personal evangelism. And let the Hartford men, the Andover men, the Union and Chicago men, the Bangor and the B. U. men excel us if they can.

It is not enough, however, for the Church to produce good men. It must train good men to be good citizens. To secure a new world order our people must become intelligent on the issues at stake. To use a radio phrase, it is only an informed America that can become a peace-making America. Having given them ideals, it is essential to train the citizens of a democracy for the practical implementation of those ideals. If the four freedoms are to be enjoyed by the people whom we believe to be our brothers around the world, it can only come about as there is a definite change in the present political establishments. With the ending of the war there will be a greater opportunity than we have ever known for missionary work. We must be prepared to send out our young men and women in greater numbers than ever before. However, the world will not be saved unless in addition, it is organized for coöperation, and this will require an informed religious conscience both at home and abroad, — but particularly at home.

Once again, therefore, our ministers must become both pastors and teachers. As in the days before the Revolution, Congregational ministers in the "election sermons" laid the foundations for the Declaration of Independence, so now in every church there must be organized a "task force" that will give time and effort to study and to prepare a strategy which will overcome the desperate difficulties that must be faced in securing a friendly, sane and coöperative world out of the present world of fear, hatred and violence. If we believe in a Christian world order, we must not only plan for it, but work for it. Regarding an enduring peace, our faith without works is dead. But we have a lively hope that a Christian-minded constituency can influence its representatives in Congress, and a Christian-minded nation can give direction to our national administration. If we will make a venture in "dynamic coöperation for global peace", the Christians of today, as in the Apostolic Age, can turn the world upside down in order to lay the foundation for the rebuilding of a new world order.

To the nations we have a message to give, a song to be sung, and a Saviour to show, —

> "That all of the world's great peoples might come to the > truth of God;
> For the darkness shall turn to dawning, and the dawning to > noonday bright;
> And Christ's great kingdom shall come on earth,
> The kingdom of love and light."

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

The By-Laws of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society declare that the Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, assist in its general work and present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches.

With the help of Miss Dorothy Light, office secretary, records have been kept during the year of the ministerial standing of our ministers by Associations. Statistical reports received from the churches have been organized for the national and state year books. Records have been filed of ordinations, installations and of ministers entering the chaplaincy. A record has been compiled of deaths occurring among our Massachusetts ministers and of changes in the ministerial leadership of our churches. Lists have been made and kept on file of Association leaders and committees and of various groups of church officers.

Working with other members of the staff to carry forward the general work of the Conference, the Secretary participated in more than 100 committee or group conferences, worked with 14 churches in the interest of new Yoked-Field or Larger Parish relationships, and conferred, in coöperation with the Board of Pastoral Supply, with representatives of 23 churches seeking new pastoral leadership. He has given 115 sermons or addresses in various parts of the state during the 9 months of his work with the Conference. He worked closely with the special committee appointed by the Trustees to secure Massachusetts' share of the Unit Plan quota for 1942 and has endeavored to assist with the work of the Laymen's Committee, the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare and the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry.

Statistics are always at best an unsatisfactory medium for measuring progress in religion. In a year of total war they are particularly undependable. Retrogression in religion rather than progress has marked most war periods. Undoubtedly this war period will follow the usual pattern unless large and determined compensations are made for the effects of war upon the spiritual life.

Our churches received 9141 individuals into membership last year. Of these 5211 were received by confession of faith. This represented a drop of 151 by confession and of 221 from the total number received into membership in 1941. Not counting inactive churches and churches making no report, 158 churches received no new members by confession of faith, and 101 churches received no members by letter or confession. However, the total membership of our churches at the end of 1942 was 180,156, a net gain of 2468 over 1941. The Park Street Church, Boston, received the largest number of new members, with a total of 149, 48 of whom were received by confession of faith. Hope Church, Springfield, was second with a total of 144, of whom 61 were received by confession. The First Church of Braintree received the largest group of new members, numbering 80, by confession of faith, with a total of 125. The church having the largest total membership is Hope Church, Springfield, with 2405 members.

The average congregation among churches reporting attendance figures was 116, which is the same as the average congregation reported for 1941. However, a varying group of churches report their attendance from year to year and a careful study of attendance among a representative group of churches reporting figures for both 1941 and 1942 reveals a decline in attendance last year of about 3½%, as compared to the year before. In consideration of the fact that from 6% to 10% of the members of the average church are in the service and in view of the abnormal number of our churches that were without regular pastoral leadership for a part of the year, it appears that church attendance held up quite well last year. The emphasis that has been given to church attendance in recent years, together with new and improved methods used by an increasing number of our churches in the interest of strengthening attendance has undoubtedly helped to make this relatively good record possible. While no differentiation is made in the reports between church attendance on the part of men as compared with women, the Secretary has noted the relative proportion of men to women in the churches in which he has preached since he assumed office and has found that the proportion varies from 1–3 to 1–7 in favor of the women. The original inspiration for the establishment of the Christian Church was given by a man and men have played major parts in revitalizing the church in the periods of its decline. The present disparity between the number of men as compared to women attending our churches represents a grave threat to their health and future. Determined efforts ought to be made to correct it.

The facts concerning youth groups in our churches are equally challenging. The membership in our church schools dropped 6474 during 1942, as compared to 1941. This represents the worst decline in recent years during which our church schools have lost heavily in enrollment. Looking back of these figures, we find that 402 of our church schools lost in membership, 21 remained the same, and only 172 gained in membership. A new interest and emphasis on religious education and general school promotion is needed in the majority of our churches.

The church school picture is not altogether discouraging. Among the 172 churches whose schools gained in membership last year was one school which increased its membership 400%, 10 achieved gains of 50% or more and 45 made gains of 20% or more. A study of the schools that made substantial gains indicates that the gains achieved were more attributable to new methods used in church school management and promotion than to a large influx of new families and children into their communities. The largest church school in the Conference is that of the Second Church, Dorchester, with 820 members. The second largest is that of the First Church in Everett, with 721 members. The West Somerville church holds third place, with 712 members. Then follow Winchester, First, with 663, and Wakefield, with 660.

Membership in young people's groups followed the trend of other recent years and lost 3276 members as compared to the total membership in youth groups in our churches in 1941. These statistics are particularly embarrassing in view of current newspaper headlines reporting a startling upswing in juvenile crime and delinquency. Can we not have more men and women volunteering for leadership with youth groups through our churches in the name of "national defense" if not in the name of church work? There is a great need for our churches to do more by way of providing programs and activities for the moral and social as well as the spiritual development of youth.

Contributions to the Apportionment were about $15,000 less than for 1941. However, contributions registered in the "Other Gifts" column of the Year-Book are $64,615 more than for the previous year. Our church property has an aggregate value of $34,882,718, with total indebtedness amounting to about 3% of its value.

The average cash salary for full-time ministers in 1942 was $2,251, which represented an increase of $9.00 over the average for 1941. This increase of one-third of 1% in ministers' salaries at a time when the cost of living was mounting rapidly represents a challenge to our Conference and the churches. There were 221 of our ministers who received $1800 or less in cash salary last year; 106 of them received $1500 or less; 24 received $1200 or less. Our churches collectively paid out in salaries to their ministers last year a sum equal only to about 3% of their investment in buildings. Can we expect to secure anything like an efficient or adequate use of our present equipment in church buildings without a more equitable relationship between the investment we make in leadership as compared to that which we have made in buildings? If through various strategical combinations of churches enough church property could be released from present use and sold to create a million dollar endowment fund, the income from which could be used to employ additional leadership and more effective leadership for the remaining churches, many of the unfortunate trends of recent years might be reversed. Which of our churches in areas of declining religious need and opportunity will have the courage to "find life by losing it", sacrificing the visible church of wood or stone in one community to help build the invisible church of Christ in other communities?

There are now 76 of our Massachusetts ministers in the chaplaincy. There are 530 ministers actually serving churches. Dr. J. Lee Mitchell of the Second Church, Attleboro, holds the distinction of representing the longest active pastorate. He has served the Attleboro church for 42 years. Dr. Edwin B. Robinson of Grace Church, Holyoke, has served that church for 41 years, and Dr. J. Harold Dale has ministered to the First Church of Billerica for 40 years. An unusually large number of new pastorates began in our churches last year.

In spite of certain recessions in our work, as represented by the statistics for 1942, the Secretary believes that new forces for good are stirring among our churches and associations.

The real strength of Congregationalism has never been as much in our numbers as in our ideals. The great complementary ideals of freedom and responsibility are still cherished by many Congregationalists. If our concern for democracy in our work can continue to be matched by a growing sense of responsibility for individual and world needs, we shall emerge from this present war period with new strength, regardless of what statistics may indicate in the meantime.

There is need among us, however, for more determined and aggressive action to meet a host of problems and responsibilities. This is true especially in many of our smaller churches. It is also true in some of our larger churches.

Last fall, during the Unit Plan Campaign, letters were sent to all active ministers, asking them to indicate on reply postal cards what their churches might do to help meet the Unit Plan quota. Three ministers of small churches replied as follows:

1. "We are small and can do nothing."
2. "I am doing my best with a stubborn, reactionary committee and getting nowhere. Perhaps the light may break later."
3. "My church plans to give $50 yearly for 4 years. One payment has already been made."

The Secretary submits these comments relative to one denominational responsibility. They represent various moods that are among us as Congregationalists. Two of them represent also a quickening of spirit that is taking place among some of us, a spirit that is true to our ancient heritage. "For the Lord has not given us a spirit of fear" or in the words of Moffatt's translation of Paul's letter to Timothy, "The Lord has not given us a timid spirit, but a spirit of power and of love, and of discipline."

Submitted, May 18, 1943

MYRON W. FOWELL, Secretary

Boston, Massachusetts.

Sir:

We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ended March 31, 1943, and we report that income receivable from invested funds and all other income as shown by the books of the Society have been accounted for; that we have seen paid cheques or other evidence of payment for all disbursements; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1943; that the cash in banks and office at March 31, 1943, has been verified, and that, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the Funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1943, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ended at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF WOMAN'S WORK

Each year an attempt to present an adequate review of the activities in the office of the Executive Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work seems more futile because of the increase in detail and responsibility.

There have been many innovations in the Department of Woman's Work this year. There was an increase in contacts with the local organizations with the sending of the Education Bulletin directly to the organization instead of distributing through the District Education Chairmen and also the sending of a special letter of appeal for the Second Mile Woman's Gift. Spring and fall packets of material went out also this year as usual. Since January, special publicity has been given the Pilgrim Hall meetings which meant mailing monthly reminders to the presidents of women's organizations in Suffolk District. This was in addition to the year's program of these meetings which went out in the Fall Packet. The packet sent to the District Children's Work Chairmen included more material than usual, of which a children's reading list and information concerning the 1943 Lenten project was mimeographed in this office. For the first time, material for Second Mile Woman's Gift packets was prepared for District Second Mile Chairmen, and special orders of these packets brought about the assembling of over a hundred. A report-questionnaire has been prepared to be sent in the spring packet hoping if there is cooperation in their return that our officers may become better acquainted with our seven hundred and fifty organizations. Arrangements for the State Women Leaders' Meeting held in the fall for the first time, instead of separate conferences of district workers throughout the year, were carried out by this office.

Your secretary's personal activities consist of her field work which, because of regular committee and other office engagements, is each year limited to about seventy-five local church appointments; added responsibility this year as promotional manager of the Pilgrim State News in which she also edits the pages, "Massachusetts Women"; serving as staff member and clerk of the trustees committee on Missions and Apportionment. Her conference and institute activities have included conducting a pre-council seminar at the General Council Meeting in Durham; teaching a course at the Congregational House Institute and serving on the planning committee of the second session; serving as Dean of Women at a Pilgrim Fellowship Conference; teaching at the Northern New England School of Religious Education and serving as chairman of the education committee planning the coming session of the school as well as being a member of the Education Committee of the Northfield Religious Education Conference. She is also a member of the program committee of the Institute of International Relations.

The Speakers' Bureau perhaps more than any other department of your secretary's work has felt the effect of war conditions. Surprisingly it has resulted in an increase of work. Fuel conditions brought about need for changes in places of meetings, transportation difficulties meant replanning itineraries. Fewer speakers from the foreign field, since many missionaries now at home are accepting posts rather than speaking, required resourcefulness in program suggestions and locating and recommending local speakers. Your secretary gives a generous part of her day to the supervision of this bureau and Mrs. Paul Bogosian, office secretary, devotes the major part of her time to it. It is interesting, too, to note that appointments, not including numerous recommendations, have outnumbered those of last year and total well over eight hundred. Letters, request blanks, and speakers' lists go each July to ministers and women's organization presidents, and at other times to the chairmen of Association missionary committees, for the planning of church programs. Real satisfaction comes from the appreciation of the service of our bureau as expressed by both churches and speakers.

Parsonage box work is taken care of through this office and this year sixty-nine women's organizations have sent boxes and money gifts to seventy-five missionary pastors' families throughout the country.

Your secretary can never close her report without expressing gratitude for the opportunity to serve Massachusetts Congregational Churches.

Respectfully submitted,

Naomi G. Ekdahl
(Mrs. Adolph G.)

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

This, my first report to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, covers a period of scarcely eight and a half months, for I did not enter upon my present duties until about Labor Day.

During this period of two-thirds of a year the record shows that I have been in 77 different churches (and in some of these a number of times) for such activities as preaching, ministers' conferences, young people's rallies, association meetings, teachers' and officers' conferences, parent-teacher gatherings, Religious Education institutes and the like. Much of my work has been in the office itself, meeting people in conference, answering correspondence, and engaging in other activities which only those who have never had the experience are likely to describe as "just sitting in an office." And, of course, committee meetings innumerable.

Before speaking of my major work in the field of Christian Education let me mention two minor tasks. The first is the editorship of Pilgrim State News. As every attendant at a state conference meeting knows, this is our state paper, published ten times a year, two-thirds of its pages taken from the Missionary Herald being identical in the papers of all the states, and the other sixteen pages being our own. This year's policy has been to make it a house organ, with news of the churches and the associations, special pages on Woman's Work, the Pilgrim Fellowship and (whenever they care to use space) on Laymen's work, and with at least five or six pages of each issue devoted to some theme of special concern to Massachusetts Congregationalists — e.g., "The State Conference" itself in the current issue, "Church and College" in the June issue, "The Church School", "Massachusetts Churches in a World at War", and other themes in previous issues. During the past year paid subscriptions have increased about 40%, a trend that should continue until we have a paid subscription list of at least 10,000. All are invited to send in both news items and constructive suggestions.

The second of these lesser responsibilities is a more or less close contact with the churches of three associations. In coming to know some of them better, particularly the aided churches, and in helping some in their search for the right pastor, I have had the opportunity of new associations and new friendships which I cherish.

Turning then to the specific field of RELIGIOUS EDUCATION may I mention, though briefly, a few major points:

1. The State and Association Committees on Religious Education: One of the real satisfactions of the year has come from working with the present state committee, under the competent chairmanship of Rev. Paul McElroy of Danvers. There has been in the committee a disposition to work, to enter new fields and to go forward. A beginning has been made in closer coöperation with the various Association Committees and your Secretary has met with these committees in 19 of the 21 associations, — with some of them on more than one occasion. In most cases these committees have a few definite pieces of work they are trying to carry through, some of them chosen from a prepared list of suggestions for Association Committees.

2. The Church School: Many of us are troubled by the downward curve in church school enrollment through recent years, not only in our own but in other states also, not only among Congregationalists but among other denominations as well. During the ten-year period ending a year ago this decline among Massachusetts Congregationalists was from 113,000 to 89,000, or 21%. During this same period, however, 21% of our church schools grew. During 1942 there were 172 church schools (29%) that showed an increase, while 21 more held their own; but 402 lost ground. This is a matter of real concern to your Secretary, and to the State Education Committee. We have a feeling that if three out of ten of our schools can grow, representing both large and small churches, both city and rural, both industrial and residential, the same may be true of many others if they can be challenged to make similar efforts. Of the seven largest church schools some show a loss but more show a gain, and together their gain is 6½%. Our concern is not merely for numbers but also for quality and efficiency, but we believe that between the two there exists an intimate relationship. Four first steps are these: (1) A proposal for AN INCREASE CAMPAIGN, with definite ways of engaging in it, which some have taken seriously; (2) A PUPILS' ACHIEVEMENT GOAL, a simple sheet designed to indicate that our aim is much more than mere attendance, — a sheet that has been used by many of our schools and which will shortly be revised on the basis of suggestions received; (3) A check-sheet, CHECKING YOUR CHURCH SCHOOL which will be the basis for discussion in many leaders' conferences; and (4) Institutes and other opportunities for consultation on better teaching, the curriculum, home coöperation, etc. No explanation of the reasons for church school decline can suffice as long as so many unreached still live in every community; nor can a defeatist attitude be justified anywhere when the record of one-third of our churches stands against the inevitability of decline.

3. Young People's Work: Nothing is more appealing. It strikes a responsive chord in every adult heart. Right now it calls for a statesmanship of which most of us feel the lack, when so many of our older young people have left for war or for war work and when the high-school age is so affected by the world crisis. Not only do we need strong youth work in every church, but also coöperative youth work, denominationally as well as interdenominationally. Thus we have the Pilgrim Fellowship in the state, — that covering title for all young people's groups in Congregational churches, whether the local name be Christian Endeavor or Young People's Club or Comrades of the Way or Fireside Forum. Within the last three weeks two more association organizations have been completed, making 12 of the 21 associations now organized. Two representatives from each association join together to form the Council which will meet in June to work on plans for the coming year. It has been a heartening experience to meet every two months with the Executive Committee of the state, a splendid and earnest group of young people, with Walter Goehring of Holyoke as president.

4. Children's Work: This has been carried on effectively in the past by a committee of the Woman's Department, Mrs. Hathorn of North Andover being the present chairman. Your secretary has been invited to meet with this committee and now at the request of the Chairman and Executive Secretary of the Woman's Department and of the Children's Committee itself its work is to be much more intimately related to the Department of Religious Education. As we enter upon this new arrangement all of us must be grateful that through the years, the Woman's Department has refused to let this field be neglected.

5. Summer Conferences: The state has long had a splendid program of summer conferences. Plans are now going forward for our own young people's conferences (high-school age) to be held at Wilbraham, Williston and Andover Newton, under the capable leadership of their deans, Rev. Pierson Harris, Rev. Edward U. Cowles, and Rev. William Reed Usher. This year we are coöperating with New Hampshire in a Junior-high-school camp at Deering. We are also venturing into a new field with a week-end Young Adult conference for those in their twenties and thirties, Rev. Raymond G. Worster and Rev. Lucille Worster serving as joint directors. We are saved the necessity of planning denominational adult conferences by the fact that four or five very good ones, operated interdenominationally, are in our own area. I bear responsibility in one of these, as does another staff member in a second. It is our hope that all may be regarded as our own. Within the last ten days announcements of conferences for all ages have been sent to the pastors of the state.

6. Institutes and Group Conferences: During these eight months our department, in coöperation with Pilgrim Press, has held two leadership education institutes in Congregational House with a combined enrollment of about 300. I have also had the chance to meet with a goodly number of teachers and officers groups and other planning committees, some in large churches and some in very small ones; but I do not hesitate to say that there is as great satisfaction in being invited to the small church as to the large.

7. Interdenominational Work: In harmony with good Congregational tradition for hearty coöperation with other communions the Trustees expressed a desire that I continue certain inter-church responsibilities, — with the Missionary Education Movement, with the International Council of Religious Education, and also as Chairman of the Department of Religious Education of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. To mention only the third of these agencies, since it has to do with Massachusetts exclusively, there is real value in planning and carrying through some of our Christian education activities coöperatively. We help one another and learn from one another. Week-day religious education is only one of that department's seven committees but it well illustrates the value of working together. While some of your secretary's time is devoted to this field of week-day work this is essentially an interdenominational job, for it operates best on a community basis. The task of leaders in week-day work is to guide and advise, often to hold communities back, rather than to urge them to go forward too quickly. Approximately 1250 children are in Protestant week-day classes under the supervision of the Council of Churches and an additional 500 or 600 are in classes operated independently of the Council. By fall it is estimated that the number in classes supervised by the Council will reach 2500. Most of us feel that this movement is progressing as rapidly as it ought to progress and the increasing financial support of our associations toward the Congregational gift of $1800 in the total Council budget proves that many share this view.

Looking Ahead into the coming conference year at least ten emphases stand out in my mind as important:

1. The work of the state committee and of the association committees on religious education: one of these association committees will major on helping Superintendents, another will organize its young people, a third will stress missionary education; and so it will go. But our association committees are becoming more active.

2. Personal contacts: I hope to reach more churches, to advise with more groups and persons on problems and needs.

3. A Bulletin: We need an occasional, though unpretentious bulletin.

4. The church school: It is so significant in some places that we have faith to believe it can be made so in more places.

5. Children's work: Fortunately a special group is already at work in this field.

6. Young People's work — in the associations and in each local church.

7. Adult work, for however strong laymen's work and woman's work may be there are educational needs for men and women together. For young adults it is hoped some new developments may result from the week-end conference in July. But older adults, too, need more Christian education.

8. Missionary education: Not just promotion and the budget, but a program of education in missions for every age-group.

9. Summer conferences — one of the best opportunities for Christian growth for adults and young people alike.

10. Interdenominational work, in summer conferences, in week-day religious education, in vacation church schools, and in various other areas that can best be covered this way.

Respectfully submitted,

John Leslie Lobingier,
Secretary, Religious Education

REPORT OF THE FIELD SECRETARY

REV. GEORGE A. TUTTLE

Someone has said: "The Master still stands at the threshold of every church asking:

'What have ye made it?' "

Your church, Christ's church, God's gift to man, — "What have ye made it?"

Likewise Christ stands at the threshold of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference asking:

"What have ye made it?" — in partnership with God and man, "What have ye made it?"

Likewise too, Christ stands at the threshold of my own soul just now putting the same searching question to me: "What have ye made it?" — your job of serving churches and ministers in your particular field.

It is a question that humbles one. One doubts if he can give a satisfying answer.

To glimpse the task, the opportunity, the responsibility, one must glimpse the field.

One hundred and eighty churches — many of the smallest — some of the largest in the state.

One hundred and sixteen towns and cities within seven Associations, some seventy-five churches in which are quite distinctly rural.

At least fifty of these churches pay a salary of less than $1,500 and parsonage.

There are forty-six so-called aided churches or pieces of work, several of which have received aid for more than one hundred years. Last year nearly $18,000 was expended for such assistance.

Forty-seven belong to yoked set-ups, two or three churches being served by the same minister.

Twenty are Federated Churches, — Methodist, Baptist, Universalist and Unitarian churches uniting with our Congregational churches on a basis of federation for more effective service. Five such churches are at the present being served by ministers of other denominations.

Sixteen churches are now student charges.

Quite a number are located in college communities or defense areas which means of course, special opportunities and problems.

Seventy plus have either changed leadership, or are in the process of changing, within about a twelve months' period.

Twenty-five ministers are now serving as chaplains.

When all this is viewed and reviewed one becomes more conscious of the fact that there are problems peculiar to each particular grouping. Were there time we would attempt to point out some of these.

Again and again as I make my journeys from place to place and church to church my eye falls on billboards flaring forth this disturbing word:

"If you ride alone you ride with Hitler."

Since of necessity I do ride alone much of the time I have pondered this message not a little. One result of such pondering has been such a rewording of the billboard sign as this:

"If you ride alone" you don't ride with Christ. So it is always my aim not "to ride alone" so to speak but to work with all members of the Conference Staff in helping to promote plans initiated through conference in our Boston office and to coöperate with churches and ministers that our common task may prosper in God's good time and way.

I suppose it is "Someday" with all of us. I know it is with me. I "dream dreams and see visions" of my work that I hope "someday" can be fulfilled. It is toward such fulfillment that I would commit myself again.

George A. Tuttle

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Fourteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eight cents of the fourteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of

.... Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of approximately $708,000. The Conference retains 3% of the net income for this service. Funds which have been committed to our care have earned a little less than 4% this last year.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in administering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitably and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters.

THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD, INC.

Annual Meeting January 18, 1943

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT, REV. DWIGHT L. CART, 108 Maplewood Terrace

SECOND VICE PRESIDENT, MR. SYDNEY F. LAW, 33 Greenleaf Street

CLERK, MISS EUNICE BATES, 101 Princeton Street

TREASURER, MR. JOHN A. DALE, 472 Union Street

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON

RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT

TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

Aids churches financially, promotes coöperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Aided Church Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference must consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

SCHEDULE OF GRANTS AND TRUSTEES' MEETINGS

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.," pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a footnote on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1943. Admissions and removals cover the year 1942. "Absent" members, by vote of the Conference, are not recorded in the Massachusetts statistics. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1943, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r,"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; "§", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but means "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk* indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

* Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

‡ Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

+ Ordained, but not yet a member of an Association.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE. — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

Officers. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

> I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation ....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to the following percentages:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council of Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference and the General Council a sum equivalent to fourteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1944, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Secretary.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

- (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.
- (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a coöperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.
2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.
3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.
4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES OF THE 145th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 15–16, 1944

OLD SOUTH CHURCH, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

At 10:20 o'clock the 145th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was called to order by the Moderator, Rev. Carl F. Schultz of Hyannis.

A Service of Worship was conducted by Rev. Milo E. Pearson of the Salem Tabernacle.

Welcome was extended by Rev. Russell H. Stafford, pastor of the host church, to which the Moderator responded.

The Advance Reports, as printed, were accepted by vote.

The Moderator made the following committee appointments:

Business Committee—Rev. Frederick W. Alden, Natick, Chairman; Rev. Lester G. Myers, Brockton; Rev. Austin Rice, Wakefield; Rev. Frank L. Briggs, South Attleboro; Mrs. N. B. Hobart, Northampton; Mr. Frank B. Wiggin, Lowell.

Credentials Committee—Rev. Clarence W. Dunham, Dorchester; Rev. J. Herbert Owen, Lenox; Mr. James R. Ferry, Whitinsville; Mrs. Percy C. Thomas, North Adams; Mrs. Herbert H. Deck, Springfield; Rev. Clement F. Hahn, Worcester.

The Moderator introduced Chaplain Ernest L. Loomis, who spoke briefly on the record of pastors from this Conference in the chaplaincy.

In the absence of the Treasurer, Mr. Arthur W. Davis, the Secretary presented his report. The report, as printed elsewhere in the Minutes, was accepted.

President Ralph M. Timberlake presented his report and it was unanimously accepted.

The Business Committee was asked to send a message of greeting and good will to the Chaplains from this Conference now serving the Armed Forces.

Reverend Charles C. Merrill, Belmont, presented an amendment to the recommendation of the Executive Committee of the General Council with regard to the procedure for carrying through the proposed union between the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church. This was referred to the Business Committee.

A resolution from the Middlesex-Mendon Association in regard to the liquor traffic was referred to the Business Committee.

The motion that the Business Committee set a time for a hearing on the matter of draft deferment of pre-theological students was lost and it was voted that the matter be given immediate consideration.

The letter of Douglas Horton to General Hershey in regard to this question was read and there was considerable discussion pro and con; also a letter from the Deans of the Federated Theological Faculty of the University of Chicago, directed to the State Superintendents.

Reverend Truman B. Douglass, Executive Vice-President of the Board of Home Missions, addressed the Conference on "New Frontiers of Christian Action."

The session was closed with prayer and benediction by Rev. Joseph W. Reeves of the North Church, Winchendon.

MONDAY AFTERNOON

The afternoon session was opened with worship by Rev. Kenneth R. Henley, pastor of the Second Church, Greenfield.

Staff Reports, all of which were accepted to become a part of the permanent record, were presented as follows:

Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell; Secretary of Religious Education, Rev. John L. Lobingier; Field Secretary, Rev. George A. Tuttle; Secretary of Woman's Work, Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl.

Mr. Wilbur E. Rowell, Chairman, reported for the Board of Trustees.

Reverend Frederick W. Alden, Chairman of the Business Committee, presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

WHEREAS the Congregational Christian Churches of Massachusetts, assembled in the Annual Meeting of their State Conference, are conscious of the long and honored history of the Old South Church, in which we are meeting, of its leadership among its sister churches in Boston, and of its staunch support of all denominational interests and activities

AND WHEREAS we recognize also with gratitude the outstanding qualities of leadership evinced by Dr. Stafford in his years of service as its pastor, and his enduring contributions to the life of our denomination during the thirty years since his ordination

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT this word of appreciation be sent to the church and its minister as a part of their anniversary celebration.

To the Chaplains from our Massachusetts Congregational Churches who are enlisted in the armed forces of the United States, we the members of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, meeting in the Old South Church, send this expression of our gratitude and remembrance: "We have heard with satisfaction of your splendid work in your spiritual ministry to the men and women in the armed services. We pledge to you our prayers, our affection and the loyal support of our churches." Adopted by rising vote.

It was moved and seconded that the officers of the Conference send these greetings to each chaplain from our Conference.

Dr. Merrill was invited to present recommendations of the Placement Committee. After questions and discussion, these were adopted as follows:

1. That the Conference set up a permanent State Committee on Pastoral Placement.

   a. To be constituted as follows: One representative of each Association to be nominated by the Association after such consultation as shall tend to insure the appointment of a man who has the confidence of the churches and the ministers in the Association;

   The President, the Secretary, the Field Secretary, the Secretary of Religious Education of the Conference; and the Secretary of the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, shall be ex officiis members of this Committee.

The term of the elected members shall be five years.

   b. To have the following duties: To call the attention of the Board and of the Conference to pastoral vacancies in the Association; to call the attention of the churches to the services for their help established in the Board and in the Conference; to respond to any call for assistance from a church or a minister; and to cooperate with the Board of Pastoral Supply and the Conference in any further way that may be developed by experience.

   c. This Committee to have at least one meeting a year, at which policies and methods shall be discussed, experiences exchanged, and plans made for further improvement in methods and policies of pastoral placement.

   (NOTE: It is understood that this Committee will, so far as Massachusetts is concerned, take the place of the Advisors now serving the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply.)

2. That as soon as the above Committee is constituted, the President of the Conference and the Secretary of the Board of Pastoral Supply be asked to send a letter to the pastors and clerks of churches, embodying these two points:

   a. The statement found in the Report of this Committee made to the Conference in 1943 which set forth the so-called plan of pastoral exchange, and recommended its use to the churches where practicable.

b. The statement also found in the Report of last year's Committee with reference to a somewhat broader plan by which churches might secure help in meeting situations where a change of pastorate is desirable from the standpoint both of the minister and of the church. In essence this plan is for the church to arrange "a conference by the minister, representatives of the Church, one or more representatives of the Association, a representative of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, and a representative of the Board of Pastoral Supply, as to the situation and the desirability of a change, before any action is taken to terminate the relationship."

(The representative of the Association here spoken of will be the Association member of the State Committee on Pastoral Placement recommended in the preceding section.)

3. That as a special subject of study there be referred to the Committee recommended in paragraph one the material which the present Committee has collected with reference to the so-called plan for "interneship".

(The present Committee has, in response to its request, received from the theological seminaries which furnish ministers for Massachusetts Congregational churches, very suggestive information as to what these seminaries are doing and plan to do with regard to approaching in some degree this interne idea. We believe that this information should be thoroughly digested by a permanent committee, and definite cooperation established between the committee and the seminaries concerned. These seminaries are: Andover Newton Theological School, Bangor Theological Seminary, Boston University School of Theology, Harvard Divinity School, Hartford Theological Seminary, Union Theological Seminary, Yale Divinity School.)

4. That the present Committee be discharged.

On motion by the Business Committee it was voted that the Trustees be empowered to constitute the committee called for by the resolutions of the Placement Committee.

Dr. Harry W. Kimball moved that the Business Committee consider the appointment of a special committee to study the whole matter of the method of compiling statistics for the Year Book. The motion was carried.

The Business Committee presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

In view of the increase in national income, we endorse the principle of an increase in benevolence giving for the Congregational Christian Churches of Massachusetts, with $2.32 per member per year as a minimum goal in our giving.

We recommend to the Board of Trustees a further careful consideration of the proposals made by the President to employ as an additional member of the State Conference Staff a full-time missioner as well as the recommendation which he made concerning the support of Religious Education together with the direction which the Conference should assume in regard to help to the churches in service to returned service men.

The Business Committee invited Dr. Holton to the rostrum and he presented the following recommendation, which was adopted:

The Conference recommends that where a church experiences a substantial increase in its financial support, it should share this increase with its pastor without his having to take the initiative in the matter.

At 3:30 Mrs. E. E. McClintock, National Secretary of Woman's Work of the Congregational Christian Churches, gave an address on "Opportunities Facing the Laity."

At 4:00 o'clock the meeting adjourned for the following seminars:

Church Architecture and Worship, Rev. Clyde Yarbrough, Second Congregational Church, West Newton

Address: Rev. Howard J. Chidley, First Church, Winchester.

Illustrated Lecture: "Stained Glass and Cathedrals,"
by Joseph G. Reynolds, Jr.

Exhibit: Pictures of churches before and after restoration,
by Charles Collens.

Evangelism, Rev. Oliver K. Black, Federal Council of Churches.

The World Service Church School, Rev. John L. Lobingier and Miss Mildred Widber, Division of Christian Education.

The Church and the Serviceman, Prof. Kirtley F. Mather, Harvard University.
Addresses: Rev. Vernon A. Loescher, West Roxbury and Roland R. Darling, Director of Job Counseling, Boston Veterans' Bureau.

The Annual Meeting of the Department of Woman's Work was held in the Old South Church at 7:00 P.M., Mrs. Franklin G. Field, Chairman, presiding. Reports of the work of the past year were given and the officers for the coming year were elected. Dedication of the Second Mile gift took place, and Mrs. E. E. McClintock was the speaker. There were over 450 present.

Approximately four hundred ministers and laymen met in the Charter Room of the New England Mutual Building. Rev. George A. Buttrick, minister of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City, gave an address on "The Church's Opportunity in the Post-War World."

The young people's session was held at Trinity Church. About fifty were in attendance. Rev. Paul S. McElroy, Adult Advisor of the State Pilgrim Fellowship, acted as Master of Ceremonies, and the State President, Miss Jane Larson, led in singing and spoke of various aspects of Pilgrim Fellowship work in the state. The State Secretary, Miss Emily Bartley, served on the Hospitality Committee. After supper and singing the program included greetings from Rev. and Mrs. Lee Wolff of Coventry, England, remarks by Rev. John L. Lobingier, and as the principal item on the program, an address by the National Secretary of Young People's Work, Rev. Oliver Powell of Chicago.

MONDAY EVENING

The evening session was opened at 8:00 o'clock with a Service of Worship conducted by Chaplain Neil B. Danberg of the Naval Auxiliary Air Facility, Martha's Vineyard.

The Highland Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. D. Ralph MacLean of Waban, sang two anthems.

The work of the Board of Ministerial Aid was presented by Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman, and in response to his appeal an offering of $426 was made for the work.

There were two more anthems by the Highland Glee Club.

Reverend Leslie Edward Cooke of Coventry, England, representing British Congregational Churches, gave an address on "The Church During and Following the War."

The evening session closed with prayer and benediction by Rev. Max B. Schaff of the German Congregational Church, Fitchburg.

A Service of Worship was conducted by Rev. Samuel L. Laviscount, St. Mark Church, Roxbury, with solos by Miss Catherine Van Buren of New York City.

Under unfinished business, Judge Wilbur E. Rowell presented the following recommendation of the Trustees:

> "That the Board of Trustees be instructed to petition for an act establishing a corporation under the name of 'Massachusetts Congregational Fund' or other suitable name, which act shall provide in substance that the corporation may establish one or more common trust funds, interests in which shall be available for the investment of funds of the Conference, of individual churches and of other approved organizations, and shall contain such provisions with respect to the powers and management of the corporation and with respect to the relation between the corporation and the Conference as the Board of Trustees may deem advisable."

Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer of the Conference, explained the purpose of this recommendation and after discussion, the recommendation was adopted.

In introducing the resolution in regard to the drafting of pre-theological students, the Business Committee, through its chairman, Rev. Frederick W. Alden, made the following points:

(1) Since this order occurs as part of an order referring to the cancellation of the deferment of all professional groups, there is no ground for believing that there is anything discriminatory in the intent of the order.

(2) We learn further that from the years 1940 to 1944, the number cleared for deferment because of being candidates for the ministry has dropped to one-tenth of the number enrolled in seminaries in 1940, which would seem to indicate that the source of our future leadership for the churches is, in 1944, 90 per cent less than in 1940.

(3) This deferment of the pre-theological students would seem to have the effect of further curtailing, if not drying up, the source of the continuance of this remaining 10 per cent.

(4) Should the war be of the duration of five years, we would have available as new leadership in our churches only those men who upon graduation from high school or prep school, had immediately been classified as theological students by entering seminaries which accept such immediately upon graduation or men who have matriculated in so-called Bible training schools.

(5) One further fact: the release of civilian ministers to become chaplains has been possible because churches were assured that a supply of new men was available to take the places of those who have entered the chaplaincy. It can be anticipated that cutting off the supply of this new leadership may conceivably affect adversely the program for chaplain recruiting.

In view of the statements made by the Federal Council of Churches, we would respectfully request General Hershey, Director of the Selective Service, to consider further the deferment of pre-theological students with a view to establishing greater equity in the various branches of the Christian Church in the definition of what constitutes a "pre-theological student," and with a view to giving further consideration to the importance of maintaining a strong, trained ministry in the interest of the public good.

This recommendation of the Business Committee was also adopted:

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference recommends to the Executive Committee of the General Council meeting at Grand Rapids in June, a representative commission which shall be responsible for conducting hearings on the subject of the Basis of Union with the Evangelical and Reformed Churches.

A further recommendation in regard to this same matter and a motion in amendment by Rev. J. Burford Parry were recommitted to the Business Committee for report at the afternoon session. Dr. Parry's motion was:

"That a representative committee of the Conferences of the Congregational Churches be appointed to review and to count the votes of the individual Conferences and Associations and report to the next meetings of the General Council."

Reverend Robert W. Coe reported for the Nominating Committee.

The Recording Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the list as presented, and they were elected. (See Committee lists on pages 17 to 21 of this report).

There was considerable discussion relative to the undesirability of nominating a person for more than one office in the Conference and it was voted to refer this discussion to the Nominating Committee for next year.

The Nominating Committee presented a printed ballot for the officers of the Conference.

The Moderator appointed the following tellers:

Rev. Daniel I. Gross, Athol; Rev. Kroum S. Jordan, Weymouth Heights; Rev. Harry W. Kimball, Needham; Rev. Eric W. Grimshaw, Worcester; Rev. M. Walker Coe, Bridgewater; Rev. Leonard S. Nightwine, Marshfield Hills; Rev. Alfred J. Barnard, Roslindale; Rev. Harold S. Capron, Whitman; Rev. Lynne P. Townsend, Wellfleet.

The report of the tellers showed that the names presented by the Nominating Committee were the same as those elected. They will be found on pages 13 to 14 of these Minutes and Reports.

An address, "New Frontiers of Race Relations", was presented by Rev. Charles S. Johnson, Director of the Department of Social Sciences, Fisk University.

Communion was administered by Rev. Carl Heath Kopf, Mt. Vernon Church, Boston.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Reverend Harry Grimes, Central Church, Newburyport, opened the afternoon session at 2:15.

Miss Catherine Van Buren sang several solos.

Reverend Russell H. Stafford spoke on "Expanding Frontiers in the Ministry".

A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

(To be inserted before the section at present entitled "VI. By-Laws," the numbering of the latter and subsequent titles to be "VII," "VIII," etc.)

VI. Limitation of Powers

The General Council shall make provision for the approval by (a) Conferences, (b) Associations, (c) churches, and (d) members of churches, respectively, of any of its acts which it deems to be of direct concern to them, before such acts are put into effect.

A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE BY-LAWS OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

(To be inserted before the section at present entitled "IV. National Societies," the numbering of the latter and subsequent titles to be "V," "VI," etc.)

IV. Approval of Sundry Acts

The Council itself shall determine by a one-third vote of the members present and voting whether any act involves, in a manner requiring approval, (a) the Conferences, (b) the Associations, (c) the churches, and/or (d) the members of the churches.

Every act thus voted for approval shall be reported by the Secretary within six weeks of the conclusion of the meeting at which the action is passed (1) to the Conferences for vote by (a) the Conferences and/or (b) the Associations; or (2) to the churches for vote by (c) the churches and/or (d) the members of the churches.

An act referred (a) to the Conferences shall be in force only if a majority of the Conferences voting within twelve months of the termination of the meeting at which the act is passed, shall ratify it and report their action to the Secretary.

An act referred (b) to the Associations shall be in force only if a majority of the Associations voting within twelve months of the termination of the meeting at which the act is passed shall ratify it and through their Conferences report their action to the Secretary.

An act referred (c) to the churches shall be in force only if a majority of churches voting within twelve months of the termination of the meeting at which the act is passed shall ratify it and report their action to the Secretary.

An act referred (d) to the members of the churches shall be in force only if a majority of members of the churches voting within twelve months of the termination of the meeting at which the act is passed shall ratify it and through their churches report their action to the Secretary.

At the conclusion of the twelve-month period, the Executive Committee shall cause the number of votes for or against ratification to be counted; in the event of a majority vote for ratification, the Moderator shall declare the act to be in force; in any other event he shall declare the act invalid; and the Secretary shall make report of the count and of the declaration of the Moderator to the Conferences (in the case of a vote by Conference or Association) or to the churches (in the case of a vote by churches or church members.)

A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE STANDING RULES OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL

(To be substituted for the paragraph at present entitled
"V. Printing Reports.")

5. Advance Reports

The Secretary shall cause to be printed and sent for general discussion to all Conferences by the first day of May in the year when the biennial meeting of the Council is to be held such reports as (a) may have been furnished him reasonably in advance of that time, and (b) have received the approval of the Executive Committee, together with the program prepared for the Council meeting. The reports to be presented from the platform and the time allowed for them shall be matters subject to the determination of the General Council on recommendation of the Business Committee.

It was voted that the State Conference forward these proposed amendments, without expressing approval or disapproval, to the next meeting of the General Council.

The Trustees recommended that the following apportionment percentages be adopted for the next year and it was so voted:

American Board	39¼%
The Board of Home Missions	40¾%
Council for Social Action	4 %
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1 %

The per capita contribution was fixed at 14 cents per member.

President Timberlake presented a telegram from Rev. Michael J. Ahern, S.J., Weston College.

It was voted to authorize the President to acknowledge receipt of this message and to send the greetings of the Conference to Father Ahern, and that the telegram be incorporated in the Minutes.

The telegram read as follows:

"Respectfully request correction your statement yesterday at Congregationalist Conference. Selective Service ruling affects Catholic students for priesthood as well as Protestant. More than half of the students for the Catholic priesthood in the United States would be affected by the ruling. Catholics agree that Selective Service should be asked for a more favorable interpretation of the Selective Service law."

The Business Committee brought in the following resolutions, all of which were adopted:

On the proposed union with the Evangelical and Reformed Churches:

1. The Massachusetts Congregational Conference recommends to the Executive Committee of the General Council that there be set up at the General Council meeting at Grand Rapids in June a representative commission which shall be responsible for conducting hearings on the subject of the aforesaid Basis of Union.

2. The Massachusetts Congregational Conference endorses the procedure for discussion of the Plan of Union in the following details:

(a) No decision be asked of the General Council at its meeting in 1944.

(b) That the years from 1944–1946 be used for further acquaintance between churches of the two denominations and for full and frank discussion of all the implications to the Congregational way in the proposed Basis of Union, particularly as the basis relates to the powers of the proposed General Synod.

3. That a representative Committee of the State Conferences of our order be appointed to take a vote of the Congregational Churches of America relative to the proposed union, and that the committee tabulate and review the result of said vote and report same to the General Council in 1948, recommending such action as may seem advisable.

4. That the Executive Committee of the General Council be empowered to stop or to prolong such proceedings in such ways as will best serve the interest of all concerned.

On the Liquor Question:

(The following resolution was brought in from Middlesex-Mendon Association)

"Each minister and church in the Conference shall see to it that the liquor dealers in their communities keep the laws; and shall urge their people to vote 'No' on local option issues at the coming election.

"We recommend that the Conference go on record as requesting each minister and church in the Conference to urge upon the License Board and law enforcement officials of our communities the strict enforcement of all liquor laws, and assuring them of the hearty support of the ministers and churches in such rigid conformity to the law.

"We further recommend that each minister and church be asked to urge church people and the people of our communities to vote at the coming election against any effort under local option to continue or to permit the sale of intoxicating liquor as a beverage.

"We also recommend that each minister and church be requested to further and encourage temperance education with all wisdom and persistence."

On Year-Book Statistics:

"In view of the lack of uniformity in the methods used by churches of the Conference in reporting statistics, we recommend that the Board of Trustees of the Conference appoint a committee to study the questions which have arisen in this connection and to recommend whatever measures seem advisable to establish a uniform method of gathering and reporting church statistics."

On Returning Chaplains:

(The following communication was brought in from Berkshire North Association)

At its Annual Meeting on May 2, the Berkshire North Association voted to recommend to the State Conference that the Conference urge upon each Association the appointment of a committee to study ways and means of fitting chaplains, returning after the war, back into civilian life, with the understanding that these committees work along with the Conference Staff and the Board of Pastoral Supply for maximum results.

This communication was referred to the Pastoral Placement Committee.

On Child Guardianship:

"That the Conference urge upon the churches a concern to cooperate with the Massachusetts Division of Child Guardianship in facing a wartime emergency, namely, that of finding foster homes for the over 7,000 children in its care."

On Public Servants:

"We commend all honest and efficient public servants who are concerned with the making and enforcement of our laws and assure them of our recognition of their efforts and of our full support of their endeavors."

On Race Relations:

(Resolution presented by Rev. William W. Clark, Winthrop and Rev. Arthur A. Simmons, Southfield)

"Because of the growing tension in the field of race relations

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT we of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference pledge a greater effort, by prayer and practical action, to make real and clear our underlying unity in God."

On Dr. Timberlake's Tenth Anniversary:

"The committee would not let this occasion pass without calling to the attention of the Conference that with this session Dr. Timberlake finishes ten years of faithful, untiring service as President of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference. The committee asks that this statement be entered in the minutes of the meeting."

Reverend Charles W. Keirstead, Lawrence, was granted opportunity to speak in regard to support of the Anti-Saloon League.

Receipt of a letter from Mr. N. B. Conant of Concord, Mass., was acknowledged, with the statement by the Business Committee that the hour was too late for any action upon it.

The Moderator introduced the Moderator-elect, Mr. Roy A. Hovey of Wakefield.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Rev. Frederick Harlan Page, President Emeritus of the Conference.

HOLLIS M. BARTLETT, Recording Secretary.

MYRON W. FOWELL, Secretary.

Honorary Annual Member	1
Guests	548
Total	1221

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

There is particular pleasure in presenting this report in this historic church, and when we are the guests of the President of the American Board and his people. The Old South Church of Boston and its ministers have ever been staunch supporters of our Congregational order and fellowship. Many of our churches owe their existence today to the generosity of "Old South". And many a civic enterprise is indebted to the good-will and assistance of this parish.

We are all asked to join in the observance of World Y. M. C. A. Sunday on June fourth, in celebration of the centennial anniversary of that organization. It was in the Old South Chapel on Spring Lane, Boston, on December 29, 1851, that the first Y. M. C. A. in America was founded. As Congregationalists we have good reason to participate in this world-wide Commemoration.

The meeting of the free, evangelical churches, represented by pastors and by lay delegates, is a true expression of Congregationalism. Old South Church is a fitting place in this war year for such a demonstration of ecclesiastical democracy.

The year just closing has been one of progress in the churches. The increase in membership, in financial stability, in gifts to missions, together with more active programs for the members of the church at home and in the service, and a greater concern for community needs, is all an evidence of this.

In order to strengthen our work and, as it were, to shorten the front line, several churches have been encouraged to enter into some form of combined relationship. This has provided able leadership, and in some cases an increase in salary. It has reduced the number of struggling parishes. The following churches have become yoked fields: Cohasset and Beechwood; Groton Union and West Groton; North Hadley and North Amherst; Rowley and Byfield; Somerville, Broadway-Winter Hill, and Prospect; Swansea and Rehoboth; the two Truros and Wellfleet. In Fall River, the Central Church and Pilgrim Church have united, and in Lynn the First Church and the North Church. After being closed for a brief period, both the West Dighton Church and the Scotland Church in Bridgewater have reopened.

In these days of war prosperity, churches are making an heroic effort to reduce or completely eliminate their indebtedness. This is good church strategy. It is also a patriotic service, and applies not only to debt reduction, but to the raising of building funds for the erection of better equipment and the promise of an extended program after the war. Contributions to a building fund tend to offset inflation. A building enterprise after the war will provide employment in a day when it will be greatly needed. If contributions to such a fund are made in Government bonds, the church meets still another need in the war emergency.

Delegates from churches that are contemplating a building program, either of renovation or new construction, are invited to attend the Seminar arranged for this afternoon on "Church Architecture and Worship".

Our pastors and people can take real pride in the record of their gifts to the apportionment. Mr. Davis has given you the figures. This evidence of missionary interest was general: There was not an Association from the Cape to the Berkshires where an improvement in giving did not take place. We are happy to report also a closer cooperation with the Missions Council, the promotional agency of the Home and Foreign Boards. Together we are planning, and in some instances have already held, conferences with church leaders in the interests of missionary education. We have been greatly encouraged by letters received from the churches where these meetings have been held, telling of the awakened concern on the part of their leaders in the challenge which confronts the Church from a stricken and needy world.

This State Conference, which in the early days formed the second home missionary society in the country, and a few years later organized the American Board, cannot but respond heartily to the invitation which comes from the Missions Council to secure a substantial and courageous increase in the ministry of our churches through their apportionment agency during the next biennium. This increase ought to mean such an effort as will involve a real sacrifice on the part of givers, and will make a real difference in the ministry of our churches to the life of the world. It ought to be courageous enough on the part of the home base to put new courage into the representatives on the field. The goal set for the denomination is to raise in the year 1945 for State work, the Home Board and the American Board the sum of $2,500,000. What does this mean to the individual church member? Simply lifting the level of the average giving per year from $1.58 per member (in Massachusetts, $1.72) to $2.32 per member; or a weekly giving of three cents per member to a little less than five cents per member. In the words of Dr. Stauffacher, "If we are at all in earnest about the world mission of the Church, dare we do less than that?"

Your attention is called to the searching report of the Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life. Here is a spiritual message which should command our esteem even as did an epistle of Paul to the early Church. The stimulating and directive work of this Committee a year ago is already showing results. During 1943 the number of accessions to the church on confession of faith showed an increase of 338 over the year before. For the previous three years our churches had shown a successive decrease. The improvement is very encouraging, and should lead us to still greater effort and emphasis upon this essential task of the church.

For the past five months we have had in the State Dr. James Clinton, Minister-at-Large of the Board of Home Missions. He has been holding missions in all types of churches; and in every instance his message and ministry has been an inspiration and blessing. In the weak, discouraged, disintegrating parish, and in the stronger church where there is normal life and the usual program, he has brought a quickening of spirit, new enthusiasm and vision, dedication and high resolve.

The benefits which we have seen in the work of Dr. Clinton persuade us more than ever that we should have in Massachusetts at least one State missioner who would devote his full time, without any administrative responsibilities, to this type of sane, constructive, non-commercial, evangelistic work. We have already suggested it to the Trustees, and want to recommend it again, for we are fully persuaded that there is no more important service, and certainly no more valuable missionary effort that the Conference could render.

We have provided ninety-seven ministers for the military services, and there are nine more whose applications are being considered. To the best of our knowledge, their parishes are being cared for, though as more men go into the service, the problem of interim supplies will become more serious.

We would like to suggest that the Business Committee be requested to prepare a message of remembrance and good will, to be sent from this meeting to our chaplains. According to all reports, they are doing a splendid job, and are keenly interested and devoted to their work. Many of them, we know, are on active duty in the battle area. We miss them from our meeting, but not so much as they miss this fellowship.

To encourage and further the program of the local church with its own service personnel, we have arranged in the Exhibit Room samples of the work that is being carried on by our churches. Also we have provided the Seminar on "The Church and the Serviceman", which many of you will be interested to attend.

In the matter of the church's responsibility in the program of rehabilitation, we are glad to say that the General Council is planning to set up a national committee which will outline a program of work for the whole denomination. However, there are certain things which the local church can be doing. First of all is the important task of keeping in closest touch with every person in the service. The boys should be encouraged to write home their ideas of the church's present and continuing job. They will want to return to a church where men are active. It is therefore very desirable that we should set up a wider program than most churches now have, with an increase in the laymen's participation, and the minister being the inspiration for this enlarged program. Many of the returning men will have a new interest in missions and in interdenominational cooperation. We must be prepared to preserve this interest. There should be set up a home-centered and neighborhood-centered program of religious education into which the serviceman may easily fit. While it is possible to question the reality of fox-hole religion, there is no doubt but that many men will have had a real experience of religious conversion, and the values of this experience must be preserved. The Church therefore should study how it can conserve this faith under normal conditions. Related to all this is the need of establishing in each church a local committee for returned servicemen.

Every pastor is invited to get at the "Conference Exhibit" the little blue leaflet entitled "The Church and Returning Service Personnel". It has just been published by the Federal Council. It is excellent. Though it is sold for ten cents, it is yours for the asking.

Because we refer to ourselves so frequently as "the Conference", it is easy to forget that we are also a missionary society, and have been such for 145 years. At the present time we are engaged in about one hundred and fifty missionary projects in this Commonwealth. During the past year the following churches came to complete self-support: Millbury, East; Worcester, Tatnuck; Springfield, East; Springfield, Union; Beverly, Immanuel. In the case of the East Church, Springfield, we have transferred our grant from a payment to the pastor's salary to a direct payment on the indebtedness of the church for a specified term of years. The Trustees were convinced of the good psychological strategy in this new arrangement. The Church is already assuming a larger financial obligation than it has ever done in its history, and it is doing so with renewed courage, enthusiasm and optimism.

We have taken a step forward in our support of religious work among students. In cooperation with the First Church in Cambridge we are supporting a Director of Student Activity for the men at Harvard and the women at Radcliffe. Rev. Leonard Clough during the past eight months has already won his way and made a place for himself in the life of the church, the community, and the student body, including the military personnel. Here is an important field for missionary service that will in years to come have telling effect upon the leadership of the church through the pulpit and through the pew.

Another new service is in the field of Weekday Religious Education. For two years we have made a substantial contribution toward the maintenance of the administrative work of Dr. Staffeld and his office. Now the call comes for assistance in the support of the schools themselves, in areas where Protestantism is not strong as compared to the Roman Catholic and the Jewish bodies. This is true in densely populated city districts. We are contributing toward this work in Charlestown, and among the Negroes in Roxbury, as well as in the rural communities of the Christian Hill Fellowship established at Barre. New schools of this same character are soon to be opened in East Boston and in South Boston, and as a missionary society we could ask for no more urgent call or promising field. The Weekday Church School is in part the answer to the declining attendance in Sunday Schools. It reaches a larger group; it has trained leadership; it has a more consistent and regular attendance; and altogether is found to react favorably upon attendance at the church schools. It is felt by many that missionary money spent in this carefully-directed religious instruction for children is more wisely used than in the maintenance of some churches which seem to have become pauperized and to show no promise. There is, of course, a place for both; but certainly the needs of the children appeal to us in this day of juvenile delinquency. Right here we must express our appreciation of the support which the Woman's Second-Mile Gift has furnished for this work.

Akin to this new enterprise is the opportunity which has been afforded us of sharing in the support of a nursery school at St. Mark Social Center, for Negro children of pre-school age. In the whole country no more effective or strategic work is being done cooperatively with Negroes than at St. Mark's. This wholesome community center of religious and recreational activity is a child of the Conference, and it is the responsibility of our churches, as well as their privilege, to help maintain its growing program for better race relations.

Let us bring to the attention of this Annual Meeting a recent order of General Lewis B. Hershey cancelling all deferments for pre-theological students except for those who will become theological students by July first.

This ruling blocks the right of the Christian Church to train its ministers, and this in a day when we need all the well-trained, carefully-selected, consecrated men we can educate. The ruling also destroys the spirit of equality between Roman Catholics and Protestants, and puts a serious penalty upon Protestants because we train our ministers in public schools and universities instead of parochial ones. We would propose that the Business Committee be asked to prepare a letter to Dr. Horton and to General Hershey, expressing our request that the recent order be so modified as to guarantee a continuing supply of trained chaplains for the Army and of a proper quota of civilian ministers for the civilian population, and suggest, as a method of securing equal treatment for both the Catholic and Protestant groups, that a reasonable quota of pre-theological students be classified 4-D, if they can meet the following conditions: (a) they must be able to complete pre-theological training within two years of their eighteenth birthday; (b) this training shall be under the supervision and approval of a theological seminary which has accepted the student for admission upon satisfactory completion of the pre-theological course, and (c) they must have the approval of their denomination.

The request has come from the Executive Committee that at this Annual Meeting we ask the Council, to meet soon in Grand Rapids, to follow a definite procedure in arriving at a decision regarding the union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

We are not now asked to vote in favor of a union. The real point of this request is that at the meeting this June a vote shall not be taken either for or against the union, but that a decision shall be postponed for two years. We would like to propose, therefore, that this request be submitted to the Business Committee, and that they prepare a vote to be presented later to this meeting.

In compliance with the recommendation passed at our last Annual Meeting, that the Trustees should provide the churches and Associations with further information regarding this plan of union, the Conference office arranged last fall for a series of seven meetings to which ministers and lay people were invited, and at which we had representatives from the Evangelical and Reformed Church. Our guests were Rev. William H. Bollman and Rev. Nevin Harner. From these meetings we learned this: that many churches were not seriously concerned about this question; and that the representative leaders of the Evangelical and Reformed Church were men of fine calibre, gracious, friendly, and devout. The real difference between us is one of church policy, — their conception of the church being different from our own. Their form of church government is "Presbyterial" rather than "Congregational", and if we adopt the Basis of Union, we would surrender in some measure our cherished principle of the autonomy of the local church. Perhaps in the development of Congregationalism the time has come for us to recognize a centralized authority and control. However, we ought to understand just what we are doing, and the new polity should not be adopted through indifference or ignorance of the lay people of our New England churches.

We would like to suggest that in submitting this matter to the Business Committee we also recommend to them that they include in the vote a recommendation that a commission be appointed to hold hearings during the General Council and so provide a non-partisan and judicial basis for the consideration of this important matter.

It is hoped that the representatives of all churches here will go home from this meeting enthusiastic about their Conference, better aware of the values of our Fellowship, more fully informed of the extent and importance of its program, and determined to share their zeal and vision with the members of the home church. This is the reason for asking every church to observe next Sunday, or some Sunday soon, as "Conference Sunday". Make the service one of rejoicing, encouragement, inspiration and consecration.

That is also the day on which we are invited by the Moderator of the General Council to unite as Christian Citizens in signing the World Order Compact. This Compact expresses our convictions regarding the just and cooperative world order we want when the war is over. As one of our ministers has well said:

"The Compact offers no legislative program. It opens no easy way to Utopia. All it does is marshal our sentiments and attitudes to wage the fundamental peacetime battles against national pride and greed, racial superiority, and all social and economic injustices. The mere signing of the Compact will mean nothing unless it is for each signer an act of personal dedication to live and labor for a world order which can rightly bear the name of Christ."

The Association delegates to the General Council will carry these Compacts to Grand Rapids and present them at a special service of consecration. Every Congregational church in Massachusetts should be represented in that service, Sunday, June twenty-fifth.

Let me conclude with a brief Necrology, and request that you stand.

Twelve ministers whose "standing" was in Massachusetts have "entered into the joy of their Lord" since our last meeting. Two of them were in the active ministry: Rev. Andrew T. McWhorter of Chatham, and Rev. Ambrose E. Jenkins of Revere. The others are:

Rev. Henry G. Bassler
Rev. Edwin H. Byington
Rev. C. Thurston Chase
Rev. James H. Childs
Rev. Allen E. Cross
Rev. Clement E. Holmes
Rev. Alexander L. McKenzie
Rev. Eugene B. Smith
Rev. Salem D. Towne
Rev. Herbert A. Youtz

" 'Tis hard to take the burden up,
When these have laid it down;
They brightened all the joy of life,
They softened every frown.

" But O, 'tis good to think of them
When we are troubled sore;
Thanks be to God that such have been
Though they are here no more!"

Our prayer would be, in the words of Gladstone, that "the Lord may vouchsafe to them light and rest, peace and refreshment, joy and consolation, growth and service in the companionship of the Saints, in the presence of Christ, in the ample folds of His great love."

SECRETARY'S REPORT

During the year 1943 new confidence in military victory grew up in the hearts of the American people. Important battles had been won, new strategy perfected, equipment improved, and men trained for effective warfare. The decisive struggle was yet to come but the nation felt it was on the way to victory.

Similarly a new spirit of victory came in 1943 to those whose spiritual warfare is carried on in the name of the Congregational churches of Massachusetts. Certain backward trends in our church life were reversed. New adventures in service were undertaken with success. Widespread suffering and sacrifice removed some of the inhibitions to faith and released vitalizing forces favorable to the growth of religion. There were still other backward trends to be checked and difficult problems to be solved, but there were evidences that a new power had come into the life of our churches.

Five thousand, five hundred and forty-nine new members were added to our churches by confession of faith, a gain of 338 over the previous year. A total of 9417 new members were received during the year, a total gain of 278. Hope Church, Springfield, received into its fellowship 153, 91 by Confession. The Wellesley Hills Church received 151, including 52 by Confession of faith. The total membership in our churches at the end of the year was 182,439, a net gain of 2283.

The average attendance for the churches reporting attendance was 115 as compared to 116 in 1942. However, an analysis of attendance figures for 150 churches reporting attendance both years reveals that attendance in these churches was the same last year as for the year before. When we consider the much larger number of young people away from our communities in 1943 and their attendance at worship services elsewhere, we realize that there has been in the aggregate a very substantial increase in church attendance by our people.

Our gifts to the apportionment were $314,118, a gain of $15,636. Gifts to other benevolences were $212,161, a gain of $4611. Our gifts to the Unit Plan were $27,870, a gain of $220. Three hundred and two of our churches gave to the Unit Plan last year directly or through their members. If the other 300 churches will accept some responsibility for this important project this year and if the churches which helped last year will continue to help, Massachusetts can continue her part in the denominational effort to sustain the Original Plan Annuities. Gifts to the fund for War Victims and Services were $52,149 or $4603 less than for the previous year. Broader participation by our churches is needed, also, to support this important fund.

Church School enrollment at the end of last year was 71,662, a loss of 11,161 for the year and of 38,781 in ten years. This loss of 35% in church school enrollment in ten years is substantially greater than the decline in the birthrate and in the children's population for that period. The birth rate is now increasing in Massachusetts. More children will soon be available for church school enrollment. However, churches, Associations, and the Conference need to give much earnest consideration to the whole subject of Religious Education if this downward trend is to be reversed.

There were 23,001 members in youth groups in our churches at the end of the year, a loss of 4755. While it is inevitable that war conditions will effect young people's work adversely, it is also very evident that vast needs exist for additional religious and character building work with young people in our towns and cities. Can we not concentrate more of our energies and efforts this year on our work with young people?

We have also some technical or clerical problems to face in the interest of a fair and accurate portrayal of the work of our churches. There are wide variations in the reporting of membership, attendance, church school enrollment and other statistics. Much of the good work being done in our churches receives no recognition at all in the year book. Is this not a proper time to begin a thorough study of our whole plan of gathering and reporting church statistics?

The average minister's cash salary, for salaries reported for 1943, was $2403 — an increase of $157 or nearly 7%. This advance reflects some technical gains made by new yoked field and other developments. It reflects also a more generous recognition by our lay people of the rising costs of living and the need of many of our ministers for larger remuneration. It should be remembered that this report of ministers' salaries is based on the salaries full time ministers receive rather than on the amounts individual churches pay and differs therefore from the report prepared by the Board of Pastoral Supply. Many of our ministers serve two or more churches. There are however, 70 of our ministers still receiving less than $1500. for full time work, and 70 additional who receive less than $1800. A number of churches made special efforts last year to raise salaries for full time work to the minimum standard of $1800 and house as suggested by the Conference.

We have now 509 ministers actively serving churches. Dr. J. Lee Mitchell of the Second Church, Attleboro, has ministered to that church for 43 years. Dr. Edwin B. Robinson has served Grace Church, Holyoke, for 42 years and Dr. J. Harold Dale has been minister of the First Church, Billerica, for 41 years.

Particular progress was made last year by a number of our smaller churches. Fewer of these than usual can be called "zero" churches, i.e., churches having received no persons into membership and having made no gifts to missions. Seventeen fewer churches than last year, namely 141, received no new members by Confession of faith. Twenty-three fewer churches, namely 43, made no gifts to the apportionment. Our ability to hold our own in church attendance may be attributed in part at least, to the very substantial gains in church attendance attained by some of the smaller churches. New and better strategy for church work in some smaller communities, more co-operative relationships between small churches have strengthened our Congregational work.

On the wall of a business office in Springfield is the picture of a little boy. The expression on his face is eager and alert and suggests health and strength and promise for the future. Below the picture are these words: "Don't wait until you're a man to be great. Be a great boy." If our small churches can have real visions of service, a sense of responsibility for the larger work, faith in themselves as in God; they need not wait to be big churches to be great churches. They can be great little churches, sources of spiritual strength to their communities and to our denomination.

With the help of Miss Dorothy Light, Office Secretary, records have been kept as specified in the By-Laws and the statistical reports of our churches have been organized for the year book. During the year, the Secretary has taken part in 134 conferences and committee meetings, conferred with the Board of Pastoral Supply relative to 30 vacant pulpits and given 120 sermons or addresses in connection with his field work. He has worked with the Unit Plan Committee, the Laymen's Committee, the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, the Committee on Missions, and the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry and has served as a director of the Boston City Missionary Society and as a member of the Comity Department of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. The year's experience has brought to him many new contacts with our ministers and churches and a new sense of the vitality of our Congregational fellowship and of the power for good which is latent and potential in our co-operative work for advancing the cause of Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

MYRON W. FOWELL, Secretary

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE CONFERENCE

May 15, 1944

A treasurer's report is usually rather dull reading, and consequently it should meet with approval if my comments are as brief as possible.

The printed reports which are in your hands show the details of the operations of the treasury department for the year ending March 31, 1944. It might be of interest, however, to point out one or two outstanding features.

The Apportionment receipts from churches for our work have shown a generous increase of about $3,000 over the previous year. As an offset to this gain, the receipts from Allotment assessments have decreased approximately $3,000. This can be accounted for by the receipt a year ago of many payments in arrears. Much credit is due the Association treasurers for collecting these assessments and encouraging the churches to keep up-to-date in their payments.

The largest single source of receipts, namely income from invested funds, also showed a loss of $2,500 from last year. This loss should not be considered a serious one, since the income the year before was higher than average, owing to the receipt of extraordinary accrued bond interest and dividends in arrears on certain preferred stock. It seems reasonable to hope for the same income for the ensuing year. Our inventory shows approximately the same proportion invested in stocks and bonds as a year ago and, without materially decreasing the amount of our fixed interest obligations, we have been fortunate in being able to maintain practically the same rate of return on our investments as a year ago. The rate paid on the funds held for churches was 3 $^{8}/_{10}$ths % this year.

Expenses, due especially to overhead costs, have been higher, as is to be expected under war conditions.

For the last four consecutive years we have closed our books with an excess of income over expenses transferred to our Contingent Fund. The amount this year is considerably less than last year, because it seemed wise to charge into this year's expense several items which would normally be payable later, thereby lightening our burden of future obligations.

A source of considerable satisfaction is the condition of our two groups of funds—those held for churches and the Conference funds. As of March 31, 1944, these funds show a market value better than 2 % in excess of the book value. A year ago the Conference funds showed a small discount from market value, less than 3%; and the funds held for churches, a still smaller one of ½ of 1 %. This relationship of book value to market value is one of the best means of determining the soundness of the securities in our inventory.

The Finance Committee and the Treasurer feel that a still further strengthening of these funds can be accomplished through the adoption of the new plan which you will be asked to vote on a little later at this conference. We hope that the letter sent to you has explained this plan clearly and set forth its advantages. The final control of the various funds would still be in the hands of the Board of Trustees of the Conference, but the administration would be, we believe, more efficiently handled under this new system.

The growth, or expansion, of our missionary and promotional work can be accomplished in the greatest degree by an increase in our receipts from legacies, since the Conference has no excess earning power and cannot add to its assets through that means. Endowments are the chief hope for further expansion of our work. In recent years our receipts from bequests have been so small that our program of activities admits of no increase from one year to the next.

Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer

ARTHUR W. DAVIS, Treasurer

May 10, 1944

Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, D.D., President,
Massachusetts Congregational Conference and
Missionary Society,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Sir:

We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ended March 31, 1944, and we report that income receivable from invested funds and all other income as shown by the books of the Society have been accounted for; that we have seen paid checks or other evidence of payment for all disbursements; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1944; that the cash in banks and office at March 31, 1944, has been verified, and that, in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the Funds in the hands of the Society, as at the close of business March 31, 1944, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ended at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF WOMAN'S WORK

It is with humble satisfaction that the Secretary of Woman's Work submits her fifth annual report. The task is to condense it into space and time allowed.

The report of the Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work has presented in "Advance Reports" the activities and accomplishments of the committees of that department of each of which the secretary is ex officio member and staff executive. Through her office contacts with local churches are maintained by means of packets sent in the fall and spring, occasional special mailings and the Education Bulletin of which she is editor. In her office also is handled voluminous correspondence and numerous interviews with local church and district leaders are carried on. Since she is editor and chief contributor to the two pages "Massachusetts Women" in Pilgrim State News, woman's work is brought into our state paper. New material was this year prepared for presenting the projects of the Second Mile Woman's Gift. The demand for applications for parsonage boxes in 1943–44 far exceeded the number available as assigned by the New York office, but 40 churches sent 62 boxes into home missionary parishes.

During the summer and early fall elaborate plans were made for what was to be our first state-wide meeting for local church leaders in woman's work and great enthusiasm was manifested, but when final publicity was to go forth it was found that changed conditions of transportation and housing made it necessary to cancel the meeting. The change was quickly made, however, to a State Leaders' meeting as held last year, possible because of its being only for one day and with a limited attendance. Since we were able to secure Mrs. E. E. McClintock, national secretary, for a series of state-wide institutes for local church women this spring, it is felt that a similar objective to that of the state meeting has been realized.

The secretary of woman's work, however, devotes only half of her time to that department. She is also subscription manager of the Pilgrim State News. This year a new system of recording subscriptions and transmitting them to the publishing office in Worcester from which the magazine is mailed has been installed. Receiving and recording hundreds of twenty-five cent subscriptions and the constant turnover of the subscription list because of cancellations and lapses of subscriptions makes for a very exacting job. Your secretary gives as much time to the supervision of this as she can possibly find. Subscriptions this year have made a substantial increase in number and the appeal for paying one dollar for a four year subscription has received good response. We appreciate the splendid promotion given by the Trustees' Committee and the ministers of our churches and scribes of associations.

Your secretary is supervisor of the Speakers' Bureau of which Mrs. Paul Bogosian is office secretary. In addition to the usual lists of local speakers prepared and sent to ministers and presidents of women's organizations in the early summer, a special list for young people's organizations was prepared for the Department of Religious Education to be sent out with some of its material. Although upwards and over six hundred appointments were made by the bureau, counting only those for which all details were completed, since recommendations and partly arranged appointments are too numerous to include, the bureau has suffered from shortage of man and woman power characteristic of the times. It could have arranged far more appointments if missionaries from foreign countries had been more available. These folk since they are home for a longer and more uncertain period than usual have accepted projects of work which have taken them out of the speaking field.

Serving the Missions and Apportionment Committee as clerk, your secretary has prepared from previous material and suggestions of the committee and members of the staff the two pamphlets, "Suggestions for the Year's Work" — for the Association Missionary Committees of Massachusetts, and "The Church Missionary Committee at Work" — for the Church Missionary Committees of Massachusetts. She has also assisted at several conferences on the Wider Work of the Church. She had charge of circularizing our churches appealing for a five per cent increase in benevolence giving in the fall.

Her personal activities include speaking in local churches in women's and other organization meetings, at Sunday worship services and in study groups. She has also taken part in district, association and women's institute programs. Last summer she taught in two summer conferences and was on the planning committee of four. She has also taught in an interdenominational religious education institute and this past winter prepared the content for a publicity folder for interdenominational religious education conferences of New England. She attended the midwinter meetings of the Missions Council in Cleveland in order to be in touch with the larger fellowship, especially that of Congregational Christian women, through the meeting of the state presidents and executives of women's work.

The challenge of the work of your secretary grows greater with the years and her daily prayer is for strength and wisdom to meet it.

Respectfully submitted,

Naomi G. Ekdahl
(Mrs. Adolph G.)

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The war is leaving its scar upon religious education as it is upon everything else. It affects the leadership; superintendents have gone and teachers are in service. It dips into the young people's groups; one of these numbering 140 has dwindled to 40. It disrupts homes because parents are busier and mothers are at work. It confuses children, who see a contradiction between war's philosophy and what they have been taught, and whose attitudes are affected by the present world tragedy. It has brought population movements, that affect the life of millions of boys and girls. A report on Christian education in the present year can hardly be made apart from its true setting.

The Church School faces greater difficulty than most other church agencies. (1) The war has depleted its leadership. (2) Many young people's classes have been disrupted because of military service, and premature gainful employment. At the meeting of the Commission on Children in Wartime, held in Washington in March, it was pointed out that the child labor situation is increasingly serious, that from one-half to one-third of the total enrollment in junior-high and high schools is of boys and girls who work outside school hours, that the violation of child labor laws has increased fivefold since 1940, that there has been a decrease of 27% in appropriations to government agencies responsible for enforcing child labor laws, and that there has been a marked increase in juvenile delinquency. If the work problem is having its effect upon the schools, how much more will it affect the Sunday School where there is little compulsion! (3) In the age-range that is usually regarded as most important for church school membership there is actually a decrease in our population. During the last decade, while the total population of Massachusetts increased by 1.6%, the number in the age-range from 5 to 7 showed a decrease of 20%; the age-range 7 to 16 showed a decrease of 17.3%; the total number of pupils enrolled in the public schools decreased 19.1%; the total of all elementary school children decreased 25%. But through this period the total population of the State has increased!

Thus it happens that the pastor has more people whom he may try to reach for church membership; but he has less people whom he may try to reach for membership in his church school (if he regards his school as primarily for children).

Mark you, I do not justify our drop of 35% in ten years, any more than the Methodist Church has justified its ten-year loss, nationally, of 800,000. For there is still a vast number of unreached in every community. It is only realistic however to face facts as they are. Four groups stand out as most hopeful if we are to turn the tide: (1) The unreached who are all around us. (2) The Nursery-in-the-Home or Cradle Roll. The increased birth-rate gives us a real opportunity for contacts with the home. (3) The junior-high age, less affected than many by the war, and with more thought being given it than ever before. (4) Adults. Serious opportunities for adult learning always bring rewarding results.

The number of invitations to local institutes and teachers' and officers' conferences indicates leaders' desire for improvement. In Massachusetts we have prepared some materials which many have found helpful, e.g., specific curriculum suggestions for the coming year; "Memory Work for all Ages"; a record card, "Pupil's Achievement Goals" that keeps before the teacher significant results to be sought.

[New Approaches:] Many of our churches go beyond the traditional Sunday School. In so doing they do not reject it; they supplement it, and enlarge its scope. Some are happy in their experience with the Junior Church. Some are using the Extended Session, a two-hour period on Sunday morning, rather than the traditional one hour. Some have tried Forums for Youth. The Pastor's church membership class must also be included. The Adult School of Religion or the University of Life for young people and adults offers learning opportunities for a definite period, in a new setting. The Week-day Church School and the Vacation Church School are finding increasing favor in our churches. All such experiments ought to be regarded as part of the School of the Church, and should find their place in our educational statistics.

The Vacation Church School gives opportunity for a considerable amount of training if measured merely in hours; but its value is enhanced by the fact that there is continuity and concentration. Last summer 96 of our churches held such schools or participated in them, over 80% on an interdenominational basis. This year we are securing a few workers to assist in churches that might otherwise be unable to have a school, and have sent to every pastor a practical leaflet on the Church Vacation School, thus hoping to help bring the total number in 1944 beyond the 100 mark.

Week-day Church Schools have had a steady growth during the past year, as rapid as good health could stand. Almost everywhere in Massachusetts they are operated interdenominationally and your secretary shares in the responsibility. During the year the number of communities conducting schools in co-operation with the Council of Churches has about doubled, making twenty communities with 2850 pupils at this date, with probably another dozen having week-day schools independent of the Council, with perhaps another thousand enrolled. About ten more communities expect to begin in the fall. Our Massachusetts Conference, with the aid of many Associations and of the Pilgrim Fellowship, contributes its share toward the general expense. Through the Children's Lenten Project, and the Conference itself, direct support is given a few needy schools.

[Children's Work:] The Committee on Children's Work, formerly a part of the Woman's Department, is now related to the Department of Religious Education, its chairman, Mrs. G. Wilmer Hathorn, serving as an ex officio member of the Committee on Religious Education. The material for the Children's Christmas service projects (in which children's groups of 103 churches participated) and the material for the Children's Lenten project ("Weekday Church Schools for Nearby Friends")were sent out from the office of the Religious Education department. Contributions to this latter project have come from schools of all sizes. One letter, enclosing a $2.00 check said: "We are a small school, only 2 classes and 7 scholars when all are present, but the children wanted to help and we hope the goal will be reached." If all gave in the same proportion the goal would be reached 30 times over.

Young People's Work in Massachusetts seems to be on an increasingly solid basis. It has been a satisfaction both to the Adult Advisor, Rev. Paul S. McElroy, and myself to work intimately with the Executive Committee of the State Pilgrim Fellowship, led by its efficient President, Miss Jane Larson. More and more "Pilgrim Fellowship" is recognized, not as an organization but as the covering title for Congregational young people's activities. A majority of the associations have some kind of organization, with occasional meetings that are real factors in the religious life of our youth. [Massachusetts young people will be represented at the United Christian Youth Conference and at the biennial meeting of the National Council of Pilgrim Fellowship at Lakeside, Ohio, following the General Council meeting.]

Summer Conferences are now so entrenched in the affections of our churches that they need no one to plead their case. Last summer we held three Pilgrim Fellowship conferences for high-school young people, with an enrollment of about 385. At least seventy-five were refused for lack of room. The Council Conference (a planning group) enrolled 24. For the coming summer our plans call for three high-school age conferences as last year, a Council conference at the end of the summer, and (an innovation for 1944) our first Massachusetts Junior-high Camp. The interdenominational conferences which we recommend for young people and adults should also be regarded as our own, for some of us give time and effort to plan them and teach in them.

Adults thus appear in the religious education picture. They are in summer conferences; they are leaders of children and youth. Our leadership education institutes enroll adults (e.g., Congregational House Institute, with two sessions last year and another planned for next fall). We need an advance in adult education (men and women together) that takes account of their own needs, as parents or as adults concerned about the issues of religious thinking, of the post-war world, or a score of other themes.

Missionary Education has had increased attention this past year. The children's projects have been missionary and have brought fairly wide participation. The Pilgrim Fellowship has had its missionary projects, state, home and foreign. We are more aggressive in promoting the study and reading of books [issued through the Missionary Education Movement] graded for all ages. For 1944–45 these deal with the American Indian and with Southeast Asia, so much in our minds today because every church at the crossroads has a man out there. The "Leaders' Conferences on the Wider Work of the Church", held in about 25 churches this spring, with more to come, represent a common task for many of us. I have given some time and will give more to the revival of the World Service Plan. Any Massachusetts Congregational Church School may enroll with the state office upon certain conditions and receive program material on two age levels. This will help our boys and girls to discover how their church is attempting to meet human needs, and to co-operate themselves.

At the desire of the Trustees I still retain certain interdenominational responsibilities, e.g., with the Missionary Education Movement, the International Council of Religious Education, and (in Massachusetts) the Chairmanship of the Department of Religious Education of the Council of Churches. What we do co-operatively relieves us of the necessity of doing similar things independently and helps to create the interdenominational fellowship we covet.

I have spoken of religious education only, although my work includes the editing of Pilgrim State News and many phases of Conference work in churches and associations. The satisfactions that have come have been due in no small measure to the enthusiastic co-operation of the state committee on Religious Education, under the fine leadership of its chairman, Rev. Edward A. Jones; to the friendships and good spirit within the staff itself; and to the many contacts with committees, with ministers, and with men and women and young people in the churches who make me know that Christian education is not one person's job alone, but a responsibility that all of us share together.

Respectfully submitted,

John Leslie Lobingier,
Secretary, Religious Education

REPORT OF THE FIELD SECRETARY

Mr. Moderator — Christian Friends of our Churches: — The question in my thinking at the moment is this:

> "Just how much of a boost to the Kingdom of God > can a report become anyway?"

I suppose it depends upon what is put into it. What, then, shall its content be? The program says "Report" and we cry out: "What shall we report?" — The story of long days and nights of auto travel and soul travail, made all too short by pressing demands and duties and doings? — The recital of facts and figures to show forth fields "white and ready for the harvest" but with laborers all too few? — The attempted portrayal of endless difficulties and discouragements which churches and ministers face and courageously struggle through?

Hardly so. The limits of a mere report prohibit such broad surveying. What then? Nothing better or more, we guess, than a few scattered comments, bare touches here and there.

The question is being asked in one of our religious magazines: "What Is Disturbing the Methodists"? "What Is Disturbing the Baptists"? "What Is Disturbing the Congregationalists"? and so on. One might well ask in the same vein: "What Is Disturbing the Churches of Good Old Massachusetts"? Certainly one of the disturbing elements is the never ceasing, ebb and flow in the ministry. It is not alone "Tomorrow's Empty Pulpits" about which the editor of The Christian Century has recently written, that troubles one. It is "today's empty pulpits". More than a third of the 175 churches in my area, some 61 in all, have changed ministers during the past twelve months. Perhaps I shouldn't say "changed" for about 20 of them are right now anxiously in quest of leadership. None have been entirely without Sunday services at any time, thanks to our honored retired men and many who teach in prep school and college. Naturally it is the smaller churches that suffer most from lack of permanent leadership since they cannot pay adequate salaries. One is inclined to believe that a little more willingness on the part of such churches to yoke up for the duration at least would be advantageous in some instances. In all this the Board of Pastoral Supply has been splendidly co-operative, but the fact remains that a large part of this service rests back upon the Field Secretary of necessity.

When one discovers that he is associated with more than 50 churches and organizations which are the recipients of money grants from our Conference totaling some $18,000 and takes to heart such significant words as these from Mark Dawber:

> "There is real peril in the continuation of mission patronage > without any attempt toward larger self-support", he senses with real concern the responsibility centering in this side of his care of the churches. In this connection we are happy to report that quite a number of our aided fields are looking toward and are moving toward independence. In fact, several have gone off the grant list entirely rather recently and are rejoicing that they can now walk alone. But there will continue to be not a few rural fields and other situations which probably will have to be subsidized until that day foreseen and foretold by Dr. John Homer Miller when the helicopter will take city dwellers back into God's beautiful countryside where they will establish their homes from which commuting to places of business will be easy. And I just cannot drop this matter of the small rural church and the great contribution it has made to the good of the world without expressing to you my joy over the fact that there has quite recently gone out of our little church in North Hadley a beautiful Christian young lady who, it is expected, will be commissioned as a medical missionary at the coming General Council meeting. She will be the second one from western Massachusetts to be so commissioned within these months.

I feel that I am right in saying that all of our young ministers have again and again searched their hearts to know whether it was God's will for them to remain at their post of duty in the church or enter the chaplaincy. Thirty-two of them have decided in favor of the chaplaincy. Three of the number still await definite assignments. May God's richest blessing be upon them and all whom they serve and may His richest blessing also be upon all those ministers who lead their churches forward here at home ever eager to make them ready for redemptive service to the returning soldiers.

Our ministers, not a few of them, bemoan the fact that in many of our smaller fields there is such a lack of lay leadership, so little vision of great spiritual need near and far, such an unwillingness to "launch out into the deep" for the sake of new discovery and experience, so limited an understanding of the mission of the church on earth, such indifference to things that matter most. Here indeed is one's opportunity to "work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the household of faith."

Almost as these words were being written there came to the writer's desk a letter from a Springfield minister from which I quote:

"Mr. R. G. Bleakney, chairman of our trustees, has recently been promoted and transferred to the head of the plant department of the New England Tel and Tel Company. He has charge of the Boston area. A BIG job. The family will move after school closes. Maybe this doesn't mean much to you but to us it is little short of a calamity. He was leader in our Scout work as well as in the office of Trustee. Mrs. Bleakney drilled the Junior Choir, played the organ for the church school, taught a class besides being the President of the Women's Society and serving on various other committees. Their son is President of the Pilgrim Fellowship, sings in the choir, teaches in the church school and is monitor of attendance. The daughter teaches, sings in the choir and plays for the Fellowship. Without counting committee jobs they now hold twelve positions in the church which will not be easy to fill. Besides, they have been among our best contributors.

"So you can imagine how we feel. I have known few such families in all my ministry. But we shall carry on and do our best. Maybe there will arise some dozen to take their tasks, though none could do them better."

In the midst of so much seeming indifference, etc., there are, indeed, such families as this, — more of them than we know, so let's "thank God and take courage." May the Bleakney family find a warm welcome and a place of service in some church here in Boston or vicinity.

Were there time and inclination one could speak at length about numerous instances of church property renovation and improvement, new purchase of property, plans being made and funds being accumulated for new buildings or rather extensive alterations, church debts, large and small liquidated or being rapidly liquidated, bequests and gifts to church organizations totaling probably more than $100,000, churches raising ministers' salaries and increasing their missionary giving, memorable anniversary, dedication, and re-dedication, ordination and installation services. They are all a distinct part of your Secretary's knowledge and interest and experience though not a real part of this report.

This is my concluding word, — my vision and my prayer.

> "There is a river the streams whereof make glad the City of God."

May this "river" ever be the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, the "streams" thereof members of the Conference Staff and "the City of God" the ministers and churches made glad by those life-giving waters which God alone can mediate through the soul of man.

By their Chairman

The trustees have throughout the year performed their usual and normal duties. In the latter half of the year the trustees have met bi-monthly; and the committees of the trustees have met either monthly, or at least in each month in which there was no meeting of the full board. This custom took the place of holding committee meetings on the same days as meetings of the trustees, when the work of committees was likely to be crowded into inadequate time. The present plan seems to work well and to assure the committees opportunity to give full consideration of the subjects before them.

The trustees had before them at the beginning of the year a long and carefully prepared report of a special committee appointed in the preceding year to review the activities of the trustees and the staff. This report was studied by the trustees and the general conference committee. Among the results were these:

A statement was made setting forth the things that the staff and the trustees are prepared to do for the self-supporting churches, not in the way of supervision, but in the way of cooperation and service; and calling attention to joint activities carried on in behalf of many or all the churches, such for example as the Unit Plan.

The relation of the trustees and the staff to the Board of Pastoral Supply was clarified and means taken to have the Associations involved in changes of pastors assume a share of the responsibility.

The general conference committee of the trustees was made something of an executive committee, in which proposed action of the trustees might have preliminary study in committee.

The aided church committee was encouraged to look beyond the aided churches and to seek out promising fields for the extension of Congregational churches; also to extend its consideration and aid to churches and pastors desiring its assistance.

Now taking up other subjects:

In recent years there has been a growing tendency on the part of the churches to turn over to the conference their funds for investment. Thus far the conference has carried these funds in the combined trust fund so-called. The finance committee has developed a plan for more efficiently administering these trust funds. (a) (b) (c).

The trustees through Mr. Fowell, the secretary, took charge of the Unit Plan and for the second year exceeded the allotment for Massachusetts. The trustees, joining with the American Board and the Home Missionary Society, have committed themselves to a policy of future support of the Unit Plan.

At the present time the assets both of the Conference and of the Combined Trust Fund have a market value slightly in excess of the book value.

The chairman, now speaking for himself and expressing his own opinion, has found harmony and efficiency in the staff. It is the first year for some time in which throughout the year we have had a staff adequate in numbers and unchanged in personnel. The results it seems to me have been good. I have admired the way in which the president has administered his high office. I see no reason why we may not look forward to the future with confidence and hope.

Respectfully submitted,

Wilbur E. Rowell, Chairman

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Fourteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eight cents of the fourteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of

....Dollars.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from this property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, so long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Conference is glad to receive bequests to be held in trust for the benefit of churches. Many churches have put their trust funds in the care of the Conference. It is now administering trust funds for churches in Massachusetts to the amount of approximately $753,613.75. The Conference retains 3% of the net income for this service. Funds which have been committed to our care have earned a little less than 4% this last year.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, made up for the most part of persons who have had little experience in administering funds, to guard the safety of church trust funds. The Conference has exceptional facilities for keeping funds safely and investing them profitably and wisely. The Board of Trustees of the Conference, which has charge of all its funds, contains men of large ability and experience in such matters.

THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD, INC.

Annual Meeting January 31, 1944

PRESIDENT SIDNEY F. LAW, 33 Greenleaf Street

FIRST VICE PRESIDENT, REV. CHARLES S. NICHOLS, 74 Denver Street

SECOND VICE PRESIDENT, MR. WALTER L. SPAULDING, 180 Myrtle Street, Indian Orchard

CLERK, MISS EUNICE BATES, 101 Princeton Street

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, MR. KARL F. WILSON

TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL

Aids churches financially, promotes coöperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Aided Church Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid must show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers and the times of meeting.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.", pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically; churches in each town according to age. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a footnote on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1944. Admissions and removals cover the year 1943. "Absent" members, by vote of the Conference, are not recorded in the Massachusetts statistics. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1944, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; " §", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

Licentiate — Kenneth E. Nye, Webster.
Rev. Lyndon S. Beardslee, 7 Church St., Westboro, Scribe.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

* Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

‡ Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

⁺ Ordained, but not yet a member of an Association.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE. — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

CAMBRIDGE, MAY 15

CONGREGATIONAL LIBRARY

Officers. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation ....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

MINUTES OF THE 146th ANNUAL MEETING

THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IN CAMBRIDGE

MAY 15, 1945

THE BECKLER PRESS, INC.
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to the following percentages:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council for Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference and the General Council a sum equivalent to fourteen cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1945, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8.

The “Minutes” are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the “Minutes” with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Secretary.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen, as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X .

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

- (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.
- (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:
   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

   (b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

   (c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

      (i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

      (ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

      (iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

   (d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

   (e) A Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a coöperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.
2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.
3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.
4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES OF THE 146th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 15, 1945

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

At 9:00 o'clock the 146th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was called to order by the Moderator, Mr. Roy A. Hovey of Wakefield.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Floyd L. Roberts of the South Church, Pittsfield.

The Moderator announced the following committee appointments:

Business Committee—Rev. Frank E. Duddy, Cambridge, Chairman; Frank E. Bridgman, Wollaston; Rev. Kenneth D. Beckwith, Beverly; Mrs. Marjorie S. Bond, Greenfield; John H. Paine, Harwich; Rev. John Wallace, Concord.

Credentials Committee—Rev. Stanley C. Knott, Abington, Chairman; Rev. Robinson H. Shipherd, Amherst; Miss Alice C. Ordway, Mattapoisett; Mrs. Baldwin W. Callahan, Gardner; Rev. Walter R. Kraft, Southbridge.

An address of welcome by the host pastor, Dr. John H. Leamon, was responded to by the Moderator.

It was voted that the reports of the staff, the committees, and the Trustees, as presented in the Advance Reports, be received and placed on file and made a part of the permanent record. Note.

The following recommendations of the Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry, as printed in the Advance Reports, were presented by Rev. Ben Roberts, Chairman, and adopted seriatim:

1. The Committee recommends to the Board of Trustees that they recommend to the Conference that the By-Laws be amended as follows: — In Article X, Section 2, paragraph "e", the words "A Committee on the Ministry" be substituted for "a Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry."
2. The Committee recommends that the roll of ministers, licentiates, Lay Preachers, and those "In Care of the Association", and "Approved Christian Worker", shall be the responsibility of the Committee on Ministerial Standing of the Association, which shall annually furnish the Scribe or Registrar with a corrected list.

(Note. — Printed copies of these reports may be had, without cost, by writing to the Secretary of the Conference.)

3. The Committee recommends that a minister who has moved from the bounds of the Association, shall communicate once a year with the Association at the time of the Annual Meeting, he being notified by the Scribe of the Association. He should inform the Committee on Ministerial Standing as to his reasons for desiring to keep his name on the roll of the Association, which reasons must be deemed satisfactory to the Association's Committee.

4. The Committee further recommends that the names of ministers concerning whom the Association has no certain knowledge over a period of five years, shall be transferred from the Association roll to the State Conference office for inclusion in a separate list under the supervision of the State Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry, indicating that they are ordained men and have had standing, but shall be subject to review by the State Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry before being again enrolled in an Association.

The following recommendations of the Special Committee on Statistics, as printed in the Advance Reports, were presented by Dr. Harry W. Kimball, Chairman, and were adopted:

1. That in conformity with other states the absent column in the yearbook be restored for Massachusetts but that absent members be included in the total membership. Absent members are those members who live outside of what is recognized as the parish of your church who do not attend its services regularly but who are nevertheless recognized as members in good and regular standing.

2. That each church establish an inactive list of members.

The by-laws of your church may define the status of inactive members for you. If they do not, we would commend the practice, which many of our churches are now following, of retiring to an inactive list members outside the vicinage of the church who have not for a period of two years participated in the fellowship, worship and support of the church. Such members may be restored to the active list if they assume an active relationship with the church at a future time; or they may be restored to the active list for the purpose of granting them letters of transfer to other churches if such letters seem to be in order. Meantime, they are not reported in the total membership and, accordingly, the church is not assessed for them under the allotment plan.

3. That there be a greater accuracy in reporting church attendance.

An increasing number of churches are having two Sunday morning services and are reporting the aggregate attendance in both rather than the attendance at the principal service. In some cases the aggregate number reported included individuals who have attended both services. In other cases it included a good many children who attend the worship service in place of the usual Church School worship service.

Therefore we recommend that the state conference request the General Council to so change its questionnaire as to allow churches to report an aggregate attendance, if they have two services Sunday morning, asking them to indicate that such is the case by using a code letter; also to indicate if one of the services is attended largely by children, and that if the General Council is unable to do this that our state conference obtain this information.

4. That under "Youth organizations" church clerks report all youth groups aside from the Sunday School, which meet under the supervision of the church. Dr. Stock met with the committee and suggested the following schedule which was adopted. We recommend that the state conference approve this for the use of the General Council and that if not adopted by them that it be used by our state conference.

Dr. Keirstead presented the report of the Trustees and their recommendation that the present figures for the apportionment percentages be continued for the coming year. This recommendation was adopted and the percentages remain as follows:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council for Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

A further recommendation of the Trustees was also adopted, namely, that the allotment rate for the Conference and General Council for the coming year be the same as last year: 14 cents per member.

The report of the Special Committee on Giving was presented by the Moderator, the gist of which was:

"We, therefore, urge upon the churches that they make the work of our denominational boards their primary responsibility; that where gifts are made to outside causes, these be given, as far as possible, to definitely religious work, which looks to all the denominations for its support; and that every effort be made to avoid duplication in giving through gifts to secular organizations which solicit individually the families of the churches." No action was taken in regard to this report.

Rev. Frederick H. Thompson of Easthampton spoke on the Dr. Laubach Book Fund and urged that every Sunday School child be asked to bring a book on Children's Sunday to be sent to the Philippines.

Public Relations for the churches, as sponsored by the Massachusetts Council of Churches, was presented by Rev. Frank E. Dunn.

A service in memory of ministers of our fellowship who had died in 1944 and 1945 was conducted by Dr. Timberlake.

Rev. Henry R. Rust of West Boylston spoke on behalf of the Candidate Committee of the American Board.

Dr. Duddy introduced the following resolution for the Business Committee and it was adopted:

WHEREAS the Congress and the people of the United States are now considering the possible adoption of legislation providing for postwar military conscription,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society recommends that Congressional action on this matter be deferred until after the war.

The Secretary of the Conference is instructed to transmit this vote to the Chairman of the Select Committee on Post-War Military Policy of the House of Representatives and to the corresponding committee of the Senate of the United States and to the Massachusetts Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Dr. Duddy presented Dr. Charles C. Merrill, Chairman of the Special Committee on Union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church, who read the first section of the report of that committee, consisting of a Letter to be Sent to the Executive Committee of the General Council.

Explanatory Note: The matters referred to in this report were brought to the attention of the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society by the Executive Committee of the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches. President Timberlake was authorized by the Board of Trustees to appoint a committee with himself as an ex officio member, to consider these matters and to report to the Annual Meeting of the Conference. The committee consisted of the following: Dr. Charles C. Merrill, Chairman, Dr. Ralph M. Timberlake, Secretary, Mrs. Edith G. Field, Dr. Walter A. Morgan, Dr. J. Burford Parry, Mr. Thomas Todd.

SECTION I

A LETTER TO BE SENT TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL:

Under date of January 23, 1945, the Executive Committee passed the following vote:

"VOTED: To correspond with Massachusetts Conference indicating what steps were taken on Vote #62 of the General Council minutes of 1944 and to ask the Massachusetts Conference if their requests had not been met by the action of the 1944 Council in Vote #62."

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society replies to this request as follows:

I. With respect to the action taken by the General Council concerning the second and fourth of the requests made by the Massachusetts Conference at its Annual Meeting in May, 1944, we find the action satisfactory. These requests were:

"(2) The Massachusetts Congregational Conference endorses the procedure for discussion of the Plan of Union in the following details: (a) No decision be asked of the General Council at its meeting in 1944; (b) that the years from 1944-46 be used for further acquaintance between churches of the two denominations and for full and frank discussion of all the implications to the Congregational way in the proposed Basis of Union, particularly as the Basis relates to the powers of the proposed General Synod."

"(4) That the Executive Committee of the General Council be empowered to stop or prolong such prodeedings in such ways as will best serve the interest of all concerned."

II. With respect to the action taken by the General Council concerning the first and third of the requests made by the Massachusetts Conference, we regret that our requests were not more nearly followed.

The first request was as follows:

"(1) The Massachusetts Congregational Conference recommends to the Executive Committee of the General Council that there be set up at the General Council meeting at Grand Rapids in June, a representative commission which shall be responsible for conducting hearings on the subject of the aforesaid Basis of Union."

Answer of the Executive Committee: The matter of the union was considered to be of such vital importance by the committee on the Grand Rapids meeting that they did not feel that hearings on the matter would be sufficient. Accordingly they took the unprecedented course of setting aside three hours of the plenary sessions of the Council for a discussion of the union. At these hours all questions that had come in to the office of the General Council were brought up and the total effect, it is hoped, was that of a hearing participated in not by a few, but by the entire companny.

Our comment: We recall that when the Congregational Churches, through the National Council at Kansas City in 1913, made a major change of the utmost importance, hearings were the method by which the sentiment of the delegates and of the churches was obtained. By means of hearings, a much freer expression can be obtained than in a regular meeting of the General Council, when fewer people can take part, and many people are led to abstain from taking part by reason of the size of the audience. At another General Council we suggest that the hearings plan be followed.

With respect to the third request made by the Massachusetts Conference, we regret that our recommendation was not followed:

Request:

"(3) That a representative Committeee of the State Conferences of our order be appointed to take a vote of the Congregational Churches of America relative to the proposed union, and that the committee tabulate and review the result of said vote and report same to the General Council in 1948, recommending such action as may seem advisable."

Answer of the Executive Committee: The entire matter was placed in the hands of the Executive Committee of the General Council.

Our comment: With all due respect to the Executive Committee, we submit that it has a good deal of other business to transact, and we believe that so important a matter as is now before us can best be handled by the appointment of a committee representative of the strength of our fellowship and of different points of view, carefully chosen for this particular work. We urge that such a committee be appointed, and that the Executive Committee turn over its responsibility here to that committee. One main task of this committee should be immediately to take a vote, by State Conferences, of the Congregational churches of America relative to the proposed union, and tabulate and review the result of said vote, and report the same to the General Council in 1946. We believe that we should get the voice of the members of our churches on the Basis of Union before further commitments are made.

The committee recommended that the foregoing letter be sent to the Executive Committee of the General Council. After considerable discussion, this recommendation was adopted unanimously.

The report of the Treasurer of the Conference, Mr. Arthur W. Davis, together with the report of the auditors, was presented and accepted.

At 11:30 Dr. Douglas Horton, Minister of the General Council, spoke on "The Present-Day Strategy of our Churches."

The morning session was closed with prayer by Rev. John H. Haverinen of the Finnish Church, Quincy.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The afternoon session was opened with prayer by Rev. Walter A. Telfer of Holliston.

Dr. Austin Rice of Wakefield presented an appeal for the Board of Ministerial Aid. The offering amounted to $187.87.

The Service of Dedication for the Woman's Second Mile Gift was conducted by Mrs. Franklin G. Field, the retiring Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work.

Dr. Merrill presented the second section of a letter to be sent to the Executive Committee of the General Council, as follows:

Section II

A LETTER TO BE SENT TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL:

Under date of January 23, 1945, the Executive Committee invited the Massachusetts Conference "to study the Basis of Union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church and if possible report their suggestions for improvements to the Executive Committee before June, 1945."

We must remind you of the shortness of the time given us to do what you suggest. As at present advised, however, the Conference is prepared to say that we believe the churches of Massachusetts will be more likely to vote in favor of the Union if changes in the "Basis of Union" are made in the following ways:

1. That an inaccuracy and an inconsistency be corrected in the Preamble(p. 2).

In this Preamble the statement is made that "We, the regularly constituted representatives of the Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed Churches", etc. We suggest that the official names of the two bodies be given: namely, "We, the representatives of the Congregational Christian Churches and of the Evangelical and Reformed Church", etc.

In the second and third paragraphs of the Preamble, there is inconsistency in that in the second paragraph the word "church" is used to refer to what we usually call a "denomination"; whereas in the third paragraph the word "denomination" is used. We suggest that the word "denomination", or some synonym such as "communion", be used in both paragraphs.

2. We find in the "Basis of Union" such expressions as "The government of the United Church", (p. 4); "Individual communicants shall have the right of appeal, complaint or reference", (p. 4); and "the fundamental law of the United Church", (p. 7).

These are not Congregational terms. They do not suggest the Congregational way. For example, in cases of appeal and complaint, it has been customary for Congregational Church members and ministers, and for the churches themselves, to call in a Council of sister churches to adjust matters, and the result in the main has been quite satisfactory.

Do the terms "government" and "law" here mean what they usually mean? In the United Church are we to have government and law and successive courts of appeal. If this is not the design, "government" should be changed to "fellowship" and "law" to "bond", or similar word.

3. We believe it undesirable to call the local church, which is the center of our Congregational system, a "congregation", as is repeatedly done in the document before us. We suggest that "church" or "local church" be used instead.

4. The Association is so fundamental a part of our Congregational organization, especially in Massachusetts and other Eastern states, that we believe it is inadvisable to indicate by using, as is repeatedly done, after the word "Association" the parenthesis "if desired", and by its not being given direct representation in the General Synod, that the Association is subsidiary and is perhaps eventually to be done away with.

5. As an autonomous self-governing organization, the local Congregational church has always cherished the right to choose its own minister. Does not the expression "standard denominational procedure" (third paragraph under Ministers, p. 7), whereby a church can only call a man who as a candidate has been approved by a Conference (or Association), suggest that this right is to be curtailed?

6. In the first sentence under III, Practice, (p. 4), it is said that the congregation consists of "a minister or ministers and lay members". We suggest that this is not a Congregational division. It looks toward the ministry being set apart in a way that has not been congenial to us. Moreover, does not a church continue to be a church even if it has no minister?

7. The Constitution and the Statement of Faith are so fundamental to the United Church that we question the wisdom of leaving these documents to be formulated after the Union is consummated.

Difficult as it may be to effect such formulation now, we suggest that our churches will more readily vote for this Union if they know before voting what the Constitution and the Statement of Faith of the United Church are to be. It is true that in the introductory paragraph of Article IV of the "Basis of Union" it is provided that the General Synod of the United Church shall "initiate action for the preparation of a constitution of the United Church", and such constitution shall go into force only when it has been ratified by two-thirds of "the former Congregational Christian congregations voting". But would it not be exceedingly unfortunate if after the "Basis of Union" is adopted by both denominations and the union is consummated as provided in Article XI, it were virtually wrecked by the failure, let us say, of one-third of our Congregational Christian churches to approve the constitution recommended by the new General Synod.

8. In the vote #54 passed by the General Council at Grand Rapids (General Council Minutes of 1944, pp. 51-52) it is provided that the Basis of Union shall be submitted to the churches, the Associations and the Conferences, and if the vote of these groups is "overwhelmingly" in favor of the Union, the General Council will be asked to meet to consummate it. What is meant by "overwhelmingly"? For example, shall it be two-thirds of the churches, which is the fraction provided for adoption of the Constitution? If so, we suggest that if 200, or one-third, of the 607 churches in Massachusetts disapproved the Union and stayed out, the loss to the State would be a tragic one. Ought it not to be provided that there shall be an overwhelming majority in each state, or at least in each sizable state, before the consummation of the Union.

In presenting the foregoing, the Massachusetts Conference is not in any way pronouncing for or against the proposed Union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. It is too early for any such pronouncement. We do believe, however, that what is involved in the Union should be clearly understood by our churches. It is for the purpose of furthering such better understanding that we submit these suggestions and comments.

Some of us recall the great meeting of our Congregational Churches which was held in Kansas City in 1913, when the National Council effected a major change in the constitutional life of our churches. That was done after the most painstaking work by a representative "Commission of Nineteen". The utmost effort was made to secure the opinions and suggestions of the churches. The result was that, after a discussion carried on in the most Christian way and we believe under the guidance of the spirit of God, with practical unanimity the Council voted in favor of the great changes proposed. Men and women left that meeting feeling that they had been at nothing less than a communion service. It was one of the momentous occasions of their lives. We hope that if it be the will of God that this union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church shall be effected, it will be carried through in the way that was so divinely revealed at Kansas City. It is our hope that, under the guidance of God, our Congregational Christian churches in Massachusetts and throughout the country may be led to the safeguarding of the principles that are sacred to our fellowship, and at the same time to the making of a significant contribution to the union of the entire Church of Christ in America and the world.

Your committee respectfully recommends: That the above letters be sent to the Executive Committee of the General Council.

After questions and discussion this recommendation was unanimously adopted.

The committee also recommended that a representative committee of the Conference, of at least twenty-five members, be appointed by the Board of Trustees to bring to the attention of every church the Basis of Union and its importance to their well-being, and to secure from every church a vote approving, or otherwise, the Basis of Union, and that these figures be tabulated, by churches, and reported to the next meeting of the State Conference. This recommendation was also unanimously adopted.

The Essex South Association requested that the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society authorize a Committee on Standards for the Churches to supplement the work of the Committee on Standards for the Ministry and it was voted that this committee be authorized by the Conference.

A short recess was declared for the election of officers of the Department of Woman's Work.

Rev. William F. English, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the nominations for committees, including the Nominating Committee for 1946, nominated by the Trustees. The list as presented was elected by one ballot cast by the Chairman of the Committee, and appears on pages 18-22 of the Minutes and Reports.

The following men were appointed tellers and distributed the printed ballots for the election of officers: Rev. Charles G. Christianson, Dalton; Rev. William W. Clark, Winthrop; Rev. Samuel R. Swift, Hinsdale; Rev. John B. Lewis, Springfield; Rev. Allen S. Lehman, East Douglas; Rev. W. Raymond Ward, Monterey; Rev. J. Herbert Owen, Lenox; Rev. Frederick C. Wilson, Ipswich; and Rev. Carl Knudsen, Plymouth.

The tellers reported that the Conference had elected the officers as listed on the ballot. Their names are recorded on pages 13-15 of these Minutes and Reports.

Mr. Duddy presented the following resolutions for the Business Committee, all of which were adopted:

On the Retiring Trustees:

That the Conference appreciates deeply the many hours of service contributed by the Trustees and that it realizes much of the expedition with which the business of the Conference is done depends directly upon the thoughtful study of the Trustees.

On the Moderator:

That the Conference hereby expresses its gratitude to the Moderator, Mr. Roy A.

Hovey of Wakefield, for the efficient ordering of the meetings when so much had to be done in so little time.

On the Host Minister and Host Church:

That the Conference looks upon Dr. John H. Leamon and the people of the First Church in Cambridge, Congregational, as hosts of the first rank. More goes into the preparation for a State Conference than meets the eye on the meeting days. Dr. Leamon and First Church have done their preparing and receiving well.

On the Greater Boston Regional Council's Plan for the Entertainment of this Meeting:

The entertainment of such out-of-town delegates as needed to remain in Cambridge over night has been taken care of by the Greater Boston Regional Council. The bulk of the work has fallen upon the capable shoulders of its secretary, Dr. Mark Ward, who deserves the thanks of the Conference for his helpfulness.

On the Support of the Appeal for Funds for Conscientious Objectors:

The appeal approved by the Executive Committee of the General Council reads:

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN COMMITTEE ON CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

May 1, 1945

DEAR FELLOW-PASTOR:

We believe in freedom of conscience. Even when we disagree, we will support the right of a person to be obedient to conscience. We will maintain fellowship with him. We will continue, whatever our own private point of view, to be concerned with his spiritual, moral and physical welfare. This is our historic tradition.

It is on this ground that we ask your cooperation in raising the sum of $44,000 during May to reimburse the Friends, Mennonites and Brethren for money they have already spent for food and physical maintenance of our Church members who are CO's. This money represents a three-year accumulation. We believe that you too will feel that we should carry our own load and not longer ask the historic peace Churches to bear it for us.

This special appeal has the approval of the Executive Committee of the General Council which at its March 1945 meeting passed this vote:

"The Executive Committee recognizes and commends the plan of the Committee on Conscientious Objectors to act for the Denomination in raising funds for maintenance of CO's."

We believe this arrears can be raised — if each minister will

(1) make a generous special gift himself,
(2) personally present the appeal to a few laymen and ask for their gifts,
(3) request a gift from the deacons fund or some similar Church treasury.

May we have your help?

Yours sincerely,

ALFRED SCHMALTZ,
Chairman

RONALD BRIDGES
Moderator of the General Council

DOUGLAS HORTON
Minister of the General Council

ARTHUR H. BRADFORD
Chairman of the Executive Committee of the General Council

That the Conference approve the appeal and ask the churches to support it.

On the National Emergency Fund:

That the Conference direct the Trustees to plan a unified promotion of the National Emergency Fund to include (a) Student Work, (b) rural church work, (c) city church work, (d) interdenominational projects.

On State Lottery:

That the Conference goes on record as unalterably opposed to any kind of State Lottery.

On vote of the Conference, Dr. Duddy read a resolution, which the Business Committee had declined to recommend, in regard to Fair Employment Practices. It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted, but the Conference voted to table the motion. It was then voted that this resolution be taken from the table and that it be referred to the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare for further study and report. The resolution read as follows:

WHEREAS our churches have at all times stood for the brotherhood of all men

AND WHEREAS our nation is founded on the principles of full freedom and equality for all

AND WHEREAS our Commonwealth has immediately at hand an opportunity to further the cause of Christianity and of our nation in the passage of strong measures for fair and unprejudiced employment of all applicants for work

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: THAT this Conference be placed on record before the state legislature as strongly favoring the passage now of a Fair Employment Practices law with adequate provisions for enforcement.

The Committee on Moral and Social Welfare met during the supper hour and reported their findings to the two supper groups, as follows:

"We commend the principle of equal opportunity for employment for all people regardless of race, religion or national origin, as embodied in the so-called Curtis Bill."

The Committee on Credentials reported the number of registrations received to date. Additional registrations were included in the final report, which appears at the end of these minutes.

It was then voted that the Conference stand adjourned at the conclusion of the evening session and that the Secretary be authorized to complete the minutes.

The seminars scheduled for 4:00 o'clock were as follows:

1. Toward Reconstruction in Group Relationships
   (Servicemen and Civilians, etc.)
   Rev. Howard P. Bozarth, Walpole, Leader
   Chaplain John Philip Lindsay, Benicia, California, Assistant Leader

9. Educational Evangclism
   Rev. Edward A. Jones, Gloucester, Leader

10. Visitation Evangelism
    Rev. George E. Bevans, Quincy, Leader

At 5:30 the seminars adjourned.

Following a supper, the women met in the sanctuary of the First Church, where Mrs. Franklin G. Field, retiring Chairman of the Department of Woman's Work, presented the newly elected Chairman, Mrs. Fred B. Dole of Shelburne. Miss Ione Catton, Resource Secretary of the Missions Council, was the speaker. Approximately four hundred women were in attendance.

Approximately two hundred and sixty ministers and laymen met in the ballroom of the Hotel Continental and enjoyed a special dinner, with addresses by Rev. Vernon H. Holloway of the Council for Social Action and Chaplain John Philip Lindsay, now serving at the Benicia Arsenal in California.

The conference concluded with a special evening service on the theme, "Where They Have Died in Violence........May We Live Daringly in Peace," prepared by Mrs. Carmeta Sargent-

Clark of Monson. The service was conducted by Rev. J. Albert Clark, and concluded with a sermon by Dr. Robert Wood Coe, minister of Leyden Congregational Church, Brookline.

HOLLIS M. BARTLETT, Recording Secretary,

MYRON W. FOWELL, Secretary.

REV. RALPH M. TIMBERLAKE, D.D., President,

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND
MISSIONARY SOCIETY,

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

Sir:

We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ended March 31, 1945, and we report that income receivable from invested funds and all other income as shown by the books of the Society have been accounted for; that we have seen paid cheques or other evidence of payment for all disbursements; that we have verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1945; that the cash in banks and office at March 31, 1945, has been verified, and that in our opinion, the accompanying financial statements correctly exhibit the condition of the Funds in the hands of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1945, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ended at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Fourteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eight cents of the fourteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of .... Dollars.

THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD, INC.

Annual Meeting January 31, 1945

TREASURER, MR. JOHN A. DALE, 30 Mandalay Road

CLERK, MISS EUNICE BATES, 101 Princeton Street

MISSIONARY, MRS. E. D. WOODBURY, 87 Buckingham Street

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT, CLIFTON P. HOWARD, 18 Davidson Road

VICE PRESIDENT, REV. WALTER A. MORGAN, 5 Chestnut Street

RECORDING SECRETARY, REV. HOLLIS M. BARTLETT, 92 Coburn Street

TREASURER, MR. EBENEZER G. SEAL, 81 Beaconsfield Road

AUDITOR, MR. HENRY W. BUTTERFIELD, 382 May Street

Aids churches financially, promotes cooperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Aided Church Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.", pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, installations, dismissals, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name. Stars before the names of churches indicate the payment of the allotment dues for the year reported.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1945. Admissions and removals cover the year 1944. "Absent" members, by vote of the Conference, are not recorded in the Massachusetts statistics. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1945, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors recognized by a council called for that purpose are marked "r"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; " §", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report"; but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

REPRESENTATIVE LAYMEN

A new foundation for successful laymen's work in Massachusetts is being laid this year in the development of a group of Representative Laymen, elected by the churches, to serve as connecting links between laymen in the churches and the laymen's work going on in the name of the State Conference. These men are expected to attend the annual meeting of the Conference or the part of it which is planned especially for laymen. They should be ready also to support laymen's activities sponsored from time time by their Associations. They are asked to report meetings and projects of special significance carried on by their local group to the Reporter and to keep their local laymen's group informed concerning the purposes and activities of the wider laymen's fellowship.

The following laymen have already been elected to serve as Representative Laymen for their churches. Additional names to be added to this list should be sent to the Conference office.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

*Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

‡Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

†Ordained, but not yet a member of an Association.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE: — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

HOLYOKE, MAY 14-15

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

Officers. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation

....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

THE SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IN HOLYOKE

MAY 14 - 15, 1946

THE BECKLER PRESS, INC.
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to the following percentages:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council for Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference and the General Council a sum equivalent to fourteen cents for each member, based upon the total memberhip of January 1, 1946, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Secretary.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President. assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a coöperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.
2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.
3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.
4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

BY-LAWS

Of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Organization

Article I — Name: The name of this organization shall be the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

Article II — Purpose (or Objectives):

The objectives of this organization shall be:

1. To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God.
2. To promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to cooperate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects.
3. To encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially in the smaller ones.
4. To rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

Article III — Membership:

Section 1 — The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of thirty-one members — one from each of the Associations in the State and ten members- at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the name of one member from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization,* and the names of ten members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's

Council. Should an Association fail to name a candidate, the nomination for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council.

Article IV — Officers:

The officers of this organization shall be a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. These officers shall perform the duties usually attached to their offices and, with the Chairmen of standing committees, shall constitute an Executive Committee which shall function under the direction of, and report to, the Council. The Chairman of the Council shall act as Chairman of the Executive Committee.

Article V — Election of Officers:

The Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall be nominated by the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council and elected at the annual meeting of the State Conference.

The other officers and committee members shall be elected annually by ballot, by the Council at its first meeting of the new Conference year.

Article VI — Meetings:

Section 1. — The annual meeting of the Council shall be held concurrently with the annual meeting of the State Conference, or within thirty days thereafter. Other meetings may be held during the year, as the Council or Executive Committee decides.

Section 2 — Laymen's conferences, retreats, and other meetings for men shall be held as decided by the Council or its Executive Committee.

Article VII — Committees:

Standing or temporary committees shall be appointed by the Executive Committee, the standing committees to include: Program; Church Membership; Church Finance; Social Relations; Publicity; Association and Church Contacts; and Missionary.

Article VIII — Finances:

The operating expenses of the organization shall be financed by an adequate appropriation in the State Conference budget together with such other income as may be secured by the Council. An annual budget shall be prepared by the Executive Committee and submitted to the Budget Committee of the State Conference Trustees.

Article IX — Amendments:

These by-laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Council by a two-thirds vote of those present provided notice of the proposed amendment is given in the call for the meeting.

* It is suggested that the Representative Laymen of the churches in each Association form the nucleus of its Laymen's Organization (to be known as the Association Laymen's Council or an equivalent group).

REPRESENTATIVE LAYMEN

The churches listed below by Associations have elected the laymen indicated to serve as their Representative Laymen. They are expected to help establish cooperative relationships between the laymen of their churches and the program of laymen's work and fellowship to be developed in the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council and the laymen's groups in the several Associations.

MINUTES OF THE
147th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 14–15, 1946

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, HOLYOKE, MASSACHUSETTS

TUESDAY, May 14, 10:00 A.M.

The 147th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was declared in session by the Moderator, Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan of Gardner.

Devotions were led by the Conference Chaplain, Rev. Bertram B. Hanscom of Worcester.

Reports of the Executive Staff and committees, as printed in the Advance Reports, were accepted.

Mr. Robert F. Metcalf, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, read his report and it was accepted.

The Moderator appointed the following committees:

Business — Rev. James W. Lenhart, Lexington, Chairman; Rev. Warren C, Campbell, Greenfield; Rev. Ferdinand J. Loungway, Boston; Mr. Robert H. Marshall, Holyoke; Rev. John H. Miller, Springfield; Mrs. Walter F. Rutter. Wakefield.

Credentials — Rev. Robbins E. Ralph, Northampton, Chairman; Mr. William F. Farley, Wellesley; Rev. Elliott O. Foster, Taunton; Mrs. Earl W. Taylor, Belmont; Rev. James B. Yee, Southampton.

On motion of Rev. Charles C. Merrill, the following resolutions of the Committee of Twenty-Five on the proposed merger with the Evangelical and Reformed Church were adopted:

That the Committee of Twenty-Five be continued for another year, to be appointed by the Board of Trustees this year, as last;

That the Committee of Twenty-Five so continued shall represent the churches of Massachusetts in further discussion of the merger, both within and without the state, shall make report to the churches from time to time with regard to progress that is being made in the negotiations, and in cooperation with the proper committees of the General Council assist in guiding the churches toward Christian consummation of this proposal for union as a step toward the ultimate union of the Protestant churches of the United States.

On recommendation of the Committee on Pastoral Placement, it was voted that the name of the committee be changed to the Committee on Pastoral Relations.

Mr. Arthur W. Davis gave his report as Treasurer and also reported for the Congregational Fund. These reports were accepted and placed on file.

Rev. Albert J. Penner, pastor of the host church, welcomed the Conference to Holyoke and gave a challenging address on "The Task Before Us."

On behalf of the Business Committee, Rev. James W. Lenhart introduced the following resolutions, all of which were adopted: —

The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council:

The laymen and ministers present at the Laymen's Meeting last night voted unanimous approval of the proposed organization for a Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council, substantially as outlined in the April issue of the Reporter. After careful and thorough consideration, it was unanimously voted to refer this matter to the business session of this Annual Meeting; therefore, we recommend that the Conference accept the reorganization plan as recommended and recognize the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council, when established, as an integral part of the Conference.

The Unit Plan:

Since our churches have undertaken responsibility for upholding the Original Plan Annuities for approximately 1200 of our older ministers or their widows and have met this responsibility successfully in recent years through the promotion of the Unit Plan, and since gifts to the Unit Plan to April 30, 1946, indicate a recession in the support of this worthy cause to date this year, we urge churches and individual Unit Plan givers to respond generously for the balance of the year to the appeal of the Unit Plan.

The Food Situation:

WHEREAS 400 million men, women and children of Greece, China, Italy, Austria, Poland, Germany, India and Japan are reduced to a diet insufficient to sustain life, and the peoples of France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Spain, Yugoslavia, the Ukraine and Burma do not have sufficient food to maintain health and efficiency, and

WHEREAS the people of America consume more food per capita than ever before in their history, far exceeding the caloric content necessary to health and vigor, while most of the liberated peoples of the world are reduced to a food consumption less than that which they were allowed under Hitler's domination, and

WHEREAS our religion makes service and sacrifice central, as illustrated in the parable of the Good Samaritan with its final instruction, "Go, and do thou likewise," and by other sayings, such as, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me," and "If thine enemy hunger, feed him," it is clear that Christians have an imperative to meet the world's physical need,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT the Congregational Christian churches of Massachusetts call upon their people to reduce their consumption of food to the lowest level consistent with health and efficiency, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: THAT each household be urged to contribute food or money for the purchase of food through the National Food Collection now in operation and through the relief organizations of our Christian churches, and

BE IT STILL FURTHER RESOLVED: THAT the Congregational Christian churches of Massachusetts urgently request the President of the United States and the members of Congress to use immediately every practical and possible means, at whatever sacrifice, to secure and to facilitate the delivery of the necessary foodstuffs to save the lives of the starving millions of the world; and to this end we pledge our unfailing cooperation.

Liquor Evils and Temperance Education:

In view of the growing menace of liquor in our commonwealth and nation, with an annual liquor bill of 7 billions of dollars, with a majority of our citizens of adult age becoming habitual drinkers, with 3 millions already drinking to excess, and 700,000 helpless, problem drinkers, it is incumbent upon churchmen everywhere to take cognizance of this primary social evil and to become active in well considered programs calculated to preserve the sanity and sobriety of the nation.

Since liquor advertising has now become one of the major national economic enterprises, being prominently displayed in most of our daily papers and popular periodicals; our radios frequently during the day tell us it is time to imbibe some favorite brand of ale or beer; our motion pictures reek with liquor sanctions and drinking episodes; our popular fiction is equally suborned to the promotion of this evil.

And since there prevails among even church people an attitude of passive acceptance and helplessness, if not of outright endorsement of drinking of a so-called decorous nature, the time has come for our educational leaders, the pulpit and church organizations to launch a new offensive against this evil.

WHEREAS our annual national liquor bill exceeds seven billions of dollars, involving alarming habitual drinking, some three millions of people drinking to excess, and 700,000 confirmed alcoholics, together with full publicity of a prejudiced character in press, radio and motion pictures; and

WHEREAS even our church people seem to endorse these conditions by accepting them passively and condoning moderate drinking;

BE IT RESOLVED: That this Conference state its clear opposition to the drinking of intoxicating liquors; that we enjoin the Educational Department of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to enforce the statutes requiring education in the public schools relative to the harmful effects of alcoholic consumption; that we commend such periodicals as the Christian Science Monitor and the Saturday Evening Post, as well as such radio stations which decline all liquor advertising; that we heartily protest against all forms of propaganda conducive to drinking appearing in the public print, radio and motion pictures: and, further, that we strongly endorse the studies being made and the materials being provided toward the development of personal temperance and a sensitive conscience in this field, particularly with respect to our Christian people in America.

A request was made from the floor for discussion of the recommendation of the Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life concerning the employment of a full-time Secretary of Evangelism. Dr. Timberlake stated that the recommendation was addressed to the Associations and not to the Conference.

It was voted to request the Business Committee to arrange a hearing on this matter and bring in a resolution at a later session. Mr. Lenhart appointed 4:00 P.M. as the hour for this hearing.

The session adjourned with prayer and benediction by the Chaplain.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The session opened with a hymn and prayer, led by Chaplain Hanscom.

The Business Committee introduced the following resolution:

Message of Sympathy to Rev. Chauncey A. Adams:

It is with heartfelt sympathy that this Conference takes note of the sudden death of Mrs. Chauncey A. Adams, wife of the Rev. Chauncey A. Adams, State Minister of the Vermont Congregational Conference. Coming as it does on the occasion of the Rev. Mr. Adams' own hospitalization, it both emphasizes and evokes our pastoral and fraternal solicitude.

Inclined by Christian faith and moved by Christian feeling, we would affirm with Mr. Adams the "tie that binds in Christian love," and invoke for him the sustaining power of "one who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think even through the power of His spirit that worketh in us." We would commend to him the strong support of our mutual faith with its blessed assurance of eternal life and join it with the expression of our prayers that there may be vouchsafed to him the ever present knowledge of God's love and never failing care.

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT this memorial be recorded in our minutes and a copy conveying our action transmitted to Dr. Adams.

Presenting the three-year anniversary plan and objectives, Rev. Harold G. Jones of Worcester led a panel discussion, assisted by the following persons: Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Rev. John L. Lobingier, Rev. George A. Tuttle, Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl, Mr. Clarence C. Beasley, Rev. Eugene M. Bushong, Mrs. Fred B. Dole, Rev. C. Stanley Knott, Rev. Paul B. Myers.

For the Business Committee, Mr. Lenhart presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Conference Anniversary

WHEREAS the Panel Discussion concerning the 150th Anniversary has explored most carefully and thoroughly the desirable goals and the important needs of the churches of our order and in the light of these have offered tentative plans for the future,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: THAT we approve in principle these plans and suggest that they be referred to the Board of Trustees of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society for their serious consideration and action.

It was voted that the hearing on the employment of a Secretary of Evangelism be postponed to 4:30 P.M.

The Conference divided for the following seminars: EVANGELISM AND THE CHURCH TODAY, Rev. George A. Fallon, Worcester; THE CONSERVATION AND SHARING OF FOOD, Rev. James C. Flint, New York; NEW APPROACHES TO STEWARDSHIP, Rev. D. Brewer Eddy, Boston; A NEW STRATEGY FOR PROTESTANISM, Rev. Frank Jennings, Boston; PUBLIC RELATIONS AND PUBLICITY, Rev. Frank E. Dunn; THE TEACHING OF RELIGION AND THE STATE, Prof. J. Paul Williams, South Hadley.

The motion picture, "We Bear Witness," was presented at 5:00 o'clock.

The afternoon session was closed with a hymn and prayer, led by the Chaplain.

The Fellowship Dinner was held in the Roger Smith Hotel, with an address on "Our Churches and World Needs," by Rev. James C. Flint, Director of the Congregational Christian Service Committee. Three hundred and fifty-five were present.

TUESDAY EVENING

The Service of Worship was led by the Chaplain, with anthems by the choir of the Second Church.

Rev. Robert Wood Coe of Brookline spoke on the work of the Board of Ministerial Aid, and an offering was received amounting to $262.81.

Rev. Henry Smith Leiper, Executive Secretary of the American Committee of the World Council of Churches, spoke on "The Church and World Community."

The session closed with prayer by the Chaplain.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

A Communion Service was held in the Skinner Memorial Chapel at 8:15 A.M., conducted by Rev. Ronald J. Tamblyn, First Church, Holyoke, with an organ prelude by Dr. William Churchill Hammond, organist of the Second Church, Holyoke.

At 9:00 o'clock the Chaplain led the Devotional Service.

The Moderator appointed as tellers Rev. Howard P. Bozarth, Rev. Leonard W. Fowler, Rev. Harry Grimes, Rev. C. Stanley Knott, Rev. S. Burman Long, Rev. Howard E. Pomeroy.

Mr. Lenhart introduced the following resolutions for the Business Committee, all of which were adopted:

Massachusetts Delegates to General Council:

THAT the Conference approve the method of nomination and election of Massachusetts delegates-at-large to the General Council as recommended by the Board of Trustees, namely,

THAT it be recommended to the Nominating Committee that the state delegates to the General Council represent officials of the Conference, leaders in the several departments and committees, as well as in the Associations, and that this schedule be followed as closely as possible: 12 from the Board of Trustees and the several committees; 9 from the Conference committees; 4 from the Pilgrim Fellowship; 3 from the Staff; 8 from Association leaders.

Department of the Ministry:

The keystone of the whole structure of our Congregational Church Fellowship rests upon the character, training and proper placement of its pastoral leadership. We, therefore, heartily endorse the action of our General Council at its last meeting in creating the Department of the Ministry. Believing that this Department should have the support of the entire Fellowship of the Church, we urge the General Council at its coming meeting in Grinnell to take such steps as will provide the Department of the Ministry with an adequate personnel and budget to carry out the purposes for which the Department was established.

Representative at the Vatican:

WHEREAS our United States of America is constituted on the principles of religious freedom and the separation of the Church and State, implying equal and non-preferential treatment of churches by the State, and

WHEREAS by their importance the policies to establish world order require the considered counsel of men of all faiths,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT the Conference affirm that the appointment of Mr. Myron C. Taylor to the Vatican as the personal representative of the President, with the status of ambassador, should be revoked and public monies no longer be expended for the support of an American legation at the Vatican in Rome. Finally, we hold this to be not necessarily a Catholic-Protestant issue, but one in which the freedom and sensibilities of all Christians and citizens are concerned. Preferential and deferential treatment of a specific church must be stopped.

The United Nations:

WHEREAS the great majority of the nations of the world have joined together under the United Nations charter "to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war," —

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT the Congregational Christian churches of Massachusetts (1) affirm their faith in the United Nations, as organized under the Charter, as a practical first step in the direction of true international amity and cooperation in the cause of justice and peace; (2) call upon their people to use their influence to increase our country's loyalty to the United Nations both in practice and in principle; and (3) to strive increasingly to perfect the United Nations as a democratic instrument for international concord until it becomes truly "the Parliament of Man, the Federation of the world."

Secretary of Evangelism:

RESOLVED: THAT the matter of the appointment of a Secretary of Evangelism be referred to the Board of Trustees of the Conference, that they study it thoroughly in the light of all the needs of the total Anniversary program of the Conference. considering whether or not such a project should be financed with money which would come from the Postwar Emeregency funds designated for Massachusetts, and bring in a report at the next Annual Meeting of the Conference.

Rev. Edward U. Cowles, Secretary of the Nominating Committee, reported for that committee. After discussion of the duplication of names in the report, a motion was made that the report be referred back to the Nominating Committee for reconsideration. This motion did not prevail. It was then voted to accept the report as presented.

It was voted that the Conference proceed to the election and that vacancies be referred to the Board of Trustees of the Conference.

The tellers reported the Conference had elected the officers, the Executive Staff and Trustees as listed on the ballot. Their names are recorded on pages 13 to 15 of these Minutes and Reports.

The Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for committees and delegates to the General Council. This being done, the persons nominated were declared elected. The committees are recorded on pages 17 to 19.

At this point, Mrs. Dole, President of the Department of Woman's Work, conducted the election of officers for that department.

Resuming business, the Conference adopted the following resolutions introduced by the Business Committee:

Juvenile Delinquency:

In view of the growing incidence of juvenile delinquency in our time and its overtones of tragedy in personal and social life,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT the Conference request the Massachusetts Council of Churches to do its utmost to provide chaplaincy service to juvenile delinquents in the charge of constituted authority and not already so served.

FURTHER, That we ask the 1946 General Council to consider the desirability of making a similar request of the Federal Council to serve the country more generally.

FURTHER, That this resolution be interpreted as expressing our desire to support such work to the extent of our ability and in the proportion of our responsibility.

Atomic Energy:

The atomic catastrophe which ended the most destructive war of all time ushered in a most determining moment in human history. In the atomic age there are only two contestants. The race will be between Christ's spirit and chaos — between His principles of decency, justice, brotherhood and those of catastrophe. Never again will sheer physical power protect us; only the mutual respect, understanding and good will of the peoples of the world and the mercy of God. Brotherhood, not bombs, is the last best hope of the earth.

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT we in humility acknowledge that only Christ's spirit of decency, justice, mercy and brotherhood can make men morally capable of living in the atomic age and redouble our efforts to build a spiritual world community.

THAT we confess in penitence that our nation, to which the release of Nuclear Energy was first given and by which it was first used, stands under the moral judgment of God to turn it to "good account, rather than ill," thereby bringing to the world divine favor rather than man-made destruction.

(a) by stopping "all manufacture of atomic bombs — pending development of effective international controls."

(b) "and affirm publicly with suitable guarantees that it will under no circumstances be the first to use atomic weapons in any possible war."

THAT we not only commend, but join forces with American scientists in urging civilian control of Nuclear Energy, acknowledging in humility that our one good ground of hope is that, powerful as atomic energy is to destroy civilization, more powerful by God's grace is it to bless human life, if it is controlled by men and women who themselves are controlled by the good will of Christ.

It was voted that the resolutions in regard to the ambassador to the Vatican and Atomic Energy be referred to the proper authorities.

Rev. Ray Gibbons, Director of the Council for Social Action, gave an address on "Christian Social Action in Our Time."

The session closed with prayer by the Chaplain.

At a luncheon meeting in the interest of Social Action, Rev. Ray Gibbons led a discussion of this subject.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The session opened at 2:00 o'clock, with prayer by the Chaplain.

Mr. Lenhart, for the Business Committee, introduced the following resolutions, all of which were adopted:

Invitation for the 1947 Annual Meeting:

In response to an invitation from Union Church, Boston, to hold the 1947 Annual Meeting of the State Conference in connection with the church's 125th Anniversary, the Business Committee moves acceptance of this invitation for referral to the Program Committee and the Trustees for their consideration in planning the program and place of meeting for the next Annual Meeting.

On Election of Members for the Council for Social Action:

The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, in meeting assembled, on May 15, 1946, request the General Council at its meeting in June, 1946, to consider and act upon the petition of the Council for Social Action for such changes in the by-laws of the General Council as would provide for the nomination of members of the Council for Social Action by the Nominating Committee of the General Council, the election of members by the General Council and the establishment of a corporate body of not more than two hundred members who shall be members of the General Council with the privileges of voting on all questions and matters brought to the General Council by the Council for Social Action.

Homeless Children:

WHEREAS the Superintendent of the Massachusetts Department of Welfare has again reminded the public that upwards of 1200 children in our commonwealth are being housed in temporary situations,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT we appeal to our church people to make every effort to provide homes for as many as possible of these children.

Race and Group Tensions:

In view of the increasing tensions between social and religious groups and their detrimental effect upon the peace and unity of American communities, this Conference urges:

1. That we recognize the roots of racial prejudice in ourselves and our tendency to submit to psychological pressures of scapegoatism.

2. A new emphasis by our churches on the education of children, young people and adults toward a true and full appreciation of all cultures and religions in our society and their place in our human family under God.

3. Active participation by church groups in efforts and programs to ameliorate these tensions.

4. A palpably sincere and genuine attitude of invitation and welcome to our churches and neighborhoods of such individuals of other races as may care to be with us.

Contacts with Legislators:

WHEREAS United States policies involving world peace and order are strongly subject to pressures of public opinion,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT this Conference urge its churches and their members to acquaint their political representatives with the substance of their own convictions and concerns on matters of public import and national and world affairs.

On Length of Service:

We have in attendance as delegates two deacons who are both past the age of eighty-five. They are Stephen D. Bartlett and E. Milton Stacy, both of Groveland. Mr. Stacy has served the Groveland church as deacon for fifty-seven years. We extend our felicitations and brotherly affection to these two men who have served so well in our churches throughout the years.

We greet also with affection and highest esteem Prof. William Churchill Hammond, who has served the Second Congregational Church of Holyoke as organist and Minister of Music for sixty-two years.

Annual Meeting Hospitality:

The delegates and attendants at the 147th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society wish to express their deepest appreciation of the outstanding hospitality extended to them by the Second Congregational Church of Holyoke, its pastor, the Rev. Albert J. Penner, his able office assistants, and the women of his church who anticipated and met every need with thoughtful courtesy; and likewise by the First Congregational Church and Grace Church in Holyoke for their cooperation in serving so bountifully and attractively the women's and laymen's dinners; also the Second Baptist, the First Methodist and the First Presbyterian Churches for opening their churches to accommodate the delegates with luncheon. We marvel at the extraordinary efficiency manifested by our hosts in this time of acute housing and food shortage. The Holyoke Transcript-Telegram and the newspapers of Springfield are to be commended on the complete and well presented publicity of our meetings.

Rev. Robbins Ralph for the Credentials Committee reported the number of persons registered. The final report appears at the end of these Minutes.

President Timberlake reported the names of ministers actively serving our churches who had died during the year and led the Conference in a memorial prayer.

The Nominating Committee requested that Scribes of Associations send suggestions for membership on the various Conference committees next year.

The following motion was introduced by the Business Committee and carried:

At the end of the Worship Service this afternoon, the 147th Annual Meeting of the Conference will stand adjourned.

The Conference extended its thanks to Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan, Moderator, "for the efficient way in which he has conducted the meetings and the wise and kindly way he has guided us throughout the sessions."

The Service of Worship was led by Chaplain Hanscom.

Rev. Carl Heath Kopf of the Mt. Vernon Church, Boston, gave the Conference Sermon on the subject, "Will a Man Rob God."

The Conference adjourned at 4:00 P.M.

THE REVEREND RALPH M. TIMBERLAKE, D.D., President,
MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND
MISSIONARY SOCIETY,
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

Sir:

We have audited the accounts of the Treasurer of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ended March 31, 1946, and in relation thereto have examined or tested accounting records of the Society and other supporting evidence, by methods and to the extent we deemed appropriate.

We verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1946, and the cash in banks and office at that date.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the financial condition of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1946, and the Treasurer's transactions during the year ended at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Fourteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eight cents of the fourteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and six cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the six cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of

.... Dollars.

Aids churches financially, promotes cooperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Aided Church Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.", pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name. Stars before the names of churches indicate the payment of the allotment dues for the year reported.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1946. Admissions and removals cover the year 1945. In checking the printer's proof of the statistical tables, errors were found in the computation of "Total Members Admitted, as published in Advance Reports." The corrected total is given in the table following. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1946, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; "§", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report", but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary. An "x" indicates that repairs were made on church property during the year.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

*Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

‡Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

†Ordained, but not yet a member of an Association.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE: — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

BOSTON, MAY 13-14

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL AID

Officers. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Frederick A. Gaskins, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation ....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

THE UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IN BOSTON

MAY 13 - 14, 1947

THE BECKLER PRESS, INC.
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to the following percentages:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council for Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference and the General Council a sum equivalent to nineteen cents for each member, based upon the total memberhip of January 1, 1947, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Secretary.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Each evangelical Congregational church in this Commonwealth or Christian church that is a member of a Congregational-Christian Association of churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio) the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; it is provided, however, that pastors of churches to qualify for the voting privilege shall be Congregational or Christian ministers having membership in Congregational or Congregational-Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council ex-officiis, and the Moderator ex-officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President. assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department.

This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officio as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on Polity and Standards for the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a coöperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.
2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.
3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.
4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II, III and IV, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II, III and IV may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

BY-LAWS

Of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Organization

Article I — Name: The name of this organization shall be the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council.

Article II — Purpose (or Objectives):

The objectives of this organization shall be:

1. To inspire higher conceptions of Christian citizenship for the development of democratic society and the world-wide Kingdom of God.
2. To promote a richer fellowship of Congregational laymen through conferences, retreats, and other meetings and to cooperate with laymen of other denominations in significant Christian projects.
3. To encourage organized laymen's groups and classes in all our churches, especially in the smaller ones.
4. To rally more men to the support of the church and to train men in worship and leadership in their church and community life.

ARTICLE III — Membership:

SECTION 1 — The Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council shall consist of thirty-one members — one from each of the Associations in the State and ten members- at-large, who shall be elected annually by the State Conference. The Conference Nominating Committee shall receive the name of one member from each Association — or its Laymen's Organization,* and the names of ten members-at-large from the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council. Should an Association fail to name a candidate, the nomination for that Association shall be made by the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Council.

ARTICLE IV — Officers:

The officers of this organization shall be a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. These officers shall perform the duties usually attached to their offices and, with the Chairmen of standing committees, shall constitute an Executive Committee which shall function under the direction of, and report to, the Council. The Chairman of the Council shall act as Chairman of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V — Election of Officers:

A Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer shall be nominated by the Massachusetts Laymen's Council and elected at the Annual Meeting of the State Conference by ballot, such officers to serve until the next Annual Meeting of the State Conference or until their successors are elected and qualify.

No officer who has served for three consecutive terms shall be eligible for re-election until the lapse of one year.

ARTICLE VI — Meetings:

SECTION 1. — The annual meeting of the Council shall be held concurrently with the annual meeting of the State Conference, or within thirty days thereafter. Other meetings may be held during the year, as the Council or Executive Committee decides.

SECTION 2 — Laymen's conferences, retreats, and other meetings for men shall be held as decided by the Council or its Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII — Committees:

Members of standing committees shall be nominated by the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council and shall be elected annually by the Council at its first meeting of the new year. The standing committees shall include the following: Program; Churchmanship and Counseling; Finance; Social Relations; Public Relations; Association and Church Contacts; and Missionary. Temporary committees may be appointed by the Executive Council.

ARTICLE VIII — Finances:

The operating expenses of the organization shall be financed by an adequate appropriation in the State Conference budget together with such other income as may be secured by the Council. An annual budget shall be prepared by the Executive Committee and submitted to the Budget Committee of the State Conference Trustees.

ARTICLE IX — Amendments:

These by-laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Council by a two-thirds vote of those present provided notice of the proposed amendment is given in the call for the meeting.

* It is suggested that the Representative Laymen of the churches in each Association form the nucleus of its Laymen's Organization (to be known as the Association Laymen's Council or an equivalent group).

REPRESENTATIVE LAYMEN BY ASSOCIATIONS

The churches listed below by Associations have elected the laymen indicated to serve as their Representative Laymen. They are expected to help establish cooperative relationships between the laymen of their churches and the program of laymen's work and fellowship to be developed in the name of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council and the laymen's groups in the several Associations.

MINUTES OF THE
148th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 13–14, 1947

UNION CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

TUESDAY, May 13, 9:45 A.M.

The 148th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society was called to order by the Moderator, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, at 9:45 A.M., on Tuesday, May 13th, in the Union Congregational Church, Boston.

Rev. Franklin D. Loehr of Florence Church, Northampton, served as Chaplain and opened the meeting with prayer.

A cordial welcome was extended by the host pastor, Rev. Ferdinand J. Loungway, and the Moderator responded.

The Conference was organized by the appointment of the following committees:

Business — Rev. Vernon A. Loescher, Chairman; Rev. Howard P. Bozarth, Rev. Francis L. Cooper, Rev. John R. deSousa, Mrs. Franklin G. Field, Mrs. G. C. Purrington, Dr. E. St. John Ward.

Credentials — Rev. Floyd L. Roberts, Chairman; Mr. Alvin Barrus, Mrs. Victor B. Chicoine, Rev. Leonard W. Fowler.

Reports of the Executive Staff and committees, as printed in the Advance Reports, were presented and accepted for filing.

Treasurer Arthur W. Davis presented his report, which was accepted and placed on file. Mr. Davis also explained the workings of the Massachusetts Congregational Fund.

A vote of gratitude was expressed to Mr. Davis and his assistant, Miss Pauline Cutler, for their excellent work in connection with the Fund.

Rev. Henry Francis Smith, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, presented his report and it was accepted to be placed on file.

The following members of the Staff were introduced by the Moderator: Rev. Frederick Harlan Page, President Emeritus of the Conference, Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, President, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary, Rev. John L. Lobingier, Secretary of Religious Education, Rev. Kenneth D. Beckwith, Western Field Secretary, and Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl, Secretary of Woman's Work.

Rev. Frank Jennings, Secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, was also presented.

At 10:45 the Conference listened to an address on "Making Many Books," by Rev. George M. Gibson, General Secretary of the Pilgrim Press.

At 11:30 the Chairman of the Business Committee, Rev. Vernon A. Loescher, presented the following resolutions on behalf of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare. All were adopted by the delegates.

Displaced Persons:

As Christians we recognize the great need of the nearly 1,000,000 displaced persons in the Detention Camps of Europe. We understand that about 80 per cent of these people are Christians, that 50 per cent are women and children and that 150,000 are under 17 years of age. As only 15 per cent of our immigration quotas were filled during the period from 1940 to 1946, the 400,000 suggested as this country's share in caring for these people seems to us acceptable, in the light of the fact that 914,752 did not enter during the 1940–1946 period,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: THAT we approve an adjustment in the national immigration quota to permit as our fair share, 400,000 of the nearly 1,000,000 displaced persons in the Detention Camps of Europe to enter the United States.

Mothers' Health:

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT we here assembled as delegates to the Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society express our agreement with the stand taken by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America and by other Christian bodies that parents have the right to receive, and the medicalprofession the right to give to married couples, information helpful to them in having children under conditions which promise the best for the health of mothers and their children.

Race Relations:

WHEREAS our General Council, through its Committee on Race, has called upon our churches to do everything possible to help to break down the patterns of racial segregation in the United States, and

WHEREAS recent conferences and studies of the constituencies of our churches in Massachusetts have revealed the large extent to which many of our churches already include representatives of various cultural and racial groups in their membership,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: THAT this Conference express its special appreciation for what our churches have done in the interest of cultural integration and urge greater dedication on the part of all our people to the task of overcoming class and race discrimination and to the development of an unsegregated church in an unsegregated society.

Council of Churches:

RESOLVED: THAT we commend the Massachusetts Council of Churches for its leadership in enlarging the areas of Protestant cooperation in Massachusetts, especially in respect to matters pertaining to the moral and social welfare of the commonwealth and we pledge to the Council of Churches our continued support for its important work.

Rev. Henry Francis Smith introduced the following amendment to the By-Laws, which was adopted:

Special Roll of Ministers:

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name on it shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless it finds that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

Mr. Smith also presented the following amendment to the By-Laws, which was accepted:

Revision of By-Laws:

In Article V, Section 3, Line 6, after the words, "ex-officiis," insert "the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council ex-officiis."

The Allotment:

The General Conference Committee of the Trustees recommended to the Annual Meeting that there be an increase of 5 cents per member for the allotment for 1948 (year ending March 31, 1948), 3 cents for the General Council and 2 cents for the Conference. This was unanimously adopted.

The session was closed with prayer and benediction by the Chaplain.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The session opened at 2:00 o'clock with devotions, led by Chaplain Loehr.

An address, "The Present Status of the Proposed Merger," was given by Rev. Fred S. Buschmeyer, pastor of the Mt. Pleasant Congregational Church, Washington, D. S., and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the General Council.

At 3:15 the Conference reconvened for business and Mr. Smith introduced for the Trustees the following proposal for handling the vote upon the proposed union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church:

(1) The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society accepts the responsibility of securing from the churches of Massachusetts a vote upon the proposed union of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church on or before April 1, 1948, as requested by the Executive Committee of the General Council.

(2) In order to meet this responsibility for the State as a whole, the Committee of Twenty-Five is continued with such changes in personnel as may be deemed best by the President of the Conference.

(3) In order most effectively to bring the request for a vote pro or con upon the proposed union to the definite and immediate attention of the churches, so that they will vote on or before April 1, 1948, each Association is asked to set up a strong committee to reach the churches within its bounds, of which the representative of the Association on the Committee of Twenty-Five may properly be a member.

This proposal was adopted.

Apportionment for the Conference:

For the Business Committee, Mr. Loescher moved that the apportionment receipts of the Conference shall be 15 per cent of the total budgeted apportionment instead of 15 per cent of the net amount after the deduction of specific gifts.

It was unanimously voted that this matter be referred to the Trustees with power to act.

A motion from the floor that a committee, to be composed chiefly of laymen, be appointed to revise the financial system of the Conference relative to benevolences, was referred to the Business Committee.

The following resolutions were introduced by the Business Committee, on behalf of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, and were adopted:

Separation of Church and State:

We, the delegates attending the 148th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, hereby record ourselves as affirming our adherence to the American principle of separation of church and state and to the principle that public funds should not be used for sectarian religious purposes.

We believe it is the duty of the state to provide adequate education for all that a complete, democratic educational system should provide — free education for all from kindergarten to professional training — that it is not democratic for the state to support by public funds or public services any educational system over which the state does not have control.

We are, therefore, opposed to Massachusetts House Bill S2499, the purpose of which is to grant aid to parochial and other sectarian schools and we oppose as undemocratic the encroachment of privately controlled schools upon the public treasury for funds or services.

Constitutional Amendment:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled:

RESOLVED: THAT we, the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, do hereby endorse the proposed Constitutional amendment to prohibit sectarian appropriations, introduced in Congress at the request of the League Opposed to Sectarian Appropriations, and urge its immediate passage. The proposed amendment is as follows:

Section 1. Neither the Congress nor any of the several States, nor any political division or subdivision thereof, shall grant or appropriate money, property, or credit to aid or support any institution wholly or in part under sectarian control.

Section 2. Neither the Congress nor any of the several States nor any political division or sub-division thereof, shall furnish free transportation or free textbooks or other educational supplies to, or pay any part of the educational expense of, any person attending an educational institution wholly or in part under sectarian control.

Section 3. This article shall in no way curtail educational benefits heretofore or hereafter granted to veterans or to veterans' dependents.

Temperance and Liquor Control:

WHEREAS excessive consumption of liquor has become a major moral, social and economic problem in America, due in considerable part to increased drinking in our so-called "best homes", which set the patterns of etiquette emulated by society at large,

BE IT RESOLVED:

1. THAT the Conference record itself as urging the practice of total abstinence as the ideal for all Christian citizens;
2. THAT the Conference call on individual members of our churches to register their personal objections to liquor advertising on the radio, in magazines, and elsewhere;
3. THAT the Conference commend the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare for its educational work, aiming to create an enlightened and effective conscience pertinent to the use of liquor in all its phases.

Gambling:

RESOLVED: THAT the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society go on record as being definitely opposed to gambling and lotteries in all forms and especially as they relate to dog and horse racing, and that we favor the Massachusetts House Bill 1133, which provides for a public referendum in each community on site approval for race tracks.

Laymen's Council:

On petition of P. S. Crowell, William W. Ollendorff and Fred W. Clarriage, of the Middlesex-Mendon Association, the following resolutions were introduced:

THAT the so-called Laymen's Council, in cooperation with the Trustees of the Massachusetts State Conference, organize into the Massachusetts Congregational Association of Laymen, with a membership fee of one dollar per year to cover the cost of subscription to the Pilgrim State News and the expenses of carrying on the work of the Association.

THAT the "Reporter" be merged with the Pilgrim State News.

THAT a full-time leader be engaged for two years to set up a program to make more effective the work of laymen in the local churches.

THAT the Laymen's Association meet with the State Conference at its Annual Meeting and have an active part in the business of the Conference.

On motion of the Business Committee, this was referred to the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council for further study and action.

At 4:30, Rev. Ralph D. Hyslop, Minister to Students of the Congregational Christian Churches, spoke on "Student Perspectives."

The session was adjourned with hymn and benediction.

At 5:45 there was a Fellowship Supper in Brown Hall, New England Conservatory of Music, following which there was recognition of Massachusetts Congregational ministers ordained fifty years, with greetings by Ralph M. Timberlake, President of the Conference, and response by Rev. Charles M. Crooks of Lexington.

Presenting the young people's work, Miss Shirley Blood, President of Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship, spoke on "Congregational Youth in Massachusetts." Mr. James Proudfoot of Edinburgh, Scotland, gave an address on the subject, "In Scotland and the U. S. A."

Rev. William Wimer, of the Congregational Christian Student Fellowship, spoke concerning student work.

TUESDAY EVENING

At 8:00 o'clock a Service of Worship was conducted by the Chaplain, with a musical program by the choirs of Union and St. Mark Churches.

Rev. Robert Wood Coe presented the work of the Board of Ministerial Aid, and an offering was taken for this purpose, amounting to $258.64.

Rev. John Newsham, minister of Morningside Congregational Church, Scotland, spoke on Congregationalism in Scotland and Dr. Rajah Bhushanan Manikam, Secretary of the National Christian Council of India, spoke on conditions in that country.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

At 8:15 a Communion Service was conducted by Rev. Charles C. Keith, Eliot Church, Roxbury, and Rev. Ferdinand J. Loungway, Union Church. This included a communion sermon by Dr. Keith.

At 9:30 a business session was held, at which the Chairman of the Board of Trustees introduced the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

New England Regional Meeting:

RESOLVED: THAT this Annual Meeting enthusiastically endorses the holding of the New England Regional Meeting in Burlington, Vermont, September 23–25, 1947, in connection with the Annual Meeting of the American Board, and further urges the officers of each Association to select and send delegates to the same.

In view of the essential services being rendered to our churches and ministers by the Board of Pastoral Supply, we recommend that the Conference Trustees be asked to appropriate such a sum as may be agreed upon as our share of the estimated $750 needed to balance the budget of the Board for the current year.

At 9:45 Seminars were held as follows:

EVANGELISM, led by Rev. Horace G. Robson of Whitinsville

IMPROVING OUR CHURCH SCHOOLS, led by Prof. Robert J. Taylor of Boston University

MISSIONS AND THE POSTWAR EMERGENCY PROGRAM, led by Rev. Fred Field Goodsell of the American Board

RACE RELATIONS, led by Mr. John Ives of Bridgeport, Connecticut

YOUNG ADULT WORK, led by Rev. John Edward Thomas of the Massachusetts Council of Churches

STUDENT WORK, led by Rev. Ralph D. Hyslop, Minister to Students, Congregational Christian Churches

At 11:25 Dr. E. St. John Ward reported for the Nominating Committee. His report was accepted.

The Moderator appointed as tellers, Rev. Frank E. Duddy, Chairman, Rev. Charles G. Christianson, Rev. Stanley E. Anderson, Mr. Lincoln W. Barnes, Mr. Harold T. Dougherty, Rev. R. Burris Edwards and Rev. Harold S. Loud.

Nominees for committees of the Conference, as reported, were elected by acclamation. Their names are presented with the lists of committees elsewhere in this copy of the Minutes and Reports.

Ballots were distributed and officers of the Executive Staff and Trustees were elected as printed on pages 13 and 14.

The Annual Meeting of the Department of Woman's Work was then held.

Mr. Loescher, for the Business Committee, brought in the following resolutions:

Finance:

RESOLVED: THAT a committee consisting of four laymen and four ministers and the Secretary of the State Conference, be appointed by the Board of Trustees to survey the financial structure of our benevolence work with the purposes of clarification and simplification and to prepare recommendations for consideration at the next Annual Meeting of the Conference.

Race Relations — in regard to Sports:

Inasmuch as the Christian Church should concern itself with every phase of human life, BE IT RESOLVED: THAT this Conference approve the stand on non-segregation in sports taken by Commissioner Chandler, as illustrated in the case of Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers, and express such approval in writing to Commissioner Chandler.

American Policy in the Mediterranean:

Regretting the circumstances which in times past have put our country in the position of having to help bolster governments that the majority of people wanted to get rid of, in order that we might render practical aid to those peoples quickly, and believing that Communism can be most effectively kept out of any country by a stable, honest and representative government within that country,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT we support the Council for Social Action in the following statement:

1. That as American principles and policies are further developed, they provide for the utmost possible cooperation with United Nations agencies, through general review of American actions, and with observance, advice, or supervision of reconstruction policies in Greece and Turkey;
2. That the "Vanderberg amendment" be adopted, requiring the President of the United States to withdraw any part or all of the aid program in the event of adverse majority sentiment of the Security Council or the Assembly;
3. Adequate attention to the economic needs of Greece and Turkey, since a healthy economy is necessary not only for the development of free political institutions, but also for ability to resist foreign infiltration. (The Food and Agricultural Organization's report, on the needs and possibilities for Greek economic reform and reconstruction, deserves serious attention);
4. That countries receiving American aid for relief and reconstruction provide assurance of free elections and constitutional government;
5. Adequate appropriations and attention to relief as well as reconstruction needs in Greece and other impoverished countries;
6. Search for comprehensive settlement with Russia and other members of the United Nations regarding their needs and interests with respect to the Dardanelles, offering Russia the prospect of a peaceful development of her legitimate interests;
7. American provision of greater financial support for the United Nations budget, which at present is quite inadequate;
8. Earnest support of United Nations plans for European and Asiatic Economic Commissions.

Senator Capper's Bill:

RESOLVED: THAT as individual churchmen and as a Conference of united churchmen of the Congregational Churches in Massachusetts, we heartily support (and so advise our Senators and Representatives) the bill introduced by Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas to prohibit interstate advertisement of alcoholic beverages. Our registered support of this Bill shall go at once to the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee now holding hearings on this Bill.

Legislative Hearings:

WHEREAS House Bill 1906, being considered by the Massachusetts General Court, providing for the investigation of citizens appearing at legislative hearings to make sure that they represent the groups they claim to represent, actually provides for the investigation of any person or group which a legislative committee believes to be subversive; and

WHEREAS in the past such committees charged with power, have often done more harm than good by assuming the right to determine who is subversive in a way that allows investigation to degenerate into persecution,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT we go on record as opposed to House Bill 1906, and recommend in its place a simple plan requiring all witnesses at legislative hearings to present letters of certification from the organization they claim to represent.

These resolutions were adopted.

A resolution concerning the responsibility of the United States in the Near East, introduced on behalf of Professor Lane, was recommitted to the Business Committee for rewording and report at the afternoon session.

Hospitality:

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT the Conference express its sincere and deep appreciation for the hospitality extended it by the staffs and members of the Union Congregational Church and the Old South Church.

The morning session closed at 12:20 with a hymn, and prayer by the Chaplain.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The session opened with devotions by Chaplain Loehr.

Rev. John C. Walker of the Second Congregational Church, Waterbury, Connecticut, spoke on "Over the Mountains and Beyond the Seas," emphasizing the Postwar Emergency Program.

Rev. Louis C. Toppan spoke on the short course for town and country ministers to be held at Amherst.

Rev. Stanley B. Vandersall, Secretary of the Lord's Day League of New England, spoke on the work of the Society.

The Credentials Committee reported the number of churches represented and the number of ministers, delegates and guests present at this Annual Meeting and preliminary meetings.

It was VOTED: That this report be accepted, to be completed and printed in the Minutes.

The completed report is as follows:

Ministers	275
Delegates	353
Ex-Officio Delegates	46
Guests	331
Total	1,005

In the absence of the Moderator-elect, Rev. John A. Hawley of Amherst, the Vice Moderator-elect, Mr. Clarence C. Beasley of Brookline, spoke briefly.

Mr. Loescher, for the Business Committee, re-introduced the resolution on cooperation with the Near East as follows, and it was unanimously adopted:

Cooperation with the Near East:

RESOLVED: THAT we welcome action of the United States Government, recognizing its responsibility for relief in the Near East and we urge that this be done with the closest possible cooperation with the various educational agencies that have already been established by American philanthropy, and that cooperation be looked for, invited and expected from the native population; and we urge upon our churches greater support of the missionary and educational work in the Near East to help in the work of rehabilitation.

Mr. Loescher introduced also the following resolution on the Massachusetts Temperance League:

WHEREAS it has been the custom of the Conference to elect Trustees to the Massachusetts Temperance League and on occasion, to contribute to its financial support,

BE IT RESOLVED: THAT a Committee of five be appointed by the Board of Trustees for the purpose of evaluating the work of the Massachusetts Temperance League and other approaches to the problem to discover the best medium through which we may give our support to temperance education and reform and to report their findings at the next Annual Meeting of this Conference. This was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Dr. Timberlake, a rising vote of thanks was given to Moderator Thayer for his efficient and tactful services.

The Conference adjourned at 3:15, after the following prayer by the Chaplain:

> "All that we have done, all that we have said,
> we lay now before Thee, O God our Father.
> Bless that which is in accordance with Thy will.
> Chasten us in our insufficiencies, and enlighten > us, for we would grow in Thy service.
> Hold us ever in fellowship with Thee, and may we > hold fast our fellowship one with another.
> And continue to accept us, as unworthy yet earnest > workers in Thy vineyard.
> In Jesus' Name, Amen."

REVEREND RALPH M. TIMBERLAKE, D.D., President,
MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND
MISSIONARY SOCIETY,

Sir:

We have examined the accounts of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ended March 31, 1947, and in relation thereto have examined or tested accounting records of the Society and other supporting evidence, by methods and to the extent we deemed appropriate.

We verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1947, and the cash in banks and office at that date.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the financial condition of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1947, and its transactions for the year ended at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Nineteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eleven cents of the nineteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of

.... Dollars.

THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF SPRINGFIELD, INC.

Aids churches financially, promotes cooperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Aided Church Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.", pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name. Stars before the names of churches indicate the payment of the allotment dues for the year reported.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1947. Admissions and removals cover the year 1946. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1947, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; "§", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report", but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary. An "x" indicates that repairs were made on church property during the year.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

Several errors were found in the statistical tables after the National Year Book had been printed. Corrections are included in the following tables.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

*Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

‡Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

+Ordained, but not yet a member of an Association.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE: — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society

Minutes and Reports —
With the Statistics

SPRINGFIELD, MAY 18-19

Officers. — President, Mr. Arthur H. Wellman, Topsfield; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas Todd, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. William F. English, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation ....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST IN SPRINGFIELD

MAY 18 - 19, 1948

THE BECKLER PRESS, INC.
BOSTON

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to the following percentages:

Massachusetts Congregational Conference & Missionary Society	15
American Board	39¼
The Board of Home Missions	40¾
Council for Social Action	4
Boston Seaman's Friend Society	1

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference and the General Council a sum equivalent to nineteen cents for each member, based upon the total memberhip of January 1, 1948, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Secretary.

In order to reduce the expense of printing the 1948 Minutes, several sections included in the Minutes of former years have been omitted this year. The national Year Book contains the lists of church clerks. It is available, free of charge, to church clerks and retired ministers upon request to the General Council Office, 287 Fourth Avenue, New York City 10. Lists of Representative Laymen and copies of the By-Laws of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council are available at the Conference office.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council ex officiis, and the Moderator ex officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee on Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officiis as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of four years. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Layman's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES OF THE 149th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 18–19, 1948

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

TUESDAY, May 18, 9:30 A.M.

The Moderator, Rev. John A. Hawley, called to order the 149th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

Rev. Victor B. Chicoine of North Adams led devotions.

Welcome was extended by Rev. William E. McCormack, pastor of the host church. The Moderator responded.

The following committees were appointed by the Moderator:

Business — Rev. Franklin D. Loehr, Chairman; Rev. Victor B. Chicoine, Mr. William F. Farley, Mr. Alfred C. Gaunt, Rev. Kenneth R. Henley, Rev. Paul S. McElroy, Mrs. Walter F. Rutter.

Credentials — Rev. Charles G. King, Chairman; Mr. Lincoln W. Barnes, Rev. Richard F. Manwell, Mrs. Ernest S. Russell.

Tellers — Rev. J. Herbert Brautigam, Rev. Edward W. Hale, Rev. Robert W. Little, Rev. S. Burman Long, Rev. Arthur Sanders, Rev. Arthur J. Snow, Rev. Watson Wordsworth.

Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer of the Conference, presented his report, with added comments on the economy of operation and the satisfactory rate of return of the Massachusetts Congregational Fund. The report was accepted and placed on file.

Mr. Roy A. Hovey reported for the Board of Trustees. The report was accepted and placed on file.

The following recommendations contained in the report were unanimously adopted:

To provide for the new Missionary Committee, the Conference By-laws shall be amended by making the following addition to Article X; Paragraph 2.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of four years. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Laymen's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

THAT the By-laws referring to the Special Roll of Ministers, Article X, Section (e), after the words "The Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears in this roll," be changed to read, ". . . unless it finds in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association that his character and qualifications are satisfactory."

THAT the same allotment figure that was adopted a year ago (19 cents per member) be adopted for the year ending March 31, 1949.

The Advance Reports, as printed, were presented.

Members of the Conference Staff were presented and each one spoke on the progress and plans of his department.

The committee appointed by the Trustees to examine the financial structure of the Conference (relative to benevolences) reported that it is waiting for the action of the Missions Council, which is working on the same problem at the national level.

Dr. Albert D. Stauffacher, Minister of the Missions Council, gave a stirring address on "Our Christian World Missions Now."

Mr. Hovey, for the Board of Trustees, recommended that the apportionment goal for the Conference for 1949 be $923,000, and the recommendation was unanimously adopted.

On recommendation of the Business Committee, it was voted that the following telegram be sent to the New York Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, meeting at Christ Church, Jamaica Plain: "The Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, assembled in Springfield for its 149th Annual Meeting, takes pleasure in sending fraternal greetings to the churches and delegates of the New York Synod meeting in Jamaica Plain, signed, John A. Hawley, Moderator, Ralph M. Timberlake, President.

Reverend Harold Bentley of Spencer reported for the Special Committee on Temperance Procedures.

After devotions conducted by Rev. William T. Howe of Somerville, the Conference adjourned to 2:00 P.M.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The session was opened with devotions led by Rev. Howard D. Gould of Monson.

Dr. Harold E. Fey, Managing Editor of the Christian Century, spoke on "Protestant Church Strategy."

It was VOTED: That the Advance Reports, as printed, be accepted and placed on file.

It was Voted: That the report of the Committee on Temperance Procedures be accepted and placed on file.

The Business Committee, through its Chairman, presented the following recommendations regarding procedure on the Merger vote and action was taken as noted:

1. THAT all questions of information and procedure are welcome. It is hoped that statements of opinion and debate as such will be voluntarily withheld. If, however, such are to be made, it is recommended that they be limited to two minutes for each person. Adopted.
2. THAT the Merger vote be taken in its entirety at this session. Adopted.
3. THAT the vote be secured by ballot on the standard form provided by the General Council. Adopted.
4. THAT the voting delegates take their places in the center front section of the auditorium and that all non-voting persons take places at the sides. Not adopted.
5. THAT a 75% affirmative vote be required to consider the Massachusetts Conference as registered affirmatively on either resolution. An amendment that the votes be taken on a simple majority basis was adopted 261–147.

Dr. Charles C. Merrill reported on the vote as so far recorded for the Associations of the state:

It was

VOTED: To proceed with the vote on the Merger, using the official ballots. This was done and the tellers reported the results as follows:

First Resolution:	Approval	388	Disapproval	138
Second Resolution:	Approval	432	Disapproval	76

It was VOTED: That the Conference express its appreciation to Dr. Merrill for the services which he has rendered.

Dr. Warren H. Denison, Dayton, Ohio, gave an address on "What an Every Member Canvass Ought to be."

Dr. George S. Sutton, the Executive Secretary of the Boston Seaman's Friend Society, spoke briefly on its work.

On recommendation of the Trustees, the following amendments to the By-laws were adopted:

THAT Article XVII of the By-laws be amended by eliminating in Paragraph 1 and in Paragraph 2, reference to Article IV, so that said Article shall read as follows:

(1) These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

(2) Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

THAT Article IV of the By-laws be amended by striking out the first paragraph of said Article and inserting in place thereof the following:

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

The Business Committee brought in the following resolutions, which were acted upon as noted:

1. TEMPERANCE

We recognize the increasing seriousness of the evils associated with the use of alcoholic beverages, and recommend the practice of total abstinence; and we urge our churches to promote effective programs of temperance education.

Believing that liquor has been second only to war as a source of human misery and degradation, and social expense, we believe it should be placed in a category different from ordinary business. In the absence of prohibition, although if drink is legally allowed, it must never be encouraged, nor its consumption in any wise stimulated. Therefore we call for the outlawing of all liquor advertising, and the removal of the private-profit motive from the making and selling of alcoholic beverages.

In the interests of an interdenominational program of temperance education, we instruct our Trustees to the Massachusetts Temperance League to take steps looking toward a closer correlation of the work of the Massachusetts Temperance League with the Massachusetts Council of Churches. Adopted.

2. Displaced Persons

This resolution was referred back to the committee.

3. Child Labor

RESOLVED: That this Conference endorse the law that forbids shipment among our states of the products of child labor; and that it deplores international traffic in material produced under unsanitary conditions or by slave or child or sweatshop labor. Adopted.

4. Gambling

We condemn the use by churches and various community and charitable agencies of the techniques of gambling and chance-taking in efforts to raise money for good causes.

We believe that the various public appeals to the gambling impulse represent a violation of moral principle, and we urge our people to oppose the use of all such methods for raising money in the church and in other organizations with which they may be associated. Adopted.

5. Race Relations

While we appreciate the progress our churches have made in helping to break down in many communities the patterns of racial segregation, and the progress that they have made in welding together various cultural and racial groups in the spirit of Christian fellowship, we yet recognize the wide-scale existence of racial and class prejudices still prevalent in our society, and urge our people to try to live above these un-Christian practices, so as to close the gap between our convictions and our conduct. Adopted.

6. Planned Parenthood

We believe that an important issue in the area of civil rights as well as public health is at stake in connection with the efforts of the Planned Parenthood League of Massachusetts to secure legislation authorizing doctors to give contraceptive advice to married women in the interests of life and health.

We believe that this proposed legislation is consistent with Christian teachings relative to the sacredness of human life,

Therefore, since the present Massachusetts Legislature has turned down House Bill 1748, we urge our churches to cooperate with the Planned Parenthood League to ensure favorable action on this legislation by the voters in the November election. Adopted.

The session closed with hymn and prayer, led by Rev. Bedros Baharian of Quincy.

At a Fellowship Dinner in the Springfield Municipal Auditorium, the following ministers, ordained fifty years ago, were honored: Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, Rev. Henry F. Burdon, Rev. Vernon H. Deming, Rev. Sherman Goodwin, Rev. Leslie C. Greeley, Rev. Byron F. Gustin, Rev. John A. Hawley, Rev. Frank A. L. Lindholm, Rev. Robert R. Morson, Rev. William C. Prentiss, Rev. John H. Quint, Rev. Edwin B. Robinson, Rev. James F. Scott.

Greetings were extended by Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake and a response was made by Rev. William C. Prentiss of North Brookfield.

Brief messages about our Youth Work were given by Mr. Alden C. Hebard, President of the Massachusetts Pilgrim Fellowship and Miss Frances Potter of Smith College.

Tribute was paid to President Ralph M. Timberlake for his fourteen years of faithful service to the Conference by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Roy A. Hovey, by Mr. Fowell, on behalf of the Staff, and by Rev. John Gratton, on behalf of the clergy and churches.

At 8:00 o'clock the Conference reassembled in First Church, with the Service of Worship conducted by Rev. Alden S. Mosshammer of Faith Church, Springfield.

Two anthems were sung by the combined choirs of several Springfield churches.

Rev. William F. English of Norwood presented the cause of the Board of Ministerial Aid. An offering for this cause amounted to $373.17.

Dr. Frans Kleyn, Executive Head of the Remonstrant Churches (Congregational type) in Holland, spoke on "The Crisis in Europe."

Prayer and benediction by Dr. Mosshammer closed the session at 9:15.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

The Communion Service was conducted by Rev. William E. McCormack, pastor of the host church, with a communion meditation by Rev. Edwin B. Robinson, pastor of Grace Church, Holyoke. At 9:15, the Business Committee brought in three resolutions, as follows, all of which were adopted:

1. Displaced Persons

RESOLVED: That we favor the following steps:

(1) That our country willingly accept its fair share of responsibility for intelligently placing these individuals.

(2) That legislation for promptly admitting a generous quota of Displaced Persons be herewith urged.

(3) That a survey be suggested to the Grange, Extension Service, and other agricultural agencies, for a close estimate of the openings for these persons within the American farm economy.

(4) That where necessary, denominational or interdenominational church agencies provide the required surety of selected individuals.

2. Positive Program for Peace

RESOLVED: That we endorse the statement called "A Positive Program for Peace," prepared and published by the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of Churches; and that we commend this to our churches as informational and worthy of support.

(The major points of this statement are as follows:)

(1) Our people should not tolerate any complacency about war. War would engulf all in misery and would bring other consequences quite the opposite of our intentions.

(2) Our people should combat a mood of hysteria or blind hatred.

(3) Our people should reject fatalism about war. War is not inevitable. If it should come, it would be because of conditions that men could have changed.

(4) Our people should not rely primarily on military strategy to meet Communist aggression. Such reliance is more apt to bring war than prevent it. There should be greater concentration on positive programs of an economic, social, political and moral character.

(5) Our people should press for positive programs which have immediate possibilities for peace and justice. They could, for example, quickly move toward:

  a. Greater economic well-being throughout the world.
  b. Greater emphasis on increasing social welfare.
  c. Greater observance of human rights, to check terrorism.
  d. Greater use of processes of international conversation and negotiation.

(6) Our people ought, each one of them, to contribute to a change of mood so as to increase the chance of averting war without compromise of basic convictions.

(7) Our churches ought to testify with renewed vigor to God's righteous love for all men and the reality of the Christian World Fellowship.

3. RESOLVED: That copies of each of the resolutions passed by the Conference be made for and sent to such persons as the Conference office may deem appropriate.

The report of the Nominating Committee was received and balloting resulted in the election of officers of the Conference, as noted on page 13.

It was VOTED: That the report of the Nominating Committee, containing nominations for committees and delegates to the General Council be accepted and adopted. (See pages 14–24.)

The Conference took a brief recess for the Annual Meeting of the Department of Woman's Work. After the recess, the Business Committee reported receipt of fraternal greetings from the Western Diocese of the Episcopal Church, convened in Springfield.

The Business Committee recommended that the Moderator appoint a committee to take, in person, our greetings to the Western Massachusetts Diocese of the Episcopal Church, meeting now in Christ Church Cathedral, Springfield. It was so voted and the Moderator appointed the following as a committee to convey the greetings: Rev. Ralph M. Timberlake, Rev. Myron W. Fowell and Rev. Philip H. Steinmetz.

On recommendation of the Business Committee, it was further VOTED: That greetings be sent to the New Hampshire Congregational Conference, now in session.

On behalf of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, the Business Committee presented the following resolution, which was adopted on motion from the floor:

UNITED NATIONS

Believing that the United Nations is a real step toward the fulfillment of the ideal of community in a world which must become one, and that the United Nations is a practical and singular instrument for the establishment of a just and lasting peace, and that the by-passing of this organization in many instances by our own nation and Russia is now promoting the hysteria and very real steps which lead to war, we urge that Christians exert their influence by word and ballot to recommend:

THAT further unilateral actions on the part of the nations be strongly reproved.

THAT the Marshall Plan be used not as a Pan-American policy, but for the rebuilding of security and peace in the world.

THAT the United States take steps to limit the veto powers of the several nations in the Security Council.

THAT our State Department, our Congress, and our representatives in the United Nations work toward the development of World Government.

Also on behalf of the Committee on Moral and Social Welfare, the Business Committee reported the following resolution:

UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING

We are opposed to a program of universal military training in time of peace, as we believe that such a program does not represent the most effective approach to national defense and is inconsistent with our democratic and Christian philosophy of government and life, and would result in the kind of situation in which the ideology of totalitarianism and the police state might gain a substantial foothold in America.

Several motions to amend this resolution failed to carry and it was adopted as presented. It was VOTED: That when copies of this resolution are sent to the proper authorities, the division of the Conference on the question be recorded. A record vote on the original question was then taken and the tellers declared the division to be 168 for and 36 against.

The Moderator reported the receipt of a telegram from the New York Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, stating that that body had voted unanimously for the Merger.

The Business Committee reported a resolution prepared by the Committee of Twenty-five, as follows:

Facing the situation which confronts us and our sister Conferences in connection with the proposed Union of the Congregational Christian churches and the Evangelical and Reformed church, the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society ventures to express its judgment as follows:

1. The percentage of 71.2 by which Massachusetts churches have expressed their approval of the Union, and the percentage of approximately 65 by which the churches of the country seem likely to express their approval, do not permit the approval of the Union by the General Council, in accordance with the Basis of Union dated January 22, 1947. We say this in view of the fact that the percentage of approval which was proposed at the beginning of the voting, and in accordance with which the voting has been conducted, was 75.

2. On the other hand these percentages of approval both in Massachusetts and in the Nation as a whole seem too large to suggest or indeed to permit the dropping of the proposal for Union.

3. We, therefore, propose to the General Council that negotiations be continued with the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

A motion to lay this matter on the table prevailed by a vote of 141 to 61.

The session closed with devotions led by Rev. Frank B. Loper of Winchendon.

At a luncheon devoted to the consideration of Student Work, Rev. Ralph H. Winn of South Hadley presided. Dr. Paul M. Limbert, President of Springfield College, spoke on "The Church and Higher Education."

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Conference reconvened with devotions led by Rev. J. Edward Elliot of Stockbridge.

Mr. Clarence Beasley, Moderator elect, was introduced and spoke briefly.

An address, "Gather Up the Past and Move Into the Future," was presented by Dr. Edwin P. Booth, Professor of Church History at Boston University.

The Chairman of the Business Committee introduced the following resolutions:

Recognizing that considerations of a primarily political nature have hampered American policy deliberations both domestic and foreign, particularly in a presidential-election year, we, therefore, suggest to the political parties that extraneous pressure may be lessened by some such provision as this:

1. THAT members of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress be elected for four years instead of two;
2. THAT these terms be so staggered that Congressmen are elected only during the three non-presidential years of any four-year period.

May we point out that under the present system, every four years we have a turnover of a majority of our government, to wit: the executive, the entire House of Representatives, and one-third of the Senate. This proposal would eliminate the blocking effect of such a drastic turnover.

This was referred to the Council for Social Action for further study.

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Conference express its most sincere appreciation for the outstanding hospitality extended it by Dr. McCormack and the people of First Church, Springfield. Special thanks should go to the women of the church, who met every need with thoughtful efficiency. Adopted.

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society accept with pleasure the gracious invitation to hold its next Annual Meeting at the Old South Church, Boston. It would seem entirely appropriate that the Sesquicentennial celebration of the Conference be thus associated with this staunch and historic church, and we look forward with great anticipation to a significant gathering there a year hence. Adopted.

We happily acknowledge receipt of the following communication, and warmly commend it to the attention of the 150th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference next year: "Central Congregational Church, Fall River, is happy to invite the State Conference to meet in Fall River for its Annual Meeting in 1950."

On motion from the floor thanks were expressed to the Moderator, Mr. Hawley, for his genial, impartial and efficient service, and to Mr. Loehr and the Business Committee for the very excellent way in which they had handled the Conference Business.

The Credentials Committee reported the number of ministers, delegates, ex-officio delegates and guests present at this Annual Meeting and preliminary meetings. It was VOTED: That this report be accepted and completed by the Staff.

Ministers	269
Delegates	323
Ex-Officio Delegates	47
Guests	201
Total	840

The Moderator spoke gracious words of thanks for the cooperative spirit of the Conference.

A vote of thanks was extended to the Program Committee.

The Conference closed with the following prayer, offered by Rev. Milo E. Pearson of Salem:

> Our Father, we now commit into Thy hands all that has been said and done; the love and labor of these days. Forgive whatever has been wrong; correct whatever has been unwise; prosper all that has been in accordance with Thy Holy Will. Let Thy blessing rest upon us as we return to our several fields and tasks. May we go strengthened and sustained by the sense that we are not alone, — that we are part of a great fellowship, including not only men, but God. So may we be more worthy servants of our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ. And to Thy name shall be the glory, world without end. Amen.

REVEREND RALPH M. TIMBERLAKE, D.D., President,
MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND
MISSIONARY SOCIETY,
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

Sir:

We have examined the accounts of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, for the year ended March 31, 1948, and in relation thereto have examined or tested accounting records of the Society and other supporting evidence, by methods and to the extent we deemed appropriate.

We verified the possession of the securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1948, and the cash in banks and office at that date.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the financial condition of the Society as at the close of business March 31, 1948, and its transactions for the year ended at that date.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1928 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Nineteen cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Eleven cents of the nineteen goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of ....Dollars.

Aids churches financially, promotes cooperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Aided Church Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

9. In place of the usual listing of grants to churches, we are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1947-1948 by placing the reference § before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears after the reference §. Special grants will be listed, as usual, on the following page.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.", pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name. Stars before the names of churches indicate the payment of the allotment dues for the year reported.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1948. Admissions and removals cover the year 1947. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1948, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; "§", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report", but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary. An "x" indicates that repairs were made on church property during the year.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

*Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

†Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

+Ordained, but not yet a member of an Association.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables, and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE: — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

BOSTON, MAY 16-18

Officers. — President, Mr. Sargent H. Wellman, 150 Congress Street, Boston; Secretary, Mr. Lucius E. Thayer, 60 State Street, Boston; Treasurer, Mr. Harvey E. Weir, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Executive Committee. — Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Chairman; Rev. William F. English, Rev. Austin Rice.

All applications for aid should be sent to Rev. Robert Wood Coe, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

Should any one desire to leave a legacy in aid of the benevolent work of this board, the following form of bequest will be sufficient:

I give and devise to The Board of Ministerial Aid, incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, for the charitable uses and purposes of said Corporation

....

Gifts are needed from living donors.

Agreement has been made between the Board of Ministerial Aid and the Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief by which the National Board places at the disposal of the State Board such money as is needed for the payment of its grants. The Congregational Board of Ministerial Relief receives a portion of the percentage of contributions assigned to the Board of Home Missions.

NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

All missionary contributions should be sent to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 8. Unless requested otherwise these contributions will be divided according to percentages approved under the plan of Our Christian World Mission.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit quarterly in January, April, July and October such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference and the General Council a sum equivalent to twenty-four cents for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1949, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to Mr. Arthur W. Davis, Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured by Massachusetts Congregationalists without charge, and by others for twenty-five cents, upon application to the Secretary, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, 14 Beacon St., Boston 8. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Secretary.

The national Year Book, which contains the lists of church clerks, is available, free of charge, to church clerks and retired ministers upon request to the General Council Office, 287 Fourth Avenue, New York City 10. Lists of Representative Laymen and copies of the By-Laws of the Massachusetts Laymen's Council are available at the Conference office.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

ARTICLE I

Terminology

Whenever in these by-laws the word "Conference" is used it shall be held to refer to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of a Congregational or a Congregational Christian Association of Churches in Massachusetts may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference and those persons who, prior to May 22, 1923, became life members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have membership in Congregational Christian Associations regularly holding ministerial standing.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, together with all persons heretofore constituted honorary members of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department of Woman's Work (See Art. VIII, sec. 2), all of whom shall be nominated by the nominating committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, Field Secretaries, a Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion, a Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work and a Secretary of Religious Education. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine.

3. "The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees consisting of one member from each Association of churches, six members at large who shall be known for their special knowledge of financial affairs of whom one shall be chosen each even numbered year and two, — beginning with the year 1935, — each odd numbered year, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Woman's Department ex-officiis, the chairman and vice-chairman of the Massachusetts Congregational Laymen's Council ex officiis, and the Moderator ex officio." One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large, chosen for their knowledge of financial affairs, may serve for two consecutive terms. The present Trustees shall remain in office until the expiration of their terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustee to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty. This method of choosing Trustees shall commence at the close of the 1933 Conference.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint sub-committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of Officers

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of state Superintendents) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Field Secretary and under the direction of the President to care and oversight of churches financially aided by the Conference; he shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers as may welcome his services; and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees.

5. The Field Secretaries shall have the care and oversight of the aided churches in the territory which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President; and they shall advise with and assist such other churches and their ministers within their territory as may welcome their services.

6. The Secretary of Missionary Education and Promotion shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Secretary of the Department of Woman's Work shall have special charge of promoting missionary interests and all other activities among the women of the Congregational churches of the Commonwealth. She shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as she may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Secretary of Religious Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the Congregational churches of the state. He, or she, shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, in their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person who has attained the age of 70 years or more shall be eligible for election or re-election to the Executive Staff. (This provision shall not apply to the President, now in office, until 1934, nor to the Treasurer, now in office, until 1938.) With respect to employees not members of the executive staff it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers, who are members of the executive staff, shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity, except in the case of ministers who are now members under the Original Plan. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to the cash payment made by the ordained executive.

3. Lay members of the office staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay one-half the annual premium of such staff workers as are members of the fund. The Trustees may in their discretion grant retirement allowances to lay members of the office staff who have found it impracticable to become members of the retirement fund for lay workers.

ARTICLE VIII

Department of Woman's Work

1. There shall be a Department of Woman's Work of the Conference. The object of this Department shall be to help to promote the entire work of the local church and to further in every way possible the cause of Christ throughout the world. The voting members of this Department shall be the women members of the Conference, together with such other women as may be determined by the rules of the Department. The Chairman, Vice-Chairman of the Department, the District Presidents, the women members of the Board of Trustees and the members of the Business Committee, as provided by the rules of the Department, shall constitute the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Department. This Executive Committee shall organize the membership of the Department in whatever manner it may deem needful for the effective carrying on of the Department's work.

2. The Department shall provide by its rules for the appointment of a nominating committee. This committee shall annually propose to the nominating committee of the Conference from among its membership a chairman and a vice-chairman of the Department, who shall be ex officiis members of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. It shall also nominate such other officers and committees as the rules of the Department shall require, to be elected by the Department at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at the appointed place on the third Monday of May at 2 p.m., or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield, respectively.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall propose to the churches the annual contribution for the expenses of the General Council and for such expenses of the Conference and other purposes, as may be deemed equitable. The Trustees shall at each annual meeting present a recommendation as to the action to be taken at such meeting with reference to the allotment to be made at that meeting, unless the Conference shall have directed at a previous meeting that such recommendation be made by a designated committee.

ARTICLE X

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

   (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

   (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

   (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

   This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting two members shall be elected to serve for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting and shall select the preacher of the annual sermon and the various speakers at each session.

(c) A Committee on Religious Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The duty of the committee shall be to foster in all the churches religious and missionary education. This committee (or such other committee as the Conference may designate) shall supervise the State Committee of Congregational Young People, such supervision to be exercised in the following ways:

(i) The character and representative basis of membership of the State Committee on Congregational Young People to be subject to the approval of this committee.

(ii) Two members of this committee to serve ex officiis as members of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(iii) Any action taken by the State Committee of Congregational Young People to be subject to the review and approval of this committee, which shall be authorized to pay out of the amount voted to it by the Conference such a sum as it may deem advisable toward the necessary expenses of the State Committee of Congregational Young People.

(d) A Committee on Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of ten members, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, and two of the entire membership shall be elected at each Annual Meeting for a term of five years. It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our Congregational ministry, working therefore in close co-operation with the committees on ministerial standing of the several Associations of the State. Four members shall constitute a quorum. Beginning in 1941, election shall be made to fit in with this policy.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the Associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a Congregational Association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his Association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A Committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to serve as a cooperating agency of the national Commission on Evangelism and Devotional Life.

(g) A Missionary Committee. Each of the twenty-one Associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the Association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of Associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

In addition, there shall be six members-at-large, nominated by the Board of Trustees for a term of four years. Four of these persons shall be members of the Board of Trustees.

There shall also be three ex officiis members, representing the Woman's Department, the Layman's Council, and the Pilgrim Fellowship, respectively.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be women.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all the topics presented in the reports.

ARTICLE XI

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XIII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect nine members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, three members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIV

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words "Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society" around the circumference between these circles and the words "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XV

Special Orders

1. The place of the next annual meeting shall be recommended each year by the Business Committee and designated by vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

3. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

4. As far as possible, all business of the Conference shall be completed by noon of the second day of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XVI

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVII

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

MINUTES OF THE 150th ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

May 16, 17, 18, 1949

Old South Church — Boston, Massachusetts

MONDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Department of Woman's Work preceded the formal opening of the conference.

At 5:45 P.M., Moderator Clarence C. Beasley, called the conference to order. In the unavoidable absence of Rev. Robert Clyde Yarbrough, who was to have served as Chaplain, Rev. Lester G. Myers of Brockton led the devotions.

The moderator appointed committees as follows:

Business Committee — Rev. David C. Colwell, Chairman, Mrs. Prince S. Crowell, Mr. Arthur Malm, Rev. Floyd L. Roberts, Mrs. Ernest Russell, Rev. Wiliam M. Thompson.

Credentials Committee — Rev. S. Burman Long, Chairman, Mrs. Roy J. Packard, Rev. Robert Rasche, Mrs. Frank Auchter.

Tellers — Rev. Paul B. Myers, Chairman, Rev. Harry R. Butman, Rev. Perry E. Haines, Rev. Leonard W. Fowler, Rev. Douglas M. MacIntosh, Rev. Donald A. Simpson, Rev. J. Everett Bodge.

Rev. Charles D. Paul of Amherst reported for the Nominating Committee and all officers so nominated were elected by ballot. See pages 13 and 14.

The session closed with benediction by the Chaplain.

An Anniversary Banquet was served in two sections — in New England Mutual Hall and at Old South Church. Identical programs at these sessions included:

Greetings
from the New England Conferences, Rev. James F. English, Hartford, Conn. from the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches, Miss Helen Kenyon, New York from the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, Rev. Fred Field Goodsell, Boston, and Rev. Earle H. Ballou, Boston from the Board of Home Missions, Rev. William E. McCormack, Springfield, and Rev. Roy L. Minich, Malden

Response

Rev. Albert J. Penner, Holyoke, and Rev. Paul S. McElroy, Danvers

Mr. Beasley presided at the New England Mutual Hall dinner and Rev. Horace G. Robson at the dinner at the Old South Church.

MONDAY EVENING

Rev. Albert Buckner Coe was installed as President of the Conference in a stirring and impressive service.

Those participating in the service were: Mr. Clarence C. Beasley, the Reverend Raymond Calkins, the Reverend Chalmers Coe, the Reverend Robert Wood Coe, the Reverend Myron W. Fowell, the Reverend Frank Jennings, the Reverend Frederick M. Meek, the Reverend Walter Amos Morgan.

About two hundred pastors were in the procession.

A challenging sermon was given by the new President on the subject "Our Christian Heritage."

TUESDAY MORNING

The session began at 9:00 A.M., with worship, led by the Chaplain.

Reverend Frederick M. Meek, pastor of the host church, extended greetings, to which the Moderator responded.

Dr. Walter A. Morgan, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, presented the report of that Board, including the following recommendations, all of which were adopted:

THAT Article X, Section 2, Paragraph D of the By-laws be amended by striking out the words "Moral and Social Welfare" and substituting the words "Social Action."

THAT five cents be added to the Per Capita dues for the General Council.

THAT the Conference take from the undesignated gifts to the Christian World Mission an amount sufficient to make the total appropriation to the Conference equal to 15% of the total giving to the Christian World Mission.

THAT Article V, Section 2 of the By-laws be amended by adding thereto the following: "They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may determine."

THAT acting in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 2 of the By-laws, as amended, the President of the Conference be designated as "Minister and President."

The Treasurer's Report, presented by Mr. Arthur W. Davis, was received and adopted. Mr. Davis also made a statement in regard to the Congregational Fund and its services to the churches.

It was VOTED: That the greetings and congratulations of the Conference be sent to the Second Church, Boston, now holding its 300th Anniversary.

The Advance Reports, as printed, were accepted to be placed on file.

The report of the Special Committee to Study and Evaluate Benevolence Procedures was presented by Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin. This was accepted to be placed on file.

Members of the Staff were introduced by the Moderator, who spoke a word of appreciation for the services of each one.

Rev. Robert Wood Coe. Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Bible Society, presented to the Minister and President of the Conference the Bible used in his Installation Service.

The report of the Business Committee, was presented by Rev. David C. Colwell, with the following resolutions, all of which were adopted:

THAT the address of Rev. Albert Buckner Coe at his Installation Service be distributed to all the churches.

THAT the recommendation of the Laymen's Council "that a suitable Conference and Camp site for the work of our youth, as well as for other groups interested and active in the work of the local Congregational churches, the Associations and the Conference be secured," be adopted.

Dr. Fowell reported that the Unit Plan had reached its goal.

Rev. Lionel A. Whiston of Wrentham spoke on Missionary Promotion.

The Moderator introduced the Moderator-elect Rev. Horace G. Robson, who spoke briefly.

Rev. Robert Wood Coe spoke on the work of the Board of Ministerial Aid and an offering for this cause was received, amounting to $357.27.

The session adjourned with prayer by the Chaplain.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON

At 12:15 P.M. a Social Action Luncheon was served at the Old South Church, with Rev. Richard A. Wolff of Westwood as Chairman. Rev. Shirley F. Greene of the Council for Social Action spoke on "The Christian Use of Food," and Rev. Edgar H. S. Chandler of the Congregational Christian Service Committee spoke on "Our Responsibility for Displaced Persons."

Also at 12:15 P.M. the Student Work Luncheon was served in the Church of the Covenant. At this session Rev. Ralph H. Winn of South Hadley spoke on the subject, "Your Church Goes to College." Rev. William E. Wimer of Beverly presided over a panel discussion on "Our Work with College Students." Other participants in the panel were: Rev. George E. Beilby, Jr., Williamstown; Rev. Leonard G. Glough, Cambridge; Mr. Robert B. Dennett, Boston; Rev. Robert S. Illingworth, Worcester; Rev. Arnold M. Kenseth, Amherst.

At 2:00 P.M. Chaplain Myers led devotions.

MERGER

WHEREAS our Congregational Christian Churches for more than six years have been considering union with the Evangelical and Reformed Church under the name of the United Church of Christ; and

WHEREAS the following votes have resulted from this consideration:

1. The Congregational Christian Churches of the country in a nationwide plebiscite have voted 3114 to 1165 (a percentage of 72.77) in favor of the Union.
2. In this plebiscite the Massachusetts Churches have voted 380 to 89 (81.4%) in favor of the Union.
3. The General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches at its meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, February 5, 1949, voted 757 to 172 (81.5%) to proceed with the Union.

WHEREAS, in the judgment of this Conference the Basis of Union and the Interpretations accompanying it safeguard the freedom and autonomy of the local church, and every Congregational Church in Massachusetts can be assured that its rights as to doctrine, worship, calling and dismissal of ministers and in other essential ways will be preserved; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society at this 150th Anniversary meeting, taking into account the historic Congregational attitude toward church union, believes it to be particularly appropriate to urge the Congregational Christian churches of Massachusetts to enter wholeheartedly into this Union and to do everything possible to bring about its success; and we further urge that no church of the Conference take precipitate action toward severing itself from our fellowship.

A motion that this resolution be tabled was lost, and the resolution was adopted.

A resolution on Foreign Policy was referred back to the committee for further consideration.

At 2:30 P.M., there was a discussion of "Planned Education for Stewardship and the Every Member Canvass." Rev. Edward Hale of Framingham introduced the discussion with a talk on stewardship. Then followed a panel presentation, in which Rev. Sumner H. Gill of Worcester spoke on "A Theology for Stewardship;" Rev. Bedros Baharian of Quincy on "A Year-Round Program of Stewardship;" and Rev. Truman Douglass, of the Board of Home Missions, on "Stewardship of Talents." In presenting the Every Member Canvass Rev. T. K. Thompson of the Missions Council spoke on "The Program of Planned Education," after which there was a demonstration of literature, and a filmstrip, "The Time is Now," was shown.

From 4:00 to 5:30 P.M., seminars were held on a wide variety of subjects.

TUESDAY EVENING

The Laymen's Supper was served in the Commons of Northeastern University. Mr. Robert C. Shoemaker of Worcester presided and Rev. Albert B. Coe spoke on "What Can Laymen do for the Church?"

At 8:00 P.M. an Anniversary Pageant was presented in the University Theatre by the Cambridge Players of First Congregational Church, Cambridge.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

The day's sessions began at 8:30 with a Communion Service at Old South Church, led by Rev. Frederick M. Meek, with a communion meditation by Rev. J. Harold Dale of Billerica.

At 9:15, Conference business was resumed with election of Conference committees, representatives to the Boards of associated organizations and members of the Laymen's Council. See pages 16-24.

The report of the Nominating Committee was received and approved.

Rev. and Mrs. Edwin B. Robinson of Holyoke were called before the meeting and Secretary Fowell presented the congratulations of the Conference on their long service and on the 50th anniversary of their marriage. Mr. Fowell also presented Mrs. Robinson with a bouquet on behalf of the Conference.

Mrs. Charlotte Hawkins Brown of Palmer Memorial Institute, Sedalia, North Carolina, spoke on "Progress in Race Relations."

An address by Rev. Frederick M. Meek was titled "Providing the Hub."

The Credentials Committee report, presented by Rev. S. Burman Long, showed the following registration:

Ministers	292
Delegates	452
Ex-Officio Delegates	21
Guests	524
Total	1829

Reporting for the Business Committee, Rev. David C. Colwell brought in a series of resolutions, which were adopted as follows:

MENTAL HEALTH

On November 3, 1948, Dr. Clifton Perkins, Commissioner of Mental Health, made to the Governor and Council a partial and preliminary report of his Department. In this report, he brings to the attention of the citizens of Massachusetts the serious shortages which are present in all the categories that go to make up the mental hospitals and the community clinic work. Sixteen hospitals care for approximately 30,000 patients, and the overcrowding in these hospitals varies from 19 to 25 per cent. Ninety-five out of every 100 persons in the Commonwealth who need hospitalization because of mental illness must be cared for in our State institutions. The expenditures of the Commonwealth for the care of the mentally ill are great, but they are totally inadequate for the satisfactory care of these patients. The lack of well trained doctors and nurses, occupational therapists and other personnel is very serious, as is the lack of a sufficient number of beds to hospitalize these patients.

One of the fundamental problems in dealing with mental illness is the lack of intelligent, informed public opinion. Because of the serious situation which Dr. Perkins has described in his forthright statement, we, therefore, urge that the following resolution be adopted: Be it

RESOLVED: That we as a group and as individuals do everything in our power to create an informed public opinion; that we urge the General Court to take such action as will enable the Commissioner of Mental Health to correct the above described conditions. Be it finally

RESOLVED: That copies of this resolution be sent to the Governor and each member of the General Court.

COMIC MAGAZINES

WHEREAS the records of Juvenile Courts reveal the fact that patterns of crime set forth in certain so-called comic magazines are increasingly followed by juvenile offenders in real life, and

WHEREAS many of the so-called comic magazines on our newstands are unfit reading for youth, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Conference urge the parents of children to exercise a more careful oversight of their reading and do everything possible to cultivate a wholesome interest on the part of children and young people in the better classes of books and magazines. Also be it

RESOLVED: That our churches and parents be urged to use their influence with the distributors of comic magazines to induce them to stop selling comics detrimental to the character of children and young people.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES IN PENAL INSTITUTIONS

Christian citizens must be concerned about policies and practices in penal institutions. If Christian ends are to be served and the public good maintained, a constant effort must be made to reclaim offenders so that they may be returned to society as constructive citizens. This aim as a substitute for mere punishment was accepted more than thirty years ago when the name of the State Prison for Women was changed to State Women's Reformatory. Under the direction of Dr. Miriam Van Waters, this institution has maintained an outstanding record in giving a new lease on life to many women who would otherwise have become repeated offenders.

We were, therefore, much disturbed by the recent attempt to remove Superintendent Van Waters. We are equally disturbed, however, at the apparent inability or unwillingness of those in charge of the Department of Correction in our state government and of some of our penal institutions in the Commonwealth to recognize the basic concepts of rehabilitation for offenders and to follow policies that have been successful in many penal institutions about the country. Therefore be it

RESOLVED: That we, the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society urgently request Governor Dever to make such changes in the Department of Correction as shall insure more enlightened policies of penology, so that every effort may be made to secure the rehabilitation of offenders. Be it also

RESOLVED: That we urge the enactment of legislation which shall duly encourage qualified and trained Superintendents and their staffs to work out policies in our penal institutions for the corrective treatment of offenders so that wherever possible they may be restored to society as normal, law-abiding citizens. Be it further

RESOLVED: That we advocate the revision of laws defining criminal offenses in such a way as shall accord with modern standards. And be it

FINALLY RESOLVED: That copies of these Resolutions with the introductory statements shall be sent to the Governor of the Commonwealth and each member of the General Court.

GAMBLING

Gambling has become a major problem in the United States, diverting 10 to 11 billion dollars a year from legitimate business, and largely from the budgets of people in the lower income brackets, thus creating innumerable family and social problems for countless numbers of people who become the victims of the mania to get something for nothing through various gambling devices.

Gambling is morally wrong. It is contrary to the primary principles of the Christian religion. It gives rise to the desire for gain at the expense of other people while stimulating the spirit of greed and the love of money for its own sake; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Conference call upon the people of our churches to resist gambling practices and chance-taking projects personally and in organizations with which they are associated. And be it further

RESOLVED: That we urge our churches to share generally with their people the pamphlet "How long Will Society Support the Gamblers?", sponsored by our Committee on Moral and Social Welfare; and be it further

RESOLVED: That we call upon our state and local police agencies to enforce the laws of the Commonwealth relative to gambling, especially Chapter 271, Sections 7–10, when they find these laws being violated.

NON-SEGREGATION

THAT we commend our churches for the progress they have made in recent years in breaking down patterns of segregation and including in their fellowship people of various nationalities and racial backgrounds.

We urge our churches and people to redouble their efforts in this interest so as to hasten the day when men shall be privileged to enjoy the true brotherhood of man.

LIQUOR

WHEREAS the expenditure for intoxicating liquors represents an enormous diversion of money and energy from those creative enterprises designed to strengthen our spiritual and moral well being, and

WHEREAS personal liberty is invaded and security is jeopardized for many people on busses and trains and in other public places, and particularly upon our highways, by those under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and

WHEREAS present-day advertising of liquor interests makes the use of such beverages attractive and seemingly socially condoned, be it

RESOLVED: That churches within the Conference be urged to promote effective programs of temperance education, and further be it

RESOLVED: That we urge the support of legislation for the regulating of liquor advertising, and further

RESOLVED: That we urge legislation whereby the liquor industry be required through legal means to assume responsibility for the alcoholics it produces.

DISPLACED PERSONS

One year ago, the Annual Meeting of this Conference urged legislation "for promptly admitting a generous quota of Displaced Persons." The following month Congress passed Public Law 774, providing for the admission of 205,000 DP's prior to June 30, 1950. To administer this law the President appointed a three-man commission, a Protestant, a Roman Catholic and a Jew.

As of April 1, 1949, the three-man commission reported the following: Total number of assurances received were 80,886; of this number 72,524 were forwarded by Jewish and Roman Catholic agencies; 8,362 by Protestant and Greek Catholic agencies. Of this latter number, 8,362, a large majority came from Lutherans.

Our Congregational Christian Churches have forwarded 105; of this 105 from our denomination, 55, more than half, have come from one church.

The agencies representing non-Protestant bodies have thus far secured approximately nine-tenths of their total quota; the agencies representing Protestantism and Greek Catholicism have secured less than one-third of their quota.

We of the Massachusetts Conference view the above record with chagrin, and we humbly recognize that, as a whole, our churches have failed dismally to carry out the responsibility given us by the government at our own insistence. We have failed to heed the clear words of Jesus: "Depart from me — for I was a stranger and ye took me not in." We have failed to carry through the clear implications of our own resolution adopted a year ago. Therefore be it

RESOLVED: That our local churches recognize that the DP problem is a Christian responsibility; that each local church accept as its obligation the procurement of assurances for at least one Displaced family.

ATLANTIC PACT

WHEREAS the Atlantic Pact is primarily a military alliance and

WHEREAS "history indicates that the most that can be achieved by military alliances is a temporary balance of power, while they easily give rise to menacing armament races ending in war, be it

RESOLVED: That we call upon our government and our people to:

1. Reaffirm our faith in the United Nations as the present best hope of peace, utilizing every facility of the U.N. and further strengthening the U.N. so that security may be universally realized,
2. Do nothing that will destroy the overarching and inclusive nature of the United Nations,
3. So develop our foreign policy that it will be primarily directed to "the meeting of human needs, the relief of human distress, and continued aid to economic recovery and stability" and not place our reliance upon military alliances alone,
4. Seek reconciliation with the Soviet bloc through all honorable means,
5. Maintain an open and flexible mind,
6. In no way weaken or reduce our support of the free nations of Europe.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

WHEREAS the Congregational Christian churches have traditionally asserted the rights of their members to liberty of individual thought and conscience in all matters, and

WHEREAS the General Council of Congregational Christian Churches of the United States at its ninth regular meeting held at Overlin, Ohio, in June, 1948, recorded itself relative to conscientious objectors as follows:

> "WHEREAS the Congress of the United States has enacted a law making subject to draft all male youth between the ages of 19 and 25 to serve in the armed forces; and

> WHEREAS the law provides that conscientious objectors may be placed on non-combatant duty or, if they object, be deferred if the objection is found valid; and
> WHEREAS there are in our Congregational Christian fellowship those who, on grounds of conscience, may refuse to register or to undergo military service in any form;
> BE IT RESOLVED: That we re-affirm our historical position on freedom of conscience with respect to military service; and that we reaffirm our desire to keep such conscientious objectors, as all others, within our fellowship; and
> BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Executive Committee of the General Council be empowered to take all necessary steps to provide for conscientious objectors in our fellowship such moral, spiritual and practical assistance as may be needed by them and their families because of their conscientious stand."

BE IT RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference hereby records its support of the right of the sincerely conscientious objector not only to refuse to accept combatant military service, but also non-combatant military service:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts Congregational Conference hereby records its regret that the present law limits the field of conscience,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, in order to assist conscientious objectors within our Congregational churches that they be invited to record (after consultation with their ministers and a representative of the Conference) their conscientious convictions in a register, to be supplied and kept by the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, and to be made available whenever a registrant wishes to offer evidence of his convictions to Selective Service authorities. A copy of this register is to be sent to the General Council.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be sent to Selective Service Headquarters for Massachusetts and to the ministers of the churches.

GREETINGS TO DR. PAGE

THAT this Conference is glad to take cognizance of the fact that Frederick Harlan Page is spending the eighty-ninth year of his life among us. We recall that Dr. Page, after notable service in the pastorate and in positions of denominational responsibility was called to be the first President of the united Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society when it was formed in 1927. For seven years he carefully and successfully laid the keel of this new Mayflower in Bay State Congregationalism. In these later years he has shown a rare serenity of spirit and a fine hopefulness and steadfastness of Christian faith. It is our prayer that the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of his Master may increasingly shine upon him and his beloved companion.

APPRECIATION TO THE OLD SOUTH CHURCH

THAT the Conference extend its sincere appreciation to Old South Church, its officers, members, office staff, sextons, choir, music director and minister for their gracious hospitality which has added materially to the success of this memorable 150th Annual Meeting, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED: That we extend our appreciation to Northeastern University and the Church of the Covenant and the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company for their gracious contribution to our need for food and meeting places. Be it further

RESOLVED: That we express our appreciation to those who addressed us in plenary session and to the leaders of the seminars; by their words of inspiration and their wisdom we are renewed.

RESOLVED: That the Conference send its greeting to the Reverend Ralph M. Timberlake, President-Emeritus, with sincere hope for his recovery from his illness. The entire conference and particularly his host of personal friends have missed him during these days of fellowship. Because he continues deep within our affection and esteem, be it further resolved that the Trustees of the Conference, in appreciation of his 15 years of faithful, consecrated service, be instructed to prepare an appropriate illuminated scroll to be presented at a suitable time.

Rev. Joseph J. Russell, Chairman of the Massachusetts Continuation Committee, assisted by Rev. John A. Hawley, Mr. Edward C. Perry, Rev. Franklin D. Loehr and Rev. Harry Butman, presented the cause of the churches dissenting from the Merger.

Rev. Robert J. McCracken of Riverside Church, New York, gave an address on "The Church — Diagnosis and Prescription."

The Conference closed with the following prayer, offered by Chaplain Myers:

> O God, as Thou hast appeared before men in other times, so Thou hast dwelt with us through these days. Continue to manifest Thyself to us, that we may know Thy perfect will.
> Thou Eternal One, if Thou hast come to us dressed as Duty; grant that we may not turn from Thy commands. Help us as we go back to our churches to faithfully discharge our duties that we may know the joy of doing Thy will.
> If Thou hast come robed as Truth, may we not fear to take Thee as our guide. Help us to welcome all truth knowing that it alone shall set us free.
> If Thou hast appeared to us as Love, clothed in the robes of Christian brotherhood, may we go forth with a new sense of fellowship with Thee and with our brethren everywhere.
> So lead us back to meet Thee again — where Duty, Truth and Love beckon us, and grant that our labors may show forth Thy glory. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

REVEREND ALBERT BUCKNER COE, D.D., President,
MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND
MISSIONARY SOCIETY,
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

Sir:

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society and of Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, Trustee, as at March 31, 1949, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at March 31, 1949, were verified by inspection, or otherwise, and we confirmed the cash in banks and in office at that date.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Society and of the Society as Trustee, respectively, at March 31, 1949, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

PATTERSON, TEELE AND DENNIS

ALLOTMENT ACCOUNT

In 1927 the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society were united in a single corporation. Previous to that time, the National Council of Congregational Churches and the Conference had paid their expenses for meetings and administration by thirteen cents collected for each church member. It seems right that the Conference part of our organization should still pay its own charges. Twenty-four cents per member is asked this year of the Churches. Sixteen cents of the twenty-four goes to the General Council (formerly The National Council) and eight cents is kept by the Conference. The collection of the eight cents per member is the attempt of the Conference part of our organization to pay its expenses and not to become a charge upon missionary funds.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donor, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of .... Dollars.

The City Missionary Society, an incorporated charitable agency, with headquarters in the Congregational House, works in cooperation with the Congregational churches in the Boston Area. All members of the Corporation and the Board of Directors are members of the Congregational Christian churches in Metropolitan Boston. The organization holds membership in the Family Section of the Greater Boston Community Council, the New England Camping Association, and in the American Conference of Church Social Work. The program of the Society includes family case-work, religious social work; city agency referral service, with churches, public and private social agencies; Boston Summer Service Group (Vacation Church Schools); leadership training in Boston Area churches; summer camps, Waldron and Andover, for boys and girls at Meredith, New Hampshire; Camp Rosemary for mothers and children under 8 years at Lincoln, Massachusetts. The office of the Farrington Memorial, Inc. is in the City Missionary Society suite. This plant is operated as a place for conferences and retreats, for children and others year-round.

Financial support for this work comes from interested individuals, churches and endowment funds. No income is received from Community Fund or denominational sources.

Aids churches financially, promotes cooperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE AND MISSIONARY SOCIETY

1. Wherever a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by any church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Aided Church Committee of the local Association of Churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid the Conference will appropriate different amounts according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the President or Secretary before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. Whenever the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

7. The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

8. The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

9. We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1948-1949 by placing the reference § before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears after the reference §. Special grants will be listed, as usual, on the following page.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions removals, Sunday schools, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference, in 1887, are made to conform to those in the Year Book; but names in the pastoral column are changed according to the latest information before going to press.

2. The Associations of the churches, with the names of officers.

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership, the residence and his "employment." "P. C." means pastor by council; "P.", pastor otherwise; "W. C." means without church; other abbreviations are self-evident. "W. C.," however, includes many who have retired from active service, and some who are in business.

4. The Ministerial Record containing lists of ordinations, and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. If the post office name of the church and the town name differ, a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name. Stars before the names of churches indicate the payment of the allotment dues for the year reported.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1949. Admissions and removals cover the year 1948. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars, January 1, 1949, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools" and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Also the months and days in the dates of ordination and installation of ministers are omitted. The former may be found in the lists of the local Associations which follow the tables.

"Ordained" denotes the date on which the person was originally set apart to the ministry by the "laying-on of hands." "Commenced" denotes the date of the beginning of his present pastorate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Council, in the Statistical Tables pastors installed are marked "i"; pastors duly called by their churches, but not installed or recognized by council, are not marked; "y" before a pastor's name indicates that he has a yoked (double or triple) field; "§", for address see alphabetical list in back of book.

Blanks in any column of figures are never equivalent to "none," but mean "no report", but blanks in the column of ministers do mean that the church has no pastor or acting pastor, and the blank is left for the convenience of those who note changes.

Under Sunday Schools, "c" denotes cradle roll, "h" home department, "e" both cradle roll and home department, and "b" a mission or branch school.

In the final column, under valuation of church property, an asterisk * indicates that the church has a parsonage (value included), or in a very few cases that house rent for the minister is paid in addition to the stated salary. An "x" indicates that repairs were made on church property during the year.

The condensed form in which the Year Book tables are published this year offers the reader an opportunity for personal computation, as, for example, to find the number of female members, subtract the number of male members from the total.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to average attendance, Church School enrollment, membership in young people's organizations, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

ALPHABETICAL LIST:

All ordained Congregational ministers, both active and without charge, who are members of some Congregational association in Massachusetts.

*Congregational ministers serving churches, but whose standing is held outside of Massachusetts, indicated by an asterisk.

†Ministers of other denominations, licentiates, students, laymen and others whose standing is not specified, indicated by a dagger.

⁺Ordained, but not yet a member of an Association.

The post-office addresses as given below often differ from the places named in the tables and are supposed to be correct in this list.

SPECIAL NOTICE: — IF your name is not correctly printed in the following tables, IF one Christian name is not given in full, IF your ordination is not correct or is not in its proper place, IF your post-office is wrong, or IF before you receive the next Year-Book your post-office is changed, or IF your name is omitted from this list, the needed change or correction should be reported at once to the Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society.
